A silver tea for the benefit of the Children's farm home at Corvallis is being sponsored for this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock by the members of the WCTU. Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. S. E.

Oliver, both of whom attended the dedication services at the farm home will speak on phases of the work. Readings by Mrs. T. E. Mc-Croskey and special music will add to the pleasure of the afternoon. Mrs. J. J. Kraps is chairman of the hostess-committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert returned from a trip to California during the week-end.

Harold Webster of Los Angeles was an interesting recent visitor in Salem especially to those in musical circles. Mr. Webster, who has spent, altogether, eight years abroad, is contemplating opening a studio for violin as well as theoretic subjects in Portland where he plans to make his home. Mr. Webster, a composer of varied experience, is a member of the University of California extension department faculty. Mr. Webster's foreign study was taken up in such musical centers as Berlin and Leipsig, studying at what was formerly the Royal conservatory.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hop Lee, together with Mrs. Hop Lee's brother of California, spent the week-end at the coast. Yesterday Mrs. Hop Lee and daughter, Miss Ella Hop Lee, and the brother of Mrs. Hop Lee left to spend a week in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Myers and daughter, Miss Marie Myers, of Haven, Kansas. Mr. Myers, a banker at Haven, spoke especially concerning the abundant crops in his state. Mr. and Mrs. Myers, who are touring the west, have been spending the past six weeks in California. Having left Salem they will make stops in Portland and Seattle as well as other western points. Mr. and Mrs. East were neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Myers when a number of years ago both families lived in Kansas. This is Mr, Myers' and Miss Myers' first trip to the coast,

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Buckner and daughter, Ruth, returned recently from an interesting motor trip around cos Bay stopping both at Marshfield and North Bend, at the former place as guests of friends of the family.
