MR. AND MRS. C. P. BISHOP were hosts on Sunday at one of the most interesting of reunions, arranging a 2 o'clock dinner for the pleasure of a group of boyhood school friends who had not met for over fifty years. From Colfax, Washington, were present Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Stuth, the Bishops being frequent visitors of the Hamiltons. Mr. Hamilton having in his boyhood gone to school to Mr. Bishop's father. Adding to the interest of the occasion, Mr. Bishop had invited as additional guests for the same day Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Philpot and Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Willoughby of Linn county. The reunion of four boyhood school friends who had not seen each other for the period of half a century was as unexpected as it was thoroughly interesting. When Mr. Bishop was but a small boy, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Stuth, Mr. Philpot, and Mr. Willoughby, as young men, had all gone to school to the elder Mr. Bishop. The afternoon was given over to a renewing of acquaintance and the recalling of events connected with the Linn county school they attended at the forks of the Santiam.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop and Charles Kay Bishop were also present for the dinner. Attractive table decorations were arranged with a predominating color scheme of yellow. Nasturtiums were used for the centerpiece. Gladioli, sweet peas, and roses were used about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were guests of the Bishops until late Monday afternoon, the two families spending the day in the Waldo hills; Mr. Hamilton was born at the old Waldo place. The group enjoyed dinner at the William Taylor home.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Allen, 1507 Chemeketa street, left yesterday for Hillsboro, their former home, for a few days' visit, accompanied by their house-guest, Miss Louise F. Shields.

This morning marks the opening of one of Salem's most exclusive style centers, "The Smart Shop," at 115 North Liberty street, with Lester Schlosberg of Portland the proprietor.

A fashion revue last night from 7 to 10 o'clock featured the eve of the opening, with many lovers of the exclusive in wearing apparel, millinery and hosiery thronging the open doors. Souvenirs were given each visitor.

Entrancing music by a four-piece orchestra accompanied the professional modeling which was done by Gladys Crane, Claire Lincoln and Mary Copeland of Portland.

All modes exhibited, both Parisian and domestic, are of exclusive design, with no two in the shop alike, and while numberless garments were shown many were not exhibited.

Suits, coats, dresses, hosiery and millinery in the most exclusive and most exquisite fabrics were shown one after the other in this early fall showing.

Coats of distinctive line were exhibited in the high tones of such new fabrics as Chamovia cloth, Desiro, Botany's New Zella cloth, Peau Renard and imported Rembrandt cloth. The dinner gowns were especially lovely. Many were worn with harmonizing chapeaux. Outstanding among the season's new shades in evidence were: poppy, pearl, wood, sand, tile and almond.

The July silver tea of the Central Congregational church will be held this afternoon in the church parlors with hours from 2 to 5:30 o'clock. The hostess group for the afternoon includes Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Street, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. McDowell, and Mrs. Merchant.

With the adjournment of the three-day encampment of Spanish War Veterans and auxiliaries at Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hewlett, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, as Hal Hibbard representatives, have returned to Salem.

The sessions were held at Grants Pass, the final day affording a trip to the Oregon Caves. A number, after a visit to Crater Lake, made the return trip by the Roosevelt highway.

One of the prettiest of the summer weddings was that at which Miss Adeline Priem of Macleay became the bride of George Franklin Madill of Salem. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Priem, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Putnam of the Court Street Christian church officiating. The ring service was used, the impressive ritual being read as the bridal party stood beneath a canopy of sweet peas and fern. Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. R. L. Putnam sang "A Whispered Vow," accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Priem. The stately wedding march from Lohengrin was used.

The bride's frock was of beige silk trimmed with lace. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Miss Leona Priem, a sister of the bride, attractive in pink voile trimmed with cream lace, was bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by Harvey Priem as best man. Miss Theona Putnam was ring bearer, concealing the ring in the heart of a large white rose.

A reception followed the ceremony with many lovely gifts on display. The bride's cake carried out the color scheme of the floral decorations.

After a short wedding trip to Portland Mr. and Mrs. Madill will live at Agate Beach. Mr. Madill

LIKE A BOY 18 YEARS OLD

Strength and Energy Quickly Restored By Korex Says Engineer

"You have no idea of the condition I was in when I first started taking korex compound," says R. E. Lewis, 65 year old locomotive engineer of Pace, Florida. "I could only walk a few steps at a time. I was so weak and staggering and my eyesight so bad I could hardly tell a negro from a white man. Five days after taking korex, I was like a boy 18 years old and am improving all the time. My normal activity has been restored," he says.

Those who feel themselves going into a rapid decline, who are growing old too quickly and are suffering from weakness after the flu, aching muscles, stiff joints, lessened vigor and poor circulation, may be interested in knowing that the American distributors of korex compound, the Melton Laboratories, at 546 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., have arranged for korex compound to be sold in Capital Drug Store at 405 State St., Salem, Ore. Thousands the world over are now using the compound. It contains no deleterious, habit-forming drugs. Is Better Than Fountain of Youth. —Guide —Adv.
