KELSO WOLVES TO PLAY AUGUST 7-8

Fast Washington Timber Wolves Being Brought Here By Senators

For the second time this season the fastest ball team in the northwest, outside of the coast league, invades Salem to meet the Salem Senators. The last time they were here the Senators broke even with them while Barham was pitching. Since that time Barham fell and the foreign office after dinner last that has happened to the locals last letter. this season, but nevertheless the club has been opposing the best teams in both Oregon and Wash-

Some people claim the Kelso team is a semi-pro team, but this is wrong, as every member receives a salary and does nothing New York else but play ball, and Mr. Gregory, sporting editor of the Oregonian says it is the fastest ball Chicago club outside of the coast league on the coast. Bishop expects to get Philadelphia at least one first class pitcher for these games, and with fair breaks ought to break even on the home lot. Bishop says we have a little the advantage here as our park is much faster and smaller, and with our club hitting in regular form, and with good pitching, we have a good chance to break even with any club at home. The games with Kelso will start at 5 o'clock instead of 5:45 as they did with Longview team, and will start on time so as to go the full nine innings. The Astoria game Sunday will start at 3 p. m. as usual.

Boxer Jumps From Bridge Because of Fight Losses

BOSTON, Mass., July 31 .- Jock dalone, middleweight boxer of St. Paul, Minn., jumped from the Charlsetown bridge today with his lothes on, making good a promse that if he did not defeat Frank Moody, an Eglish boxer, he would jump into the harbor. Because he had postponed his plunge, and, meantime, was defeated also by Johnny Wilson, former middleweight champion, Malone swam out, clambered back to the bridge and did it all over again, while a crowd looked on, holding up bridge traffic.
