

The Statesman's Great Seashore Trip Contest

Why not let your vacation this summer include a trip to the Seashore at expense of The Statesman Publishing Co.

The Oregon Daily Statesman offers for the next three weeks one of the up-to-date Popular Voting Contests, which will eclipse anything of its kind ever conducted in this city. There will be ten trips to the Seaside given absolutely free to the ladies of Salem and surrounding territory. The ladies winning the above prizes will never regret a little work. Any lady or girl in Salem or surrounding territory (Marion and Polk counties) has the privilege of participating in this contest. All old and new subscribers paying their subscription (new, renewal, or arrearage) are given votes which they can cast for their favorite candidate, according to the table of votes published in this announcement. The winners of these prizes will be the women of greatest energy, most extensive acquaintance and the best organizing and hustling abilities. Send in your nomination at once. Costs you absolutely nothing. The sooner you act the better your chance of success. Names of candidates published in a few days.

VACATION AT THE SEASHORE

Leaving Salem on Monday, September 2nd, the party of ten ladies in charge of a competent chaperone, will travel by auto over the most scenic route to the Seaside and for one week enjoy one of the grandest outings any pleasure party ever experienced—all at the expense of the Oregon Statesman.

Ten vacation trips to the Seaside will be awarded to ten ambitious women --- Make your travel dreams come true

Information, Rules and Conditions

Of the Oregon Statesman's Big Seashore Vacation Competition

Any woman of good character, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this Seaside Vacation Contest. Girls under 14 years of age are only allowed to enter with the consent of their parents or guardians.

Candidates may nominate themselves or be nominated by their friends. Vote coupons good for 5 votes as provided in The Statesman, which when neatly cut out, name filled in and brought or mailed to the Contest Department of The Oregon Statesman will count for the amount of votes thereon.

The final count of votes will be made in public and all candidates and their friends may witness it.

All contest records will be open to the inspection of the candidates the day following the final count of votes.

Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are to be issued. Candidates can secure subscriptions anywhere.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to add more prizes or give extra prizes.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to reject any nomination if it considers it advisable to do so.

In case of a tie for the tenth prize additional prizes will be awarded to the candidates lying.

The Oregon Statesman guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

No statement or promise of solicitor or agent varying from the rules or statements published in The Oregon Statesman will be recognized by The Statesman.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest, and will be polled at the discretion of the candidate, subscriber, or The Statesman.

Votes are not transferable except under the following circumstances: If a candidate wishes to withdraw from the contest he or she may change his or her votes to a suitable substitute, but said substitute must be a new candidate who has not been accepted in the contest.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to give extra votes and to alter the vote schedule, but it guarantees the candidates that all subscriptions turned in from the beginning of the contest will receive the benefit of any alterations in the vote schedules if same are altered or if any extra votes other than those mentioned in this advertisement are given.

The winners of the prizes will be decided by the accredited votes, said votes being reprinted by vote ballots issued on subscription payments, and from the free coupons clipped from the paper.

There will be a cash commission of 8 per cent paid to all active non-prize-winners. An active candidate is one who turns in at least $10 in subscriptions during the life of the contest.

Candidates are not confined to their own particular section in which to work. They may take subscriptions anywhere. Candidates may have any one anywhere work for them.

Votes are issued on new and old subscriptions to The Oregon Statesman. Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are issued.

In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above rules and regulations.
