ONE OF THE MOST enjoyable and distinctive affairs in many weeks was the tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. George H. Alden at the Bishop home, 765 Court street, for the pleasure of Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, who leaves next week for the east.

The entire floral background for the tea was particularly lovely. In the reception hall an exclusively beautiful basket of pink massed phlox completely decked the library table. A vase of variegated zinnias was reflected in the mirror above the mantel.

The living room followed a color scheme of rose-pink, vases of unusually lovely gladioli, in morning shades, bringing out the desired effect. A cut glass bowl of choice sweet peas in pastel shades added further to the floral beauty of the room, as did the low vase of roses and the varying mixed bouquets of pinks and silver fern and Queen Anne's lace with cosmos and white phlox.

In the dining room the yellow tones predominated with a cut-glass vase of galliardia, Monte Brecla, hellathus and golden rod centering the beautifully appointed table.

Greeted at the door by Miss Imogene Roberts of Hood River and Miss Elizabeth Jane Bishop of Portland, the guests were received, during calling hours, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, by Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. George H. Alden, and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. S. B. Gillette, Mrs. William Kuntz, Mrs. Lillian Bowersox and Mrs. Florian Von Ecken assisted about the rooms.

Hostesses in the dining room were: Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. E. C. Hickman and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Junette Jones Ashby, Miss Helen Gathe, Miss Frances Hodge and Miss Margaret Stolz assisted in the serving.

During the afternoon delightful piano numbers were given for the pleasure of the guests by Mrs. William McCall.

A hundred invitations were extended for the afternoon, the guests including members of the Thursday Association club, wives of Willamette university trustees and faculty members.

A cablegram received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Miles from Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles who are abroad for the summer, announces that they expect to sail for New York City on the Leviathan on August 26, arriving in Salem the first part of September. Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dunn who took passage with the Miles from New York City will not return at this time, but remain abroad for an indefinite period.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri of Portland, are leaving this morning for Newport where they will be guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hofer.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brady have moved from the Marion apartments to their five-acre home south of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Morris of 1056 Center street are enjoying a visit from their son, Roy, who is home on a 15-day furlough from the ship on which he is stationed, the USS Pennsylvania, as first-class seaman.

Mrs. A. N. David of Atlanta, Ga., who plans to leave for her home after spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. C. T. McIntire, had as her callers for a day, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leach of Seattle.

Mrs. F. Ray Felker and daughter will be guests for a month in Cottage Grove.

Miss Vera Wright had as her house-guest the first part of the week Miss Gertrude Tucker. Miss Tucker has been taking summer school work at the University of Oregon.

Many are welcoming Dr. and Mrs. Rea Pomeroy who arrived the first of the week from Honolulu to be the guests of Dr. Pomeroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pomeroy. For the past three years, Dr. Pomeroy has been a lieutenant in the United States navy. He is at present on a month's leave of absence. On Monday Dr. and Mrs. Pomeroy will leave for San Francisco and there await their orders.

Dr. Pomeroy was a former practicing physician in Salem where he has a large number of friends. His boyhood was spent here. Before seeing over-seas service he was house doctor for three years in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Frank Power and daughter, Florence, left the first of the week for Lebanon where they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Power. They plan to spend next week at Newport, domiciled at the Hotel Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson have as their house-guest, Miss Margaret Laughton of Portland, who returned to Salem with them the first part of the week. The Nicholsons with their son, Jimmy, have been enjoying a ten days' motor trip to British Columbia and various Washington points.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellars of Seattle were guests on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marsters on their way to southern Oregon on a motor trip.

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves returned home Wednesday evening from a two weeks' vacation at Seaside. Guests at "Steevete" during their sojourn there were:

Professor and Mrs. E. R. Morse of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. P. W. Morse and daughter, Josephine, of Vancouver, Wash.; and Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Steeves and son, Richard, of Dallas.

Miss Mamie Victor and Miss Elsie Victor are spending three weeks in California as guests of relatives in San Diego, San Pedro, and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Riches are on an outing to southern Oregon points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapman have with them as their guests at "Twin Oaks" Mr. and Mrs. Julia Smith and daughter, Josephine, of Oakland, Cal. Joe Lynch of Portland, a brother of Mrs. Chapman, is also a guest at "Twin Oaks" this week.

Miss Elizabeth Jane Bishop of Portland will be the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Miss Elizabeth Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Green and children, accompanied by their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Green and children are leaving this morning for a week-end trip to the Clackamas river. Mr. and Mrs. Green and their guests returned home Sunday from an enjoyable outing at the coast.

Mrs. William Bell is expected home this week-end from Agate Beach.

Coming from Lansing Mich., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Woolpert. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are enjoying a vacation tour of the states.

Mrs. Earl Percy has as her house guest, her grandmother,

Mrs. F. A. Percy of Portland, who plans to be here for three weeks. Mrs. Percy's sister, Mrs. E. A. Shilton (Amelia McIntire) of Fresno, Calif., and her husband, E. A. Shilton, are guests also at the Percy home. Mr. and Mrs. Shilton are planning to locate here.

Misses Eugenia and Charlotte Zeiber will entertain this evening at an out-of-door dancing party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McClain spent Tuesday in Albany as the guests of their sons.

Miss Cornelia Marvin returned home Wednesday evening following a few days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marsters are expecting their daughter, Miss Vivian Marsters, home this evening from a week's trip to British Columbia in company with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rickett and daughter, Madeline, of Roseburg. Miss Marsters, after completing her summer school work at the Oregon Agricultural college last Friday, left the following morning for the northern trip.

The Oregon state highway double quartet will be especially featured tomorrow at the quarterly meeting of the northwest society of highway engineers in Longview, Washington. R. H. Robertson is the director of the double quartet, the personnel of which includes: Sopranos, Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Miss Josephine Brown; contraltos, Trista Wenger, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans; tenors, R. H. Robertson, Newell Williams, and bass, Leroy Myers and J. Weber.

A considerable local group will motor down for the meeting of the association. Those planning to leave in the morning are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Klein, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Probert, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, J. W. Nash, L. N. Myers, Theodore Rowland, James McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sawyer, W. A. Reeves, J. W. De Sousa, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Miss Josephine Brown, and Miss Trista Wenger.

On Saturday evening a banquet will be held, with a large dance following, at the Monticello hotel. Speakers for the evening will include J. D. Kennant, vice president of the Long-Bell Lumber company, and Wesley Vandercreek, chief engineer, who will present information relative to the Longview project. During the day, inspection will take up a large part of the time.

Mrs. Homer Goulet has as her guest for the month of August her mother, Mrs. J. A. Norwood. After her visit here, Mrs. Norwood will leave for Oakland, California, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Miss Dorothy Marsters motored to Taylor's grove, near Mehama, yesterday where they remained overnight, visiting the high school girl reserve camp.

Judge and Mrs. John L. Rand left yesterday by motor for Baker, Oregon, where they will spend a month's vacation. In Portland Judge and Mrs. Rand will be joined by their son, Irving Rand.

Never destroy a lumpy old mattress. Some farmer can use it for a summer boarder.
