

BAPTIST
FIRST—Liberty and Marion. Rev. E. H. Shanks. A great young people's service at 8 p. m. Our young folks are back from the summer assembly at Columbia City where for ten days they were assembled in a great missionary and educational program. There were 32 registered from the Salem church. These will have charge of the evening worship. Songs, testimonials and reports will be given. Consecration service conducted by the pastor. In the morning Mrs. C. E. Ganaway of Medford will deliver an address on "Near-East Relief." Bible school at 9:45 and B.E.P.U. at 7 p. m. Tourists, travelers and strangers are cordially invited to "The church that welcomes strangers."

CONGREGATIONAL
FIRST—Sunday school as usual at 10 a. m. Everybody urged to be in attendance. M. D. McCallister, superintendent. No other service.
CENTRAL—South 19th street. Harry W. Johnson, minister. Sunday school and morning worship at 10 a. m. Story telling by the minister, called "Traveling." Evening worship at 8 p. m. Singing of popular hymns and short sermon on "Who Are the Gentiles?" National religious groups, secret societies and neighborhoods have tried to strengthen loyalty within their groups by teaching their members to think of all outsiders as "Gentiles." The Christian gospel has an answer for this very human conceit.

CHRISTIAN
FIRST—Center and High streets. J. J. Evans, minister. Miss Hattie Mitchell, missionary. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the morning hour. "The All-Sufficient Christ" will be the topic. The men's Bible class continues strong, opening at 9:30. Another miracle lesson will be discussed by the teacher, J. J. Evans. The main school meets at 9:45 with 18 interesting programs of instruction and worship. The young people meet at 6:30. No evening service. The congregation will join in the afternoon service at 7:30 p. m. at 4 o'clock.

COURT STREET—Corner North 17th and Court streets. R. L. Putnam, minister. Bible school, 9:45 a. m. Chris. J. Kowalski, superintendent. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Endeavor meeting, 7 p. m. Evangelistic service, 8 p. m. Sermon by pastor. Midweek service Thursday, 8 p. m. You are most welcome to worship with us.

ST. PAUL'S—Corner Church and Chemeketa streets. Rev. H. D. Chambers, pastor. "Eighth Sunday after Trinity." No early service at 7:30 a. m. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Morning prayer with music and sermon at 11 a. m. The Rev. J. D. Rice of Portland will conduct the service and preach the sermon in the absence of the pastor. St. Paul's extends a hearty welcome to all.

EVANGELICAL
FIRST—Liberty and Center. C. C. Poling, minister. Regular services Sunday, Aug. 10, at 11 a. m. Subject: "Co-partnership." and "The Church and Her Final Hope." A full attendance is desired. Bible school at 9:45 a. m. J. J. Evans, superintendent. Full corps of teachers. Classes for all ages. Senior and Junior Christian Endeavor here at 7 p. m. There will be no services at this church Aug. 17 because of the camp meeting which will be in progress at "Quincy Park" at Quincy, north of Salem—Sunday school will be held at the park at 9:45 a. m. Morning prayer three times on Sunday at the park; at 11 a. m. Rev. Y. L. Farnham will preach. Mr. Farnham and wife sail for China the day of September next. Tickets may be procured for the four days at a nominal sum. Inquire of Rev. G. L. Lewis, 100 North Winter street.

CHEMUKETA STREET—F. W. Launer, pastor. Sermon at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Called Minister." Sermon at 8 p. m. Subject: "What Is a Christian?" Sunday school at 10 a. m. O. R. Straub, superintendent. The evangelistic league at 7 p. m. Sermon at 8:30 a. m. No prayer service this week on account of our camp meeting at Quincy, beginning Wednesday, August 13.

FRIENDS
HIGHLAND—Highland avenue and N. Church street. L. E. G. and J. L. ministers. Bible school at 10 a. m. Mr. Walter Stanton, superintendent. Our school is well arranged with separate room for most of the classes and a very cordial welcome for all. Morning worship and preaching at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 and preaching at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday at 8 p. m.

She has recently come from a five years' study in Turkey and Armenia, and is accompanied by her charming four year old adopted daughter. A cordial invitation is given to all to hear her message and to study with the Sunday school. At the morning worship, at 11 o'clock, the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed. The pastor will speak on the subject, "Contact or Communion?" There will be special music by the choir, under direction of Prof. W. E. Hobson of the Willamette university. The Epworth league will be led by Miss Carolyn Wilson at 7 o'clock. There will be no evening service in this church while we are cooperating with the union open air park service, held at 8 o'clock. The official board meets next Wednesday night, and the midweek prayer service Thursday at 8. The public, and especially strangers in the city, are welcome at all services of the church.

JASON LEE MEMORIAL—Corner N. Winter and Jefferson streets. Take the North Commercial street car to Jefferson avenue. Thomas Adelson, pastor; LeRoy Walker, assistant, in charge of the junior church. Strangers and visitors will receive a home like greeting at the services of this church on the coming Lord's day. Every department is wide awake, aggressive, and spiritual, and a wholesome enthusiasm pervades all the services. Sunday school convenes at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages, directed by capable teachers. The subject, "The Menace of Sermon Tasting," the pastor in charge. Rev. R. A. Forkner will preach to the juniors down stairs in the absence of the junior preacher who is with a group of young people at Epworth league institute at Falls City.
