Italian Army Exacts Service Despite Boy's Fine Record ROME, July 21. (Mail.)—During the war the youngest soldier in the Italian army was Francesco Laveric who, driven from his home by the Austrians when the Italians overran the border in 1915, became a volunteer in the Italian regiment of Guides at 12 years of age, and had risen to be a sergeant major when he was fifteen. Laveric took part in over a dozen big actions and was awarded the silver medal for valor for his bravery on the Piave. All this, however, has availed the young hero nothing, and as all his achievements occurred before he was 18 years of age, he has been called under arms again to do his ordinary military service. The boy veteran is now stationed at Ferrara, and a public subscription has been opened to give him a gold medal in memory of his unique experiences.
