SILVERTON 7; Butchers 6

SILVERTON, Or., Aug. 12.—(Special to The Statesman.)—One of the most exciting ball games of the season was played at Silvertown Sunday afternoon when the Portland butchers went down to defeat at the hands of the Silvertown team. The final score was 7 to 6. The game was a nip and tuck from beginning to finish.

WALTER JOHNSON, VETERAN PITCHER BUT STILL A STAR, SHOWS YOUNG JOHNSONS HOW IT'S DONE

The longer Walter Johnson pitches for the Senators the better the Washington fans like him. Walter has a family of four, three sons and a wee daughter, and he believes in training 'em while they are young. The photograph shows Johnson giving his offspring a lesson in how to fool the batter. We see Walter, Jr., Eddie, Bob and little Caroline listening to daddy telling them all about fast ones, curves and change of pace.

GAMBLING FACTS ARE REQUESTED

Pacific Coast League President Asks for Information From Johnson

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Facts and names relative to alleged heavy betting on Pacific Coast league ball games in the ball park here by gamblers involved in the 1919 world series baseball scandal, were requested of Ban Johnson, president of the American league in a wire sent late today by Harry Williams, president of the Coast league.

In a statement tonight Williams said that he appreciated Johnson's interest in the Coast league games but thought it odd that the American league head had not taken the matter up through an official source.

Johnson Surprised CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Ban Johnson, president of the American league tonight expressed surprise when informed that a letter written to Bill Lange, major league scout stating that persons implicated in the 1919 world's series scandal were in Los Angeles betting on the Pacific coast league games, had been made public.

It is the aim of coast guard officials to starve out the rum vessels within six or eight months. NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Twenty former navy destroyers, being reconditioned, soon will move against liquor smuggling craft, coast guard officials said today. In addition to these boats the new "dry armada" when fully assembled will consist, it is said, of two former navy mine sweepers, 300 fast motor boats and more than 2,000 experienced officers and men.

JAPANESE BAN TO HAVE ILL EFFECT

'Grave Consequences' to Really Come True in Relations With U. S.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 12.—The statement of Mr. Hanikawa, Japanese ambassador at Washington that the immigration bill passed by the congress of the United States would have grave consequences not only in his native land but throughout the world was re-asserted by Yusuke Tsurumi, Japanese representative at the institute of politics in the first of his series of lectures here tonight.

It did mean however, an epoch in the development of Japanese policy, he asserted, in changing the psychology of the Japanese people and the unfolding of a drama of international politics in the first instance on the Pacific stage and in the second, on the world stage.
