THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Lumber Being Shippedare attending the classes regularly ing to the license, will take place Cobbs & Mitchell, owners of a each Suntiay in the basement of September 1. Another license was of the occasion. Miss Savage delocal sawmill, have just completed the First Christian church. Though issued to J. C. Chapman, a car lighted those present with her pia shipment of a quarter of a mil- Rev. John J. Evans has been man, and Jean Armour McRae, lion feet of material for a new spending considerable time out of both of 2335 North Fourth street, concrete stadium at the Illinois town during the week, he is al-Salem.

state university, at Champaign ways present for these classes. The company is now working on The regular John J. Evans men's Phone 934a nine and one-half million feet classes will be resumed at the For odorless cleaning and pressorder of 12 by 12s and 24 by 24s Bligh theater beginning Sunday, ing. Cherry City Cleaners. -a-17 17 will be the date of the picnic for exportation to Great Britain. Oct. 5. Wil Build Garage-

Buy, Sell or Trade-

Our Distributive Payment Real estate and insure with Plan if you cannot spare the yesterday to D. R. Ruble for the The entertainment committee con-Oregon Incorporated, 315-316 U. cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers construction of a $350 garage at sisted of Mrs. Emma Thompson, S. Bank bldg., Salem, Ore. a23 and opticians.

Kruschke Suit Dismissed-

Upon order of Judge Percy R. Kelly, the suit of Minnie Kruschke the city health officer Saturday. one available landing field in Saagainst O. C. Kruschke and others This was that of Eunice Estella, lem for commercial aviation was made by Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page was dismissed Saturday, with nei- to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Schal- given this week when C. R. for the annual picnic of the Marther of the parties to recover ler, of route 4, on August 1. costs.

Osteopathy the Original-And genuine spinal treatment.

Bank Wins Decree-

Plank, et al. The judgment is cutting a corner and overloading. convenient to fueling facilities. for $4433.68 and other smaller The tourist, who gave the name sums, with interest.

for cutting a corner. Both are to If You Cannot Spareappear before Police Judge Mar-The cash, Pomeroy & Keene, ten Poulsen Monday. The arrests jewelers and opticians, will gladly were made by Officer Wright. give credit. A17 Osteopathy for Children-

Speeder Is Fined-In the justice court Saturday, George H. Curl was fined $10 for Delivers Bartlettsspeeding when he appeared before First of the season's Bartlett Judge P. J. Kuntz. pears were delivered to the Salem

Osteopathy for Goitres-Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Bldg. 199 张丹

Bible Class Continues-

Interest in the men's Bible class for orchard run. organized last fall has continued through the summer and the men Dr. O. W. Bean and-

411 Oregon Bldg. Phone 457 The Seavy-Bell Insurance Agency

A17 2170 Market. Birth Is Recorded-Aviator Visits Salem-Proof that there is more than Realtors to Picnic-Only one birth was reported to

Truck and Auto Collidea collision between a truck loaded landing was made on a stubble

Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Bldg. with wood and a tourist at Belle- field at Seventeenth and Market -a-17 vue and Commercial shortly after The machine was fueled at the gas

The pears were exceptionally fine

Dr. Davis Bean will be out of Painful injuries were received by Mrs. W. E. Gilbert, of Brooks,

Saturday morning when the automobie in which she and her husband were coming to Salem collided with another bearing license

No. 174,099 at the intersection of

Highland avenue and Fairgrounds

town the coming week.

Brooks Woman Injured-

noon Saturday, considerable dam- station belonging to Wade & Lucus age was done to the visitor's ma- before the return flight was be-Judgment and a decree in favor chine, which was crushed against gun. As far as could be learned, of the Federal Land bank of Spo- the curb. As an aftermath, no other plans had used this field kane was entered in the circuit Frank Hipe, driver of the truck, to land, but it is probable it will court Saturday by Judge Percy R. was haled into the police court be used in the future as it is not Kelly in its suit against John U. where he deposited $50 bail for only a safe landing field, but is

> Dance at Auburnof L. R. liams, was also arrested Every Thursday. Admission 50 > > cents.

Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Bldg.

a17*

ly 50 interested persons. Speak- Going to New Jersey-Mrs. Wm. Osterman and her ers urged that the La Follette Fruit union plant Saturday morning by Vic Looney, of Dever. The platform was the only one that young son start today for Marlton, New Jersey, to join her huscould insure prosperity to the -a-17 first of a 400 box consignment of farmers and the working class and band, who is with his father in delivery included 90 boxes, the the lumbering business there; not attacked the platforms of both pears going to Pearcy & Beihn.

Coolidge and Davis. Thought Auto Stolen-

When John Wiers found his automobile gone from the place he had parked it on Commercial W. B. McCallister of Pratum, from street yesterday he reported to babyhood, but went to San Diego, the police that it had been stolen. Later he found that someone, recognizing the machine, had merely but has since gone home to New Jersey, to help his father. Mrs. Stealing Watermetlons-All the grief in fruit raising i not cornered by the orchardists. according to a report made at the sheriff's office Saturday by an

SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 17, 1924

and with unexpended balances re-

and completeness of the records of the office, including the huge

volume of individual war records

that have been compiled covering

every man who served from Ore-

turns to the administration of Na-

Guard in Fine Shape

"I have reviewed the current

Covering federal funds disbursed in the state through national guard tables, the report shows a heavy growth during the past four first six months of present year,

"The total for three and one-half years," the report says, "is $423,487.88. This item alone exceeds by $147,011.44 the state

tional Guard troops and affairs.

After commending the accuracy

maining at conclusion."

and departments.

chinery that is used in the erec- during the past biennial period Many at Iowa Picnic-Several hundred former resi- tion of modern structures, from is gone into in the report, which dents of lows gathered at the fair small homes to the huge rein- shows the business methods used grounds Saturday for the annual forced steel and concrete strucin the expenditure of the $200,000 Iowa picnic. Impromptu speeches tures, and to the equipment that spent for the buildings. "A point by visiting Iowans were a feature is installed in these buildings to worthy of favorable commendagive them the present day effici- tion is observed," the report says, ency. Everyone connected with "in that the construction was completed with the funds provided, ano selections and Mrs. Jones, of the building industry-architects, Independence, read a poem on the contractors, building material dealers, and members of the buildcounties of the old home state. ing trades as well as prospective

Glen Adams was elected president building owners will find this and U. S. Dotson secretary-treasbook of extraordinary interest. urer of the association. August Because of this the book will be kept available for inspection for a next year. Mrs. Gertrude J. M. time so that those interested may Page is the out-going president have the opportunity to inspect it. gon in the World war, the report A building permit was issued, and made the coffee for the picnic.

> Grangers Hold Picnic-Nearly 100 members of the Sa-Mrs. Lathrop, Glen Adams and Mrs. Monie Hauser.

lem Grange and their families met at the state fair grounds Satur- 1924 reports of recent inspections day. The morning was given over by federal officers covering a wide to a closed business session and scope of inquiry on matters con-Preliminary plans are being the afternoon to a program, with cerning the Oregon National guard Miss Cornelia Marvin, state lib- and its administration," Mr. Tourrarian, as the principal speaker. tellette reports. "All of these in-The business meeting was held in spection reports reflect a high the Modern Woodman hall with standard of commendation as to the picnic lunch served in one of command, administration, ability the restaurants on the grounds, and efficiency of the state staff years, and the revenues to Oregon Ray Lucas, of the Steusloff communities from this source is company, and Gordon Thompson, specially commented upon, the mail messenger at the postoffice, financial table in the report showleft Saturday evening for a pro- ing that the annual revenues for tracted motor trip through Cali- armory drill pay alone from the White reported back from over-

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Krause, seas duty and undertook the renearly $200,000 for the present source by years since 1920 are for the state rifle shoot, where 204.18; 1921, $93,053.08; 1922. $122,708.31; 1923, $131,733.18; he will act as range officer.

NEED MORE HELP IS THE FINDING

(Continued from page 1)

legislative appropriation for the Brig. Gen. George A. White, as corresponding period. The total adjutant general of the state, two expenditures of federal allottments months ago when asked that all for the period aggregate $935,military funds and transactions be 583.23. These funds are widely gone into carefully. Governor distributed through the state and Pierce suggested Mr. Tourtellette constitute a large revenue to Oregon communities." as being qualified for the task, Mr. Tourtellette having made an audit of the state bonus commission and state treasurer's office during the Greasing present year. The check of the military department occupied Alemite - Zerk - Saal MIKE PANEK 275 So. Com'l The report goes into a great deal

$75,916.31.

1216 STATE STREET, CORNER 12th

Ford Touring Car with self starter, in good condition. Piano, standard make, good; 6-hole range, white enamel and nickel base; oak library table; 2 four-section book cases in oak; oak rocker, leather seat; 2 oak rockers; reed rocker; leather settee; mahogany settee; 2 large mirrors; sewing rocker; round oak extension table; 4 oak diners; oak buffett; oak china cabinet; waxed oak round extension table; 12 oak diners; brass bed, steel spring and floss mattress; ¾ bed, steel spring and mattress; 3 white enamel beds, springs and mattresses; sanitary couch and pad; folding cot and pad ivory chiffoneer; circasian colonial dresser; dresser and stand; 5 good rugs, 9x12 and smaller; stair and hall carpet; small rugs; gas range, oak kitchen cabinet; electric heater; set andirons, folding porch chair, hose, lawa mower, tools, fruit jars, jardineers, 2 boilers, tubs, camp stove, electric globes, auto pump, porch rattan screen, 2 Brownie cameras and numerous other articles.

F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Phone 511

563 SOUTH 17TH STREET

Including

Oak library table; all leather rocker; 2 oak rockers with leather seat; round oak dining table; 4 oak dining chairs; Axminster rug, 9x12; Axminster rug, 8-3x10-6 4 small rugs; ivory bedroom suite including ivory bed, coll spring and cotton mattress; ivory chiffoneer; vanity table and chair; ¾ Vernis Martin bed, steel spring and cotton mattress; Reed baby go-cart; Ideal range on base; refrigerator; 4-hole cook stove No. 8; heater board and pipe; ironing board; all copper boller; baby high-chair with sanitary tray; wheelbarrow; fruit jars, tubs, tools, curtains, ect.

NOTE: This furniture is all like new, being bought less than a year and is the kind you will appreciate.

the Bligh theater Saturday found niture company, were treated to a were in the city Saturday. Mr. only a few old faithfuls in the big dinner at the Lebanon hotel Krause will proceed to Clackamas shown as follows: 1920, $43,audience and the "mass meeting" on the way home.

far from Atlantic City. Mrs. Osterman was Miss Anita Hendricks, a graduate of the Salem high school. She made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.

Cal., something over two years ago, and was married there. Mr. Osterman was then in the navy. driven it into a garage.

Osterman will go by way of the about a month and covered re-Union Pacific route; taking the cords and all other transactions Pennsylvania line at Chicago. She as well as the finances, expendihas been visiting relatives here tures and records of the office. for a few weeks.

Thomas, of Eugene, flew to Salem ion-Polk County Realty associawith G. E. Ericson as a passen- tion. While no date has yet been ger. After transacting business, set, the picnic will be held in the Though no one was injured in the two returned to Eugene. The near future as the days are beginning to get shorter.

Boy Scouts Back-

Tired from their 75 mile ride, but nevertheless happy and full of enthusiasm over their two weeks outing at Camp Cascadia, the Salem Boy Scouts were brought back to Salem Saturday by local men who contributed the use of their automobiles. The camp is said to be the best ever. Camp Cascadia fornia which will keep them from United States treasury has grown the Santiam river, about 40 miles -a20 is located on the headwaters of Salem for a period of several from $43,204.18 when General weeks. abov Lbanon and back in th mountains. Th Boy Scouts who were of Newport, accompanied by Mrs. organization of the service, up to

F. Giese, of the Giese-Powers Fur- | spending the week at the coast, year. The receipts from this one fortunate to draw a ride with C. Al Krause and son, who have been

