KID M'COY IS HELD SANE BY TWO DOCTORS

Pugilist, Charged With the Murder of Mrs. Mors, Said By Alienists to Have No Mental Affliction

DEAD WOMAN LEAVES A HUGE ESTATE TO MATE

$125,000 Property and $80,000 Insurance Willed to Husband

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Kid McCoy, former pugilist, in jail here charged with suspicion of the murder of Theresa Mors, wealthy antique dealer, is entirely sane, according to a verbal report of two alienists to District Attorney Keyes late today.

The verbal report was made to the district attorney by Dr. Paul Bowers and Dr. Louis Weber, two of the three alienists engaged on the case. Dr. Victor Parkin, the third, declined to make a statement to the authorities, but announced he would file a written report of his findings early tomorrow.

Pugilist Cooperates
Dr. Bowers announced McCoy as "sane, diplomatic and cooperative in the tests," adding that the accused ex-pugilist "did very well for a man whose education had been neglected."

The alienist said he based his announcement on facts ascertained under a careful examination of McCoy's family history and personal reactions.

Dr. Weber merely stated McCoy had been "found sane" while he declared that further details would be included in the written report of him and his colleagues tomorrow.

Jewelry is Stolen

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Theresa W. Mors, who died here last Tuesday night with a bullet in her brain and in connection with whose death Kid McCoy, pugilist, is being held on suspicion of murder, left an estate of $125,000 and $80,000 life insurance to her husband, Albert A. Mors, it was revealed here today by Mors' lawyers and the district attorney's office.

Another development today in the case was the announcement by Mors' attorneys that $5000 worth of jewelry, composed of a black pearl, a brooch and a diamond and sapphire studded watch had been stolen from Mrs. Mors, the night she died. They demanded that the district attorney investigate the disappearance of the jewels.

Divorced From Mate

The will of Mrs. Mors, bequeathing everything to her "beloved husband," whom she recently divorced was drawn in New York August 4, 1921.

One of the witnesses who signed it was Mrs. Ann Schapp, the woman, who with her husband and another man, was wounded by McCoy in a shooting orgy last Wednesday.

Mrs. Schapp, say investigators, had tried to reconcile Mors and his divorced wife.

The police today abandoned search for a moving picture actor, or pugilist, to whom McCoy was reported having confessed early Wednesday morning that he killed Mrs. Mors. This man, named in an anonymous telephone call to police headquarters by a woman's voice as Dick Summers, or Dick Sommers, apparently is a myth say the police.

Shop is Reopened

Late today Mors was granted a special letter of administration by the superior court under which he may re-open the antique shop of Mrs. Mors, Inc., by posting a $25,000 bond.

DEMANDS MADE UPON GOVERNOR TO ALLOW HUNTING IN WOODS

Governor Pierce said last night that he was not prepared to say whether he would withdraw his proclamation deferring the opening of the hunting season from August 20 to September 20, which sportsmen are endeavoring to persuade him to do since a heavy rain has fallen in the state. The governor declared the season closed until September 20, because of the drought and on ground that to allow hunters in the woods would increase the danger of forest fires.

The governor said that he is being besieged with requests to withdraw the proclamation, but that he has not decided whether he will do so, or whether he has authority to do so. He said that he would talk with forestry officials today.

Walter C. Winslow, local attorney who represents the sportsmen, said last night that the governor definitely promised not to close the season in event of rain, and that efforts are being made to hold him to the promise. He said the governor has not absolutely refused to withdraw the proclamation, but that if he does refuse the sportsmen will take the question to court.

SEVERE STORM STRIKES IOWA

Two Farmers are Drowned in Flood; Crops are Washed Away

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Aug. 18.—Two farmers, J. Schalley and De Claude Harrett of Bertram, eight miles east of here were swept away and are reported to have drowned in flood waters this evening while searching for cattle. A cloudburst late this afternoon caused several thousand acres of farm land in this vicinity to be under several feet of water.

Reports reaching here indicate that the storm caused great damage to crops. Telephone and telegraph wires were swept away. Railroad advice received from Vinton, Ia., states that houses there and east of Marion, Ia., also suffered heavy damage. Farmers in the vicinity of Cogson, Linn county, report that much of their corn crop was washed away as well as small grain in shock.

At Reinbeck, Grundy county, six and one half inches of rain fell during the day. Reports reaching here indicate that the storm caused great damage to crops. Telephone and telegraph wires were swept away. County agents and farm experts said today's storm was the most destructive this summer.

Choked sewers caused one section of Cedar Rapids to be under from eight to 10 feet of water. Canoes were used by motorists who had cars parked in the flooded area.

COMEDY MARKS YOUTHS' TRIAL

Chief Defense Attorney Fences Adroitly With a Stubborn Witness

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—(By The AP.)—The judicial hearing by which it is to be determined the fate of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard A. Loeb, the confessed murderers of Robert Franks, went from the serious to the comic today and wound up in laughter.

Throughout the morning session Clarence S. Darrow, chief of defense, fenced adroitly with Dr. H. Douglas Singer, alienist for the state, and tried to obtain from the expert admissions that "schizophrenic" or "split" personalities were necessarily subjects of mental disease.

This afternoon Dr. W. O. Krohn, last witness for the state and probably for the hearing, recited at length the observations and reasons for deciding the defendants mentally sound and then got into a hammer and tong exchange with Benjamin Bachrach, of defense counsel who started his cross examination of the state's ace.

Frequently the doctor's replies to the questions about his qualifications as an expert brought laughter from the crowd.

Bankers to Float Loan
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—With the successful conclusion of the inter-allied conference, American bankers today began speeding up the machinery for floating of their share of the $200,000,000 reparations loan to Germany, upon which operations of the Dawes plan will hinge.

Berlin, Aug. 18.—(By The AP.)—With the return of the German delegates to the London conference there is a conspicuous moderation in the tone of the editorial discussions on the outcome, and political experts are busy figuring out the party lineup in the reichstag when the government's action is up for approval or rejection.

FRENCH GREET HERRIOT WITH POPULAR JOY

Success of Allied Conference Elicits Great Demonstration for Premier on Return From London

BATTLE IN SENATE ON ADOPTION IS EXPECTED

Poincare's Opposition That to Be Strong—Morgan to Float Loan

PARIS, Aug. 18.—(By The AP.)—Premier Herriot will face the cabinet tomorrow and the chamber of deputies Thursday reinforced by an unmistakable expression of popular rejoicing over the settlement of the London conference and what the French people believe to be the return of France's foreign policy to a real peace footing.

Since Clemenceau relinquished power never has a premier been so enthusiastically greeted on returning from an allied conference as was M. Herriot this evening.

Premier to Debate
The premier will have to endure a debate in the chamber lasting two, perhaps three weeks. Already eight important interpretations are scheduled and in addition eight prominent orators are on the list for speeches and M. Herriot does not desire to cut short the discussions.

After the chamber debate the senate must be dealt with and former Premier Poincare will take the floor. His speech while likely to be formidable, is not likely to cause the upper house to deviate from the chamber's course in voting confidence which already it taken as a foregone conclusion.

PICKET BILL IS READ AT CITY COUNCIL

Ordinances Covering Strike Activity Introduced Last Night, and Penalties are Provided

TRAFFIC REGULATION DURING FIRES TRIED

Sale of $20,205 Improvement Bonds Authorized—Paving Projected

Ordinances covering all phases of picketing and the regulation of traffic during fires occupied the attention of the city council last night, the former being referred to the ordinance committee and the latter passed by the council. The picketing ordinance was introduced by the ordinance committee.

The picketing ordinance prohibits "loitering, picketing, carrying or displaying banners, badges, signs or transparencies, or alleys in public streets sidewalks, alleys or other public places in a loud or unusual tone."

Called Misdeemeanor
Sections of the ordinance include provisions to prevent influencing anyone from entering any place of business, from purchasing any article or performing any service or labor and characterizes any such attempt as a misdemeanor. The ordinance declares it unlawful to picket in front of or in the vicinity of any place of business. Upon conviction a fine of not more than $100 nor less than $25 or a jail sentence of not more than 50 days nor less than 12 days is the penalty.

"Owing to existing conditions it is held that this ordinance is urgently required for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety and that it shall take effect upon being approved by the mayor, or in case the mayor shall disapprove, take effect upon the passage by the council notwithstanding the veto of the mayor," section four of the ordinance sets forth. If the council passes the ordinance, regardless of any action by the mayor, the ordinance would take effect. Upon receiving the mayor's signature, it becomes effective at once.

Fire Traffic Bill
Under provisions of the traffic regulation ordinance it is held unlawful to interfere with the free passage of the fire department in any manner; to park within two city blocks of any burning building; to intrude upon the premises where the fire is in progress or to congregate in the vicinity so

It is often the case that a candidate or her friends will hear that such a one has secured a few subscriptions. Bear in mind that there are ten prizes and if you really work you can win one of them.

Pitch right in with the firm determination to win out or give the ones who do the contest of their lives. Nothing is ever gained by laying back and letting someone else pick off the ten grand prizes—the ambition of your life. Nothing like this offer will ever be given in Salem again probably, and the opportunity of winning such prizes should be grasped immediately and striven for earnestly.

Candidates should poll a few votes every day to let their friends know they are still in the race.
