Births Double Deaths—Further proof that Salem is a healthy place in which to live and that the population is steadily available at the office of the city health officer. Since the reports for July were completed on August 10, the births have been exactly double the number of deaths. There have been 25 babies born since August 10 and 14 persons died. Of these, three were inmates of the state hospital.

Rotary Clubs to Picnic—With the weather man in a more congenial frame of mind, it is expected that the joint Rotary picnic between members and their families of the Salem and McMinnville clubs tonight will find a large turnout. The picnic will begin at 4 o'clock with athletic events and a baseball game between the two clubs and a picnic dinner to follow. The picnic is being held at Burch's grove, just across the bridge at Rickreil. Signs have been placed to mark the location of the grounds.

Military Man Promoted—Sergeant Frank Jirak of the regular army yesterday received notice of his promotion to staff sargeant, on duty with the national guard and stationed with the adjutant general's office. The appointment is effective August 15. In celebration of his promotion, Sargeant Jirak purchased one of the new 1925 model Oldsmobile touring cars that have just been received in Salem by the F. W. Pettyjohn company, local dealers. During the war Sargeant Jirak held an officer's commission.

FUNERALS—Funeral services for the late Joseph Miller, former Salem resident, who died August 19, 1924, at his home at Oswego at the age of 59 years, will be held Friday afternoon from the Rigdon mortuary. Rev. Roeder will conduct service. Interment will be made in the Lee Mission cemetery.

Working for Pardon—Friends and others interested in the case of Floyd Henderson, serving a life sentence at the state prison after his implication in the killing of Sheriff T. H. Taylor at Pendleton a few years ago, are now actively at work in an effort to obtain his parole or pardon. It is understood that this is being sought with the sanction of W. R. Taylor, a brother of the slain sheriff. Henderson was in the Umatilla county jail at the time Owens, Rathie and Kerby overpowered a deputy sheriff, obtained his gun, and in breaking from the jail, shot and killed Sheriff Taylor. Henderson, who had but a week to serve in jail for forging a $7 check, was implicated in the break, though he took no active part and had refused to leave the jail until Owens returned, with a gun in each hand, and gave him his choice of leaving or being shot. Henderson was indicted for first degree murder, but received life imprisonment while the other three were executed for the crime.

able to negotiate some of the curves in the road.

At banquets in Japan the oratory comes before the eating. The Japs do some things better than the Americans.

A Salem ex-doughboy says that if Charley Bryan wishes he may celebrate defense day by hiding in the cellar and playing solitaire; that there are no strings to this occasion.

Salem will not get too many linen mills. We can literally clothe and outfit the world in fine linens.

"Covered Wagon" to be here four more days—

All together, now! Three cheers for Herman Paris. By the way, who is Herman, anyhow? He happens to be the nominee of the prohibition party for president.

The national American dish is mashed potatoes and gravy, so a Spaniard declares after careful investigation. It sounds reasonable, especially as an accompaniment to roast turkey.

According to the researches of a Boston paper, a woman can dress modestly and correctly for the street and her outfit—including slippers—may not weigh more than 26 ounces. If a man can get by with regalia weighing less than five pounds he thinks he is naked. A woman could wear pajamas and moccasins and get away with it. But if a man tried it he would be run in by the cops. The ladies seem to have much the best of it in hot weather. They carry little or no weight when they are on parade.
