NEW SETBACK IN THE CORN MARKET

Wheat Also Goes Down at Chicago Stock Market; Oats Market Unsettled

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Sharp new setbacks in corn resulted today from a rush of selling due to weather favorable for the growing crop. The closing in the corn market was nervous 1 3/4c to 2 3/4c net lower. December $1.08 1-2 to $1.08 5-8, with wheat unsettled 3-4c to 1 3/8c down, September $1.25 3-8 to $1.25 1-2 and December $1.30 1-2 to $1.30 3-4.

Oats 1 5-8c to 2 1-8c off and provisions showing 5c to 20c decline. The tenor of crop reports coming in was much more hopeful than has been the rule of late, and although the market scored numerous rallies, none proved lasting. Lowest prices of the day reported just before the close and were about 12c under Monday's top level.

A big share of the corn selling came from standing instructions to unload at definite limits in order to stop losses, the weakness of the market having necessitated heavy calls for margins. On the other hand some recent sellers were restating their lines, asserting that the break in values had gone far enough and that six weeks of good weather without frost is needed if the bulk of crop is to mature.

Wheat proved responsive to corn weakness, although liberal export business gave prices numerous transient upturns. Big receipts of wheat however acted as a weight on values, and so did more favorable advices regarding the Canadian crop outlook. Prospective increase of domestic spring wheat marketings counted, too, as a bearish factor.

Indications of a rapid increase of stocks of oats tended to unsettle the oat market.

The provision market sagged with grain.

London Reports Strange Radio Messages are Heard

LONDON, Aug. 23.—(By the Associated Press).—An attempt by British wireless experts to "listen in" on Mars resulted in strange noises being heard at 1 o'clock this morning. The sources of the noises could not be ascertained by the experts. The attempt was made on a 24 valve (tube) set erected on a hill at Dulwich. Representatives of the Marconi company and of London universities were present.

Tuning in started at 12:30 o'clock a. m., and at 1 a. m., on a 30,000 meters radius, sounds were heard which could not be identified as coming from an earthly station.

The sounds were likened to harsh dots, but they could not be interpreted as "Morse code." The noises continued on and off for three minutes in groups of four and five dots.

DAWES OUTLINES POLICY FOR TOUR

Vice Presidential Nominee Will Give Short Talks On Vital Issues

WESTBROOK, Conn., Aug. 22.—Short discussions of fundamental issues will be the policy followed by Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential nominee, in the speaking campaign that is expected to take him into every section of the country.

Announcement of his policy was made by Mr. Dawes here today in an informal address delivered to several hundred residents of this little shore town before resuming his trip to Maine where, tomorrow at Augusta, he inaugurates his speaking campaign.

The gathering here today was a nonpartisan affair in which the republican and democratic selectmen of the town joined in welcoming Mr. Dawes.

Mr. Dawes, remarking on the character of the gathering, declared it was nonpartisan, however, to talk about political speaking and then made his announcement as to his intention to make short speeches primarily on fundamental issues.

BOYS EXHIBIT MUCH EMOTION AS END NEARS

millions of dollars possessed by his clients' families had been a positive handicap to the defense. He spoke too of the attitude of local newspapers, which he charged, had inflamed public opinion against Leopold and Loeb. "There are times when poverty is fortunate, and this is one of those times," he said. "Wildly extravagant stories were published without basis of facts. They said this was to be one of the efforts to save the boys by the use of money."

To Get Nominal Fees

Mr. Darrow denied that, pointing out that the experts called by the defense were to receive fees based upon their regular charges for professional services, and that he and his assistants had agreed to take an amount as the Chicago Bar association thought proper.

He declared that the state's attorney was asking for a death sentence in the face of conditions that made it contrary to precedent, and frankly admitted that the defense had pleaded guilty because they "were afraid to place the case before a jury"

Appreciate Responsibility

He said he and his assistants fully realized the heavy responsibility they had placed on the judge and added:

"If responsibility is divided by 12 it is easier to sway it. But if these boys hang there can be no division of responsibility. You can never explain a hanging by saying that other courts overpowered you."

Hanging, he said, would be more cowardly and cold blooded than the crime itself. The killing of Franks "was one of the least dastardly and cruel" he had ever known about, he said, and in justification of this statement declared here was the suffering of the victim.

"Bobby Franks suffered very little," he said. "He was dead within 15 minutes after entering the automobile. He may not have known what happened."

"The murder was not for money," he charged with scorn, emphasized again by the shaking of his forefinger. "It was the senseless act of immature and diseased children, wandering around in the dark, whose lives we cannot thoroughly understand."

Mysterious N. Y. Hold-Up; $100,000 Taken at Noon

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Police tonight were trying to determine how two robbers, after binding two men with picture wire and gagging them escaped with diamonds valued at $100,000 from the ninth floor of the building at 470 Broadway, at Maiden Lane, during the noon hour today.

Alexander Feldenheimer, one of the owners of the establishment and Mark Wolin, a customer were the victims of the holdup men. Wolin managed to roll to the wall of the room and press against a button which communicated the alarm to an office next door. Within two minutes every elevator had been stopped and every door in the building was guarded, but a thorough search failed to reveal any suspicious characters.

Wolin was the victim of a similar robbery in 1923 in which $100,000 was taken.

Dedicate Section Pacific Highway at Oregon City

OREGON CITY, Aug. 22.—Officials of the city and state and members of the highway commission today dedicated the Canemah Bluff section of the Pacific highway.

Governor Walter M. Pierce, Senator Charles L. McNary, W. B. Van Duser, chairman of the state highway commission; Roy A. Klein, state highway engineer; C. W. Stinger, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific; Frank T. Young, resident highway engineer at Oregon City, and Mayor Anderson were among the speakers.

A sheroot is the root of all evil, exclaimed the smoker as he threw away a Pittsburg stogie.

SAYS THE BAKER TO THE HOUSEWIFE

"Here's a generous-sized loaf of bread that's made as near perfect as bread can be baked—that's Peerless bread. It's made from the best flour, is light, palatable, and digestible. The excellence of our bread is known to hundreds of customers."

Mysterious Signals Did Not Originate on Planet Mars

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 22.—Unusual signals heard by the Point Grey wireless station here and other British Columbia radio operators recently are not mysterious messages from Mars, Superintendent E. J. Haughton of the dominion government wireless service declared tonight in an explanatory statement.

"The signals reported to be so mysterious were merely those sent from United States radio beacons on their new tonic train transmitters," said Superintendent Haughton's statement. "Both Swiftsure and Columbia river light vessels have series dashes as the character and it is these signals which were heard at Point Grey. The Point Grey station may have heard the main wave or a harmonic. The operators have mistaken ordinary automatic signals."

First Steps Taken to Dawes Plan Effective

PARIS, Aug. 22.—(By the AP)—The first step toward actually putting the Dawes plan into operation probably will be taken at the cabinet meeting tomorrow when there will be appointed some of the various officials who will represent France in the first plan of organization or least members of the committee of French experts who will cooperate with the Germans in putting the final touches to the plan for economic evacuation of the Ruhr.

LEHMAN'S "Quality Groceries"

SOUTH COMMERCIAL BETWEEN STATE AND FERRY

What is true Economy? Just hunting the town over for a bargain or two. No, indeed not—it is not worth the shoe leather to say nothing about the waste of valuable time. Is it standing for half an hour in some store waiting to be waited on by an insufficient amount of clerk help, with the false idea of saving money? Again, NO! The busy housewife knows only too well her time is valuable. The tired working man knows too the trial of his patience when a clerk has to rush him through his order, giving him no time to think or question, but he submits because he thinks he is saving a little money. But is it so? Are you real sure you are saving, and practicing real economy? What is true Economy? True Economy consist of a combination of LOW PRICES, QUALITY and PROMPT SERVICE. Trade in the store that can meet ALL of these requirements. LEHMAN'S GROCERY is doing this every day. Low Prices, Quality and Prompt Service.
