GOOD CHANCE TO WIN BIG SHOOT

Oregon National Guard May Again Bring Trophies From Camp Perry

Oregon national guardsmen have prospects of duplicating their record of last year when they won the national guard championship at Camp Perry, Ohio. It is indicated by the records made on the Clackamas range last week. The range this year was more successful than last, from this point of view, according to Captain Tom Rilea. Two hundred of the best rifle shots in the Oregon national guard attended the range. Only five of the members of last year's team qualified for the team this year, of which William E. Purdy, Jr., company F, 162nd Infantry, of Salem, is a member. Purdy also distinguished himself by winning the 200 yard rapid fire match.

Each man fired 30 shots in each of the three courses, which included firing on the following ranges: 200 yards, off-hand; 200 yard rapid fire; 300 yard rapid fire; 600 yard slow and 1600 yard slow fire. The 10-man team and three alternates, with their rank, organization and score, which will comprise the state national guard team and will participate at the Camp Perry event early next month, are: Lieutenant Langton H. Spooner, Service Co., 186th Inf., 669; Sgt. Jackson Jones, Service Co., 186th Inf., 668; Sgt. Chester E. McCarty, Co. B, 162nd Inf., 666; Pvt. Ellis E. Brown, Service Co., 186th Inf., 661; Sgt. Clifton W. Cox, Co. A, 116th Eng., 655; Pvt. Stanley A. Robinson, Bat. B, 249th CAC, 652; 1st Sgt. Henry Thomas, Service Co., 162nd Inf., 647; Sgt. Robert Archer, Service Co., 186th Inf., 645; Sgt. Robert B. Smith, Co. B, 162nd Inf., 634; Pvt. William E. Purdy, Jr., Co. F, 162nd Inf., 634; Cpl. Leland S. Miller, Co. B, 186th Inf., 630; Pvt. George Rother, Co. E, 162nd Inf., 625, and Sgt. Dorman Hicks, Co. B, 186th Inf., 625.

The five members of last year's team are Spooner, Jones, McCarty, Thomas and Purdy. The moon affects the tide—also the untied. HAY FEVER... If you can't "get away," ease the attacks with VICKS VAPORUB... Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly.

TURNER, Ore., Aug. 25.—J. E. Barber, from California, has purchased the Turner Meat market. His family will occupy the O. H. P. Cornelius property. J. L. Webb has moved back to his farm. Mrs. Henry Barnett is visiting her mother near Plainview this week.

"The Covered Wagon" Held Over Two Days

Definite announcement that "The Covered Wagon" which has been showing at the Liberty theatre since last Thursday, will end its engagement there (with the Wednesday night performance was made yesterday by manager Stille, who also announced that "Galloping Fish" would follow "The Covered Wagon" at the theatre.

So far "The Covered Wagon" has set a new attendance record for pictures shown in Salem. Crowded houses have greeted every showing at the Liberty and most of the seats in the Grand, where the picture was also shown afternoon and evenings Saturday and Sunday, were filled. Considering that this was the return engagement in Salem for the picture this record is considered remarkable.

PRATUM

PRATUM, Oregon, Aug. 24.—At least five families from here are at Pacific City. Fred De Vries and George Kleen with their families are living in the northern part of the city on opposite sides of the street, while Mr. and Mrs. H. Roth and H. W. DeVries and family are living several blocks farther south, and D. J. Steiner and family are living still farther south and one street east.

DARROW ENDS HIS PLEA FOR TWO MURDERERS

(Continued from page 1) lately come, as an exhibition—not as a punishment," he said. "I am pleading for life, for charity and kindness and for humanity," he said. "I am pleading for the overlooking of cruelty with kindness and love. "Your honor stands between the past and the future. I know that the future is with me and I am pleading for it. I am pleading for a time when hatred and cruelty will not control the hearts of men, when we shall realize that mercy is the highest attribute of man."

Refers to Youth Never in the history of the local courts, Mr. Darrow told the judge, has any culprit under 24 years of age been hanged after a plea of guilty. "I do not know how much salvage there may be in these two poor, diseased minds," he said. "It

Blames World War

He explained, too, that his reference to war was because armed conflict had always been followed by an era of crime. He spoke of numerous veterans of the world war who had landed in courts after their return from the trenches, where honorable, upright boys had learned how cheap was human life. "We were fed on flesh and drank blood, even down to prattling babies," exclaimed Mr. Darrow, as he emphasized that the glories of war were preached from platform and pulpit, and even taught in the Sunday schools.

Darrow is Moved

There were tears in Mr. Darrow's eyes as with quivering voice he pictured the crumbling hopes of the parents of the boys, the effect of the crime upon the future generations of their families. His voice broke again when he reached his peroration. "I know," he said, "that your honor stands between the future and the past. For me the future means the hopes of the young. I plead for life, charity, kindness, sympathy and understanding. And the future is with me. "Your honor may hang these boys; but if you do you will make it harder for every boy and girl in this land and for the babes as yet unborn. "I am pleading that all life is worth is saving and that mercy is the highest attribute of man. "My greatest reward, hope and compensation will be that I have done something for the tens of thousands of boys, who must follow the path these two poor young Jews have trod."

MOONSHINE IS INSPIRATION OF GUN FIGHT

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 25.—Buck Mowbrader, Claude Mowbrader, Ben Wright, M. S. Johnson and Cornelius Buchanan, ranchers in the western part of Lane county, were brought to the Lane county jail here this afternoon charged with unlawful possession of liquor and sale of liquor. These men were arrested by deputy sheriffs late last night after a fight in which guns were drawn and at least one shot was fired, according to the deputies. Fifty gallons of moonshine were seized and several barrels of mash were destroyed. No still was found, the deputies said.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT EXPRESSES ITS THANKS

(Continued from page 1) when, it is expected, the fliers will continue on to Boston, arriving there late that afternoon. To Stay in Boston. The stay in Boston will be prolonged to afford time for the aviators to remove the pontoons from their machines and replace them with landing gear. This task is to be completed in time for the fliers to arrive on Sunday in New York City on their way to Mitchell field, Long Island, where it is assumed they will change motors and overhaul their planes. Washington is scheduled to receive the fliers the following Tuesday and on the following day they are expected to leave for the Pacific coast, the end of their globe encircling trip to be Seattle. Seattle Last Stop. This port was chosen for the final stopping place, although the flight actually started from Clover Field, near Los Angeles. It was explained today that the fliers will be able to reach Seattle, turning north at Sacramento within the same time it would be required for them to return to Clover field and would shorten the time of the flight around the world 19 days, the difference between the date on which the fliers left Los Angeles and later hopped off from Seattle for Alaska.

Polish Princess Cannot Enter the United States

SEATTLE, Aug. 23.—Princess Emelia Bronislava Iskander, wife of Prince Riza Kull Mirba Iskander, a son of a former shah of Persia, has been denied admission into the United States and will be deported to Japan to wait until next year's quota of Poland, her native land, will allow her entrance, immigration officials announced today. Princess Iskander arrived here on the Steamship President Grant July 20. Secretary Davis ruled she could not be admitted because her passport failed to contain advice from the American consul at Harbin. The immigration quota from Poland also was filled. Prince Iskander has been teaching languages here for nearly a year.
