HONORING HER PARENTS.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leach, on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Mrs. Lillian Morris was hostess for one of the season's most enjoyable reunion dinners at 1:30 Sunday.

The beautiful anniversary cake with its ornamental icing of gold small work centered the table. Bouquets of old-fashioned flowers were used about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leach were married in London, England, Aug. 24, 1874, coming to America 18 years ago. Living in Portland for a time they later moved to Kelso, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Leach now make their home with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris, 1656 Center street.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leach, anniversary honor guests; Charles W. Leach, Jr., Sidney V. Leach and Arthur C. Leach of Kelso; Bertram C. Leach of Portland, Leo W. Leach of Deer Island, Or., and Mrs. Lillian Morris, the hostess, of Salem.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings relief from the itching, burning and irritation. Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

TILDEN BESTS HIS FIRST OPPONENT

Retains the Championship Through First Round of National Tennis Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—William T. Tilden began the defense of his national tennis crown today by vanquishing his spectacular Spanish rival, Manuel Alonso, but the series of startling upsets that has struck the ranks of his challengers since the tournament opened continued to mark the downfall of favorites in the most thrilling battle in history for the American singles laurels.

While the tall Philadelphia, four times champion, put his colorful Spanish opponent to rout in four sets, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, two of his other rivals—Pat O'Hara Wood, brilliant Australian veteran, and Harvey Snodgrass, Los Angeles star—were eliminated, while two other seeded players—Howard Kinsey of San Francisco, and Jean Borotra, French holder of the Wimbledon crown—escaped defeat by the narrowest of margins in the most thrilling play of the afternoon.

Wood's downfall at the hands of Kirk Reid of Cleveland, former Cornell crack, in five sets, 2-6, 6-9, 7-5, 4-6, 11-9, was the biggest reversal of the day, closely rivaling as a sensation the elimination on Monday of R. Norris Williams, former champion, by George Lott, Chicago school boy star.

Besides the defeat of Wood, two of his remaining three Australian Davis cup team mates, R. E. Schlesinger and F. E. Kalms, were eliminated, while the defeats of Jacques Brugnon and Alain Gerbault of France removed half of France's representation.

John Hennessy of Indianapolis eliminated two other foreign threats when he disposed of Takeichi Harada, Japanese national champion, in a five set battle and then conquered Paul Koug of China's Davis cup team in straight sets.

Willard Croker of Canada, the remaining invader to go out, was a victim of George Lott, Chicago, holder of the national junior championship who won in straight sets with the same brilliant brand of tennis that gave him victory over Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Carstedt spent a portion of Tuesday in the city. They live at Gresham.
