ONE FOREIGNER STILL REMAINS

Gerald L. Patterson, of Australia, Is Now Sole Foreign Contender

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 30.—(By The Associated Press.)—America's tennis "Big Three"—William T. Tilden, William M. Johnston, and Vincent Richards—and Gerald L. Patterson, captain of the Australian Davis cup forces will fight it out for the national men's singles championship.

The Yankee trio and the giant Australian demonstrated their superiority of the rest of the field today when they marched through the fifth round with decisive victory. Monday Tilden sweeping toward a fifth straight crown plays his former pupil, Vincent Richards, the Olympic court king, in the upper semi-final bracket. Patterson, lone survivor of an original score of invaders from seven countries, meets William M. Johnston, veteran former champion in the lower half match.

On the form displayed today Tilden and Johnston appeared the strongest of the quartet, and unless there is a last startling reversal to add to the tournament's already crowded list, the title match Tuesday promises a renewal of the duel between "Big Bill" and "Little Bill," chief rivals for the American crown since 1919.

Tilden, although he dropped a set, easily mastered Howard Kinsey of San Francisco, 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2, while Johnston in the most spectacular match of the afternoon conquered Rene Lacoste, brilliant young French Davis cup star, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Richards was forced to call on his most sensational net attack to down Wallace F. Johnston, Philadelphia chop stroke veteran, 6-2, 6-4, 11-9, but Patterson quickly battered his way to victory over George M. Lott Jr., 17 year old Chicago school boy sensation, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3.

Sid Kelly, 112 pounds, sparring partner of Peter Gaudes, Canadian flyweight champion, is in Salem with his manager, A. F. Sebastian, and hopes to sign up for a match with some good boy of his weight. Gaudes is in Portland at the present time, while Kelly and Sebastian have been in California and are now on their way north again. He is a strong, clean-looking little chap of the typical fighting physique.

Manager Sebastian said last night that if he is unable to arrange a match at the armory he will try to bring Kelly and Gaudes, the champion, together in an exhibition match for the Elks or some other sport-loving organization.

Sebastian got in touch last night with the local fight commission.
