Too Little Practice at Ilfahee Links, Declares Fred A. Williams

A pall of gloom has settled Illihee Country club the last two weeks and there has been a noticable abscence of players from practice. Ulinit according to Fred A. Williams, chairman of the tournament committee, who was unable to account for the apathy being shown. Mr. Williams is undecided as what to hold to blame, but includes the weather, presidential election, Miss Cummings of Chicago picking hops and non-recovery from summer vacations.

Effective Way to Preserve Butts of Telegraph Poles

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 30 .- An inrenious method to save telegraph poles from rotting has been successfully tried here. Before being planted, the poles are drilled longitudinally with a small center hole, and then the opening at the bottom is plugged. This hole runs to a point about one foot above ground when the mast has beer set up. The pole erected, a small side hole is drilled aslant one foot above ground to meet the center hole. Cresote oil is poured in the center hole and the outside opening closed. Linemen refill from time to time.
