OAC Man Is Speaker—"South American Trade and Customs" will be the subject of an address before the Salem Lions club Friday noon by Prof. U. G. Bunch, head of the political science department, Oregon Agricultural college, at Corvallis. Miss Gladys McIntyre will be the soloist of the day.

Seattle Man Fined—Too much speed on the highway brought Harry Simon, Seattle business man, into justice court yesterday, where he was fined $15. The tourist claimed to have been rushing to get home where his mother is ill. When the amount of the fine was set he dug up about $1.70 in change and held that that was all he had in his possession. How he expected his large machine to cover the mileage between Salem and Seattle with that amount of money with which to purchase oil and gasoline was not explained. He was released upon promise to mail a check upon reaching Seattle.

Woodman of the World; Attention—Uniform, ranks, degree staff, meets Thursday evening at 7:30. Regular camp meeting Friday evening. C. C. Wols, council commander; L. F. Geer, clerk. —24

Traffic Officer Back—After an absence of two weeks O. O. Nichols, state traffic officer, returned to the city yesterday. Officer Nichols has been covering the territory between Eugene and Roseburg, as well as trips to all communities not on the main highway, including Marshfield and Reedsport.

Realtors Meet Today—The first of the regular Thursday noon meetings of the Mar-

Polk County Realty association for the fall and winter season will be held at the Marion hotel today noon. There will be no speaker today and the time will be devoted to a discussion of activities for the remainder of the year. The realtors adjourned their weekly meetings the first of July.

Takes Hupmobile Agency—D. A. Forsall of Seattle is moving his family to Salem and will handle the Hupmobile automobile for this district. It was previously announced that the MacDonald Auto company, Ferry and South Cottage, would handle this car, in addition to the Packard. Mr. Forsall will make his headquarters with the MacDonald Auto company but the agency will have no connection with the other firm.

Green Prunes Lose Money—Green prune shipments out of Salem by Young & Wells may run as high as $3,000, word has been received here. This estimate is based upon a letter received from John Young, who wrote that the first carload was sold at Kansas City at 60 cents a box, representing a loss of about $200 on the carload. The balance of the shipments were expected to lose the firm close to $300 each. Mr. Young intimated that he would return soon and look over the valley with regard to buying apples.

Blackberries Are Fine—Blackberries at the coast are in excellent condition this year, according to Ed Biehn, of Peary & Biehn, who are operating plants at Toledo, Tillamook and Estacada. There is a market for around 300 tons of the evergreen berries if arrangements can be made to get them picked. Some of the berries are being handled at a local cannery and are being put into grades, something that seldom occurs with wild blackberries.

HARRY E. BICKERS
DIES IN PORTLAND
Funeral Will Be Held in That City This Afternoon at One Thirty

When and Where and Who
THESE are the things that the modern funeral director does not take into consideration. He is prepared to serve at any hour of the day or night. He serves in the nearby rural districts as efficiently as in the city. And he makes no distinctions of any kind when he is called upon. It is this type of service that we strive to render.
