

GOD'S WORLD

O world, I cannot hold thee close enough! Thy winds, thy wide grey skies! Thy mists that roll and rise! woods, this autumn day, that ache and sag And all but cry with colour! That gaunt crag To crush! To lift the lean of that black bluff! World! World! I cannot get thee close enough!

Long have I known a glory in it all,

But never knew I this:

Here such a passion is As stretcheth me apart,-Lord, I do fear Thou'st made the world too beautiful this year; My soul is all but one of me,-let fall No burning leaf; prithee, let no bird call. EDNA ST. VINCENT MILLAY. From "Renascence.

Robert Bishop presided at an attractively appointed birthday dinner for his 15th anniversary, on Friday evening at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson. Mrs. Gabrielson, as hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Frank Spears. Flame-colored zinnias centered the table, with candles of the same color decking the festive cake in which were concealed the customary symbols of the occasion. Dancing was the after-dinner diversion among the young people.

Dinner covers were placed for Miss Nancy Thielsen, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Dorothy Livesley, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Jeanette Sykes, Ted Young, Charles Kay Bishop, Henry Thielsen, Carl Gabrielson, David Mason of Albany, and the guest of honor, Robert Bishop.

Interesting and delightful news of the week was the announcement on Thursday of the engagement of Miss Clemma Sauder, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Sauder, to Walter Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fraser. The news was given at a charming 1 o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. Amos Vass presided as hostess. A profusion of pink lilles added to the attractiveness of the dining room. The dainty place cards revealed the secret of the betrothal. The afternoon was spent in a
