

ROMANS WILL DO LIKE OTHERS DO

They Will Turn to the Right Instead of the Left Beginning Soon

ROME, Sept. 6.—(AP.)—One of the most radical changes in the aspect of the Eternal City that will greet the eyes of thousands of pilgrims next year, Holy Year, will be the complete change in traffic regulations. The city authorities have decided to make the rules of the road to the right instead of to the left, as they have been through the centuries.

Work already has begun to change the switches on all the street car lines to conform to the new regulations, which are expected to be put into effect within a few months.

Sticklers for the old order of things, however, are predicting a peck of trouble in making the new rules effective. Custom plays a leading role, particularly in the capital city of the peninsula kingdom.

It is recalled that 12 years ago the same experiment was tried by Mayor Nathan, the only British born mayor Rome ever had, who was bent on making the Roman traffic rules conform to those of the rest of Italy. Everywhere else except in a few large cities, the rules of the road have always been to the right. But Mayor Nathan ran against a snag, viz: The wine carts.

For generations it has been the custom to transport native vines in barrels on quaint two-wheeled vehicles. The drivers, who are on duty nearly all the time, do most of their sleeping in the daytime, and have trained their horses to go unsteered to their accustomed destinations. Throughout generations these nags have been trained to keep to the left. Wine-carts exist now in as great numbers as ever; so it is predicted that it will be as difficult to change the habits of the wine-horses as it was when Mayor Nathan tried the experiment.

Another difficulty anticipated in the plans concerns the drivers of Rome's 4000 horse cabs. The plans, as being drawn up, call for special uniform caps with visors for the drivers of horse cabs and taxis; and the cab drivers are up in arms against bringing in these new fangled ornaments that, they declare, disturb practically the only beloved institution handed down by the middle ages.

The main attraction for being a cab driver at all, they assert, is individuality of dress. They cultivate regular customers to ride in their low-necked Victorias, and they argue that if everybody wears the same headgear how are their customers going to spot their favorite driver? One might as well join the army!

WILLIAM MEHLHORN WINS AT CHICAGO

Nearest Competitor Is Led by Eight Points by St. Louis Golf Star

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Outstripping his nearest competitor by eight strokes, William Mehlhorn of St. Louis today won the western golf championship at Calumet Country club with a score of 293, five over par for the four circuits of the 6,614 yard links.

All Watrous of Grand Rapids finished in second place with 301 while Chick Evans took third honors with 302 and Eddie Held of St. Louis, another amateur, was next with 303.

These were the only two amateurs to finish among the prize winners and both at times had fine chances to win.

served on him today by immigration Commissioner Curran.
There was a broad grin on the Argentine's face as he stepped off the Killis Island ferry, free again after his attorney, Hyman Bushel, had deposited $1,000 in liberty bonds with immigration officials. He reasserted his innocence of the two charges brought against him and said he was more worried over protecting the name of the woman in the case than he is over his own predicament.

tor La Follette and himself to-night in Cooper union.

He recited the record of Senator La Follette, asserting that the Wisconsin senator's accomplishments guaranteed that national effort would be constructive in its tendencies. He renewed the assault that on his political opposition which he originally based on the declaration that both democratic and republican parties are controlled by Wall Street.

Outlines Needs
"It is not more brains that we need in our government," he said. "The government has gone farther and farther away from you because the group that has been able to express its will in the matter of law enactment and law administration has become a smaller and smaller group. It has become the group which we have come to know under the general term of Wall Street, meaning by that the powerful financial and industrial interests centered in this city of New York."

"You can do the same thing that these selfish—and they would not be human if they weren't selfish—interests have been doing. You can do it if you will furnish the funds as well as the votes whereby your public servants are elected. So long as Wall Street, however, furnishes funds, it will matter little who furnishes the votes, Wall Street will dictate the government.

"I say you can do it, because I come from a corner of the country where we have begun to do it."

Refers to Convention
"Think back a few weeks. A great political party held here in your city its convention for the nomination of candidates for the presidency and the vice presidency. Democrats in the state of New York thought they had a man whom they could trust and they offered him as a candidate. The convention engaged in a 16-day struggle. At the end of that time

ERASE WRINKLES IN LESS THAN 15 MINUTES

Scientists have at last taken up seriously the problem of removing wrinkles and age lines. Many experiments have been made. The result indicates that the "tarkroot method" is the best because it produces immediate results with perfect safety and comfort. It consists merely in spreading over the face a mixture of powdered tarkroot, one spoonful, and lemon juice, one spoonful. In your mirror, before your very eyes, you can watch the wrinkles and sagging literally melt away—in less than 15 minutes! The sensation from this brief treatment is most refreshing. The effect is far better than that produced by the most expert massage. Tarkroot is so harmless you could eat it. And the cost of a package is trifling—less than three cents when purchased in the original package at any drug store.

the financial interests who had set back waiting until the two principal opponents had worn one another out came forward and delivered their message. Your candidate, they told the managers of the convention will be John W. Davis. We know him. He is our attorney, he will do.

"The proceedings you witnessed in your own city differed from the one witnessed in Chicago four years ago only slightly.

"What results from this manner of electing presidents? Suppose we follow the trail from that Chicago hotel room. Where does it lead. Straight to Teapot Dome. Straight to Jess Smith's private desk in the department of justice. Straight to the bunks of the cheated soldiers in the rehabilitation hospitals and straight to the bank deposits of the grafters who had been despoiling them."

"Winter lingers in the lap of spring," wrote the other poet, and we write, "Summer loafs in the lap of the kitchen stove."

Wheeler's Wife Will Accompany Him West
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, independent candidate for vice president, will be accompanied on his western and mid-western speaking trip by Mrs. Wheeler. She will address women's organizations in the cities where her husband speaks. It was announced at national La Follette headquarters.
