ir most of all about the things that are happening in and around our own home. The Statesman tells you all about the doings right around where you live.

Essentially a community newspaper, owned by people in the community and published entirely in the nterest of the local district (Marion and Polk counties), it fights your battles and the battles of the community in which you live, and is your best newspaper friend.

This paper receives latest wire reports of the Associated Press, the greatest and most reliable press association in the world. All the important news of the day is told briefly; charming short stories and features, exclusive reading matter for the women folks; authoritative market and financial reports; classy sport news; all about the theatres and movies. Not too bulky, handy to read. It's the home paper, par excellence.

The Morning Oregon Statesman publishes complete dependable news, features and editorials.

The Statesman is first in the development of the Willamette valley-in agriculture, horticulture, berries, livestock, roads, industries, education, social welfare, and all that tends to develop and build up.

The Statesman stands forth in unqualified support of every movement or undertaking in the best interests of the Willamette valley.

It carries the advertisements of the local stores.

Listen! By watching the bargain advertisements carried from time to time you can save many times the subscription price. Some of your neighbors save as high as 35 per cent of their annual buying costs each year. It pays to watch the advertisements in The Oregon Statesman-they are wonderful money savers for our readers.

The Pacific Homestead is the oldest, brightest and best farm magazine published in the Pacific Northwest. Published weekly-52 issues a year. There is a certain mark of distinction in being a subscriber to the Best Farm Magazine. 11.30日日前的前日日10月日日1日日第四次 新闻的 新闻的 新闻的 计算法

The Northwest Poultry Journal, the oldest and largest of the Pacific Coast poultry and pet stock magazines, a recognized leader in its class in the West, was established in Salem more than 29 years ago.

It contains from 40 to 75 pages each month and is well edited, printed and nicely illustrated. Among its regular writers are some of the leading poultry judges, poultry specialists and most successful breeders of the Northwest. It has always borne the reputation of being reliable and progressive. No line of poultry and pet stock breeding is neglected or overlooked in its columns. It has a fine and ably edited rabbit department and interesting articles are published from time to time on turkeys, ducks, geese, guinea fowl, and pigeons, as well as cavies and other pet stock.

The 1924 Automobile Road Maps of the state of Oregon and Idaho, show all through trunk highways and main traveled roads with mileages between towns.

The map of Oregon is printed on good bond paper and in three colors-blue, yellow and red. The map printed in blue, gravel roads are shown in yellow and paved roads in red. This is unquestionably the best auto road map of Oregon ever published. Some of the state's best map experts helped to make this map. Distance - Chianness -

The map of Idaho shows the state highway system as officially designated by the Department of Public works Bureau of Highways. The names and numbers of highways are given. This map is printed in blue. Every home should have these maps. They are up to date 1924 Auto Road Maps. Throw your old auto road map away. It is out of date.

An opportunity such as this may never occur again-so grasp the opportunity now.

Money saved is as good as money earned. Save the money! Send in your subscription today-before you forget it.
