M. R. AND MRS. SPENCER served a complete program has been planned. Elizabeth Schaefer, daughter of Miss Schaefer, were the inspiration last evening for one of the most attractive of the early autumn dinners when Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts presided as hosts at their home. Lavender chrysanthemums formed the floral motif. Dinner covers were placed for twelve.

Mrs. Schaefer is the daughter of Mrs. J. D. Sutherland who has been spending the summer here, both Mrs. Schaefer and Mrs. Sutherland having numerous Salem friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer and daughter left this morning by motor for British Columbia.

Particular interest among Salem women is being attached to the meeting at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon of the Women's Republican Study club when Congressman W. C. Hawley will speak authoritatively on matters of distinct party interest. He will choose a subject which will be of interest to all public-minded women in the city, all of whom are not only invited, but urged, to attend. Mrs. H. J. Bean, 917 Court street, will be the hostess for the meeting. Tea will be served at the home of Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, 1175 North Capitol street, for a surprise party. Coming at 6 o'clock with well-filled baskets and laden with candy and flowers to express the greetings of the day, the anniversary dinner was soon spread in the dining room. A feature of the evening was the lovely wedding cake decked with the appropriate number of pink candles. A profusion of delphinium, pink and white asters, and pink rosbuds were used during the evening in the rooms.

The time was spent with music and the telling of stories. The wedding day was interestingly recalled when Mrs. Vick brought out the nuptial-book, "Our Wedding Bells," with its autographs. Before her marriage, Mrs. Vick was Miss Gladys Gilbert.

The guests planning the surprise were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vick, Miss Bertha Vick, Harriet Marie Vick, Roy Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Vick, Miss Hollis Vick, Mrs. Josephine Snyder, Marshall Snyder, Miss Jeannie Snyder, Mrs. Sophia Vick, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vick, Miss Lorraine Vick and Roy Lamar Vick.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vick, in further celebration of their wedding anniversary motored to Portland to be guests at the George F. Blake home.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin will be hosts this evening for the members of the Writers' club at their home, 1355 Ferry street.

The General Aid society of the First Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors, the change of date occurring on account of the State Fair coming next week. The members of the West Central circle are in charge of the meeting.

Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will meet in regular session this evening, members of the McMinnville and Amity chapters having been asked to be guests.

The newly announced writers' club will complete its organization this evening at a meeting at the Public Library. J. R. De Spain is chairman of the new club.

Mrs. Z. J. Riggs had as her interesting house-guest over the week-end, Mrs. Louise Palmer Weber, a prominent club-woman of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vick were delightfully honored Saturday evening, September 14, on the occasion of their third wedding anniversary when a group of friends, all of whom were guests at the wedding three years ago in Al-many, gathered at the new home of the honor guests, 1175 North Capitol street, for a surprise party. Coming at 6 o'clock with well-filled baskets and laden with candy and flowers to express the greetings of the day, the anniversary dinner was soon spread in the dining room. A feature of the evening was the lovely wedding cake decked with the appropriate number of pink candles. A profusion of delphinium, pink and white asters, and pink rosbuds were used during the evening in the rooms.

The time was spent with music and the telling of stories. The wedding day was interestingly recalled when Mrs. Vick brought out the nuptial-book, "Our Wedding Bells," with its autographs. Before her marriage, Mrs. Vick was Miss Gladys Gilbert.

The guests planning the surprise were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vick, Miss Bertha Vick, Harriet Marie Vick, Roy Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Vick, Miss Hollis Vick, Mrs. Josephine Snyder, Marshall Snyder, Miss Jeannie Snyder, Mrs. Sophia Vick, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vick, Miss Lorraine Vick and Roy Lamar Vick.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vick, in further celebration of their wedding anniversary motored to Portland to be guests at the George F. Blake home.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin will be hosts this evening for the members of the Writers' club at their home, 1355 Ferry street.

Recent house-guests at the home of Mrs. Hogg were Mr. and Mrs. Will Hogg of Seattle. A number of interesting trips were planned for the pleasure of the guests who had an opportunity to go not only to Neskowin but to take the Columbia River highway trip.

Miss Jeanette Sykes was the house-guest last week of Miss Margaret Poorman in Woodburn.

Mrs. R. M. T. Hester, pastor's assistant at the First Presbyterian church, will be at her office this morning following a month's vacation in Callatin, Missouri. Mrs. Hester returned home yesterday.

The Baptist Brotherhood of the First Baptist church will meet this evening for 6:30 o'clock supper and an interesting program. State Traffic Officer T. A. Rafferty will be the speaker. Special music will also add to the pleasure of the evening.

The Beta Chi girls will have as their sorority house for the winter the John H. Albert home at 670 South Winter street. With Willamette opening yesterday the girls have arrived from their various homes for the new school season.

Mrs. E. Hogg and Miss Elizabeth Hogg have moved from 665 North Winter street to their new home, 1030 Hood street.

Reverend H. E. Pemberton of the Leslie Methodist church performed the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Opal Lucas and Edwin Ely at 8:45 Saturday evening at the parsonage. The bride wore navy blue Canton crepe. Mr. and Mrs. Ely, both former students of the Salem High school will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lucas, 1042 Saginaw street. The bride is an employee at the Model Beauty parlor while the groom is an electrician by trade.

Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Curry (Winnifred Lucas).

The First Methodist church Circles will meet tomorrow afternoon as follows: South Central with Mrs. H. R. White, 2009 South Church street; West Central with Mrs. George H. Alden, 760 North Church street; East Central with Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, 797 North Winter street; Yew Park with Mrs. E. E. Gilliam, 776 South 12th street; Naomi with Mrs. M. C. Findley, 225 North 20th street; and Lucy Anna Lee with Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street.

The South East Circle will hold no meeting.

The North Salem WCTU will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Highland Friends' church. Mrs. Pressnal is president of the union, and Mrs. F. L. W. kenson, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Strickland and daughter, Nancy Jean, left over the week-end to spend ten days at Seaside.

Miss Mildred Roberts was a guest of Miss Caroline Lang in Portland over the week-end and attend a tea given by the Portland Hunt club honoring the girls of Camp Willapa. Miss Roberts was a member of the camp this summer.

Mr. Horace Sykes and daughter, Miss Jeanette Sykes who have been in Salem for the summer are leaving for Seattle in the morning by motor. Miss Sykes will enter the Cornish school for her second year, taking interesting courses, for which she is especially talented, in violin, dramatic art, and the Russian ballet.

Miss Venita Morrison and Miss Emmagne Travis, both university of Oregon girls, have come to Salem and will be associated with the Kennell-Ellis portrait-studios. They are making their home at the Roberts' apartments.

Miss Hazel A. Bear, teacher at the Washington junior high school the past three years, writes that she is pleased with her new location at North Powder, Union county, the high school having opened there, September 8.

Miss Bear spent the summer visiting and sight-seeing in the east, going as far as Boston, the return trip was made by way of Philadelphia, New York, and Washington, D. C. She visited with relatives in Iowa and Colorado, with a number of side trips. She arrived home at the time school opened. She plans to visit relatives in Turner during the holiday season.

The important business meeting of the WCTU planned for 2:30 o'clock today in the halls has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon at the same hour. With urgent business to come up it is especially desired that all members be present for the meeting. The social hour will not be held, but has been postponed until a later time.

Outstanding among the social events of the season will be the wedding tomorrow evening at the First Methodist church at which Miss Ruth Barnes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, will become the bride of Mr. Willard Seton Kaufman of Seattle. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., were hosts over the week-end at a delightful house-party at their cottage, "Cherry Inn." The group motored home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ralph White and Mrs. James Teed have returned home after attending the Oregon Association of Dancing teachers held in Portland. The institute, meeting in Christensen hall, brought forth a number of interesting features that will be factors in the new dancing season. The tangos which have been so popular in the east are fast coming to the west. With the fox trots increasing in popularity, two types, the National, and the Raggedy Ann, will predominate. The waltz is coming in with the hesitation meeting with very distinct popularity. The new trend is to increase rapidly of motion. It was brought out that the vulgar dancing has been an outgrowth of slow motions. The new aim will be to introduce quicker time, with the dances more interesting.

One of the most attractive brides of the month was Miss Beryl E. Bond whose marriage to Mr. R. E. De Guire was an event of Sunday. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. William A. Bond, 1340 North Cottage. Reverend Thomas A. Acheson reading the impressive ritual.

The bridal party assembled at the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Jean Hobson. Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Trista Wenger sang, "I Love You Truly," Miss Hobson playing the accompaniment. The bride was

Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer have as their house guest for ten days this month Miss Dorothy Hofer of Pasadena, California. Miss Hofer who is on her way to the university of Washington, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hofer. She is very well known here. A part of the time will be spent at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre accompanied by their daughter, Miss Rovena Eyre, and Miss Mary Eyre, returned home late Saturday evening from Vancouver, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Eyre motored to British Columbia ten days ago to meet their daughter who, with her aunt, Miss Mary Eyre, has been spending the summer abroad.

The interesting summer itinerary included visits through England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, and France, made with a party of twenty.

Sailing from Cherbourg on the "Leviathan," Miss Eyre and her niece arrived in New York on September 1. They made interesting visits in New York, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, and Boston, with later stops. In returning via the Canadian Pacific, at Banff and Lake Louise.

Miss Rovena Eyre had the unexpected pleasure of passing the train on which Miss Charlotte Zeller was a passenger near Glacier, both trains coming to a stop for a period of five minutes side by side, giving the two friends opportunity to exchange a few words from their respective observation cars. The girls were unusually fortunate as this is not a usual part of the train schedule.

Miss Mildred Roberts was a guest of Miss Caroline Lang in Portland over the week-end and attend a tea given by the Portland Hunt club honoring the girls of Camp Willapa. Miss Roberts was a member of the camp this summer.

attended by Miss Alice Mathy as maid-of-honor, while, Delmer Bond, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride wore a lovely frock of net over orchid satin beautifully trimmed with lace. She wore a bridal wreath on her hair and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Mathy was becomingly frocked in a mode of tan. She carried a Colonial bouquet. Lavender asters and Oregon grape formed the background for the ceremony.

An informal reception followed the service with cosmos predominating in the white and pink floral motif in the dining room. Pink candles were used on the table with a miniature bride and groom featured on the wedding cake which formed the appropriate centerpiece. Mrs. Joseph Olson poured while Mrs. E. M. Hicks cut the ice, assisted by Miss Hazel Haynes and Mrs. V. A. Ragadale.

Text-Book Commission
Will Meet in November

The state text-book commission will meet at Salem in November and make changes in one-third of the text-books in the grammar and high schools of the state, an action which is taken every six years. The new books adopted will not go into use in the schools until next year. Changes are to be made in the following subjects:

Grammar grade schools—Civil government; geography (three-book series); history (seventh and eighth grades); Oregon history (sixth to eighth grade inclusive).

High schools—Civics; French; history (world and American); social problems; elementary economics; mathematics (higher arithmetic); science (biology, general science, and manual for general science, manual for physics); Spanish.

Only 20 cents per person is spent for soap each year in spite of the fact that Saturday night comes every week.
