

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Baptist Brotherhood Tonight—The Baptist brotherhood will meet at 6:30 o'clock this evening for supper. A splendid program will follow, with State Traffic Officer Rafferty the speaker.

Something Wrong—Earl Unruh, an employe of the Statesman, spent Sunday in the Alsea country hunting deer. Something must have been wrong with Earl's gun for he reports blank out of seven that he saw.

Hear the American-Hawaiian—Entertainers at First Presbyterian church, Wednesday night 8 o'clock. s17

Return from Vacation—W. F. Watson, manager of the local store of the Western Auto Supply company, returned from a two weeks vacation which was spent on a farm near Roseburg visiting with Mrs. Watson's parents. He was accompanied by Mrs. Watson and son. Watson spent the time developing muscle feeding the pigs, and watering the chickens, and reports a wonderful time.

Convict Reported Caught—A guard from the state prison left for Redding, Calif., Monday to return H. W. Kelly, a parole violator, who is being held by police authorities. Word of his arrest was received in the morning by Warden A. M. Dalrymple. Kelly was received September 19, 1921, from Lane county, under a five year sentence for forgery. He was paroled November 16, 1923. What he had done to cause the revoking of his parole was not stated in the telegram. Kelly had a clean record while in prison and some surprise was expressed that he should violate the provisions of his parole. He was a trustee at a wood camp for a considerable time.

Marcel and Carl Last Longer—After a Golden Giant Shampoo. s19

Mayor Gleay Injured—Still sore and bruised from injuries received Saturday night when he was knocked down by an automobile, Mayor John B. Gleay was able to take his place as presiding officer over the deliberations of the city council last night. Mayor Gleay was on his way to the YMCA when the accident occurred at Court an High. He was dragged about 30 feet by the automobile and received slight bruises, a cut on the right leg and an injury to his left foot. Because he was able to hang on to the machine he escaped more serious injury. Either the automobile was running without lights or else these were so dim that he did not see them, he said. The woman in charge of the machine was given a lecture on safety first driving but failed to report the accident to the police.

Rigdon Has Mishap—W. T. Rigdon had the misfortune yesterday to fall in the basement of his home and injure one of his knees, perhaps tearing a ligament. The knee injured was one that Mr. Rigdon has been unable to bend freely for some years, but in the fall the member was forcibly bent in a manner that later in the day caused much pain.

Bryan Speaks Today—William Jennings Bryan will speak at the Salem armory at 2 o'clock this afternoon, discussing national political issues. This will be the second of the wholly political speeches given by the visitor and will be taken as a forecast in what will follow. Mr. Bryan speaks at Albany in the morning and in Portland tonight. He will also address three meetings in eastern Oregon.

Successor Not Named—Contrary to expectations, Governor Pelee did not announce the appointee who will succeed the late Justice John McCourt yesterday. He said that he would make the appointment public soon, probably some time today.

Republican Headquarters—The headquarters of the Republican County Central committee has been established in room 5 D'Arcy building over the Piggy Wiggly store, telephone number 222, has been installed and Chairman Paul Burris expects to spend most of his time there between now and election. It is planned to conduct a vigorous campaign in every part of Marion county.

Undergoes Operation—State Treasurer Jefferson Myers is at his office after an absence of 10 days during which time he underwent treatment in Portland for sinus trouble, including a severe surgical operation.

The Vincent Entertainers—Hawaiian steel guitars, vocal solos and duets. First Presbyterian church, Wednesday, Sept. 17. Admission, adults 50c children 25c. s26

Bus Line Added—The Oregon City Motor Bus company, which will be operated between Oregon City and Portland by the Portland Electric Power company in addition to its electric train service, has filed its application for license with the public service commission and began operating yesterday. Four buses of 22 and 24 passenger capacity have been put on the line. Fare between Portland and Oregon City is 30 cents one way and round trip 60 cents.

Naval Recruiting Here—Ex-gobs will be glad to learn that the navy is making a careful selection of its men under a recent ruling and only after a rigid mental and physical test is passed, and the applicant produces three letters of recommendation, will be permitted to enlist. This word is brought to Salem by D. S.

Cason, chief torpedoman and G. L. Tryor, chief quartermaster, who are in the city in the interests of naval recruiting. The two men will leave for Portland today and will return Thursday. Enlistments are temporarily closed but will be opened next week. They will make their headquarters at the Bligh hotel.

Dance! Dance Tonight—Derby hall, Orioles playing come. s16*

Apples Being Picked—Winter Bananas and Grimes Golden apples are being picked for Young & Wells, who have opened quarters in the Salem Fruit Union plant, where packing will begin today. It is expected that the first carload will be shipped out Wednesday, with a heavy tonnage secured for the season. A freak apple was brought in to the city yesterday from the Alice Coolidge place, near Livesley. The apple was grown on a Gravenstein tree, and was half of this variety and the remainder of a Baldwin type. There are no Baldwin trees on the property. The varieties were divided parallel to the core of the apple.

Leaves on Honeymoon—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Powell left yesterday for Los Angeles, where after a honeymoon trip, they will make their future home. The couple participated in a double wedding at the Bligh hotel a week or two ago. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Powell was Miss Helen Root, organist at the Bligh theatre. She is being succeeded by Mrs. Hazel Rex.

Bonus Commission Meets—The state bonus commission met Monday and transacted routine business. Ed Bailey, Junction City attorney, and W. C. Culbertson, editor and publisher of the Cannon Herald, were in the city to attend the meeting.

For Millinery—See Milady's ad on Trade in Salem page. s16

Justice Court Lonesome—Automobile drivers evidently proceeded with a great amount of caution over the week-end, for state traffic officers failed to cite a single speeder to appear in the justice court Monday. The justice court has been unusually quiet for the last few days, there being neither criminals or speeders appearing since last Thursday.

Lincoln Pioneers Meet—Friday night, at 7 o'clock, the Lincoln Pioneers will meet for the first gathering since adjournment about two months ago. The meeting will be held at the Central Congregational church. When the club recessed it had 17 members, according to Loyal Warner, who has charge of the Pioneer club work in Salem, but at least 20 are expected to attend the meeting this week. Other clubs will begin their fall and winter activities next week. Elbert L. Powell, a city mail carrier, is the leader of the Lincoln Pioneers.

Before You Leave—Your home or car have it insured properly. Phone 181, Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg.—S7

Jobs Are Varied—While berry pickers predominate, there is a variety of jobs being offered at the United States employment bureau at the YMCA. These range from a man to blow up 25 black walnut trees, to a lather and a waitress. There is also a need for ranch hands.

University is Discussed—A general get together meeting of members of the First and Central Congregational churches was held at the First Congregational

Died
LAFKY—Ruth Lafky, 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lafky, died at the residence, 201 Mission street, Sept. 15, 1924. Besides the parents she leaves five brothers, Albert of Marion, Or., Mark G. of Meadowview, Wn., E. of Forest Grove and Ray H. of Salem. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary with Rev. Ward Willis Long officiating. Interment will be in the City View cemetery.

RUSSEL—Joseph A. Russell died at a local hospital, September 14, 1924 at the age of 55 years. Funeral announcement later. Webb Funeral Parlor in charge of arrangements.

STANDISH—Everett E. Standish died at a local hospital September 15 at the age of 27 years. He is survived by his father J. C. Standish of Halsey, Ore., one sister, Mrs. Fred Taylor of Portland. His remains will go forward to Halsey, Ore., today for interment. Webb Funeral Parlor in charge of arrangements.

church last night, with Pacific university, at Forest Grove, being the principal topic discussed. The university is the Congregational college in Oregon. Dr. C. G. Clark, of Portland, and Rev. W. W. Blair, of Forest Grove, were the principal speakers. Women of the church served a supper at 6 o'clock. The state convention of all Congregational churches in Oregon will be held here September 30, October 1 and 2. Plans for the convention have not yet been completed.

Court Postponed One Day—In deference to the memory of Justice John McCourt, who died on September 12, no court was held yesterday. The first case will be begun at 10 o'clock this morning.

Two Couples to Wed—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to W. S. Kaufman of Seattle and Ruth Barnes of Salem, and to William Stoddard and Cora Lee Sulavan, both of Salem.

Declares His Intention—Ivan S. Barnett, a farmer who lives at Route 4, Salem, yesterday filed with the county clerk his intention to become an American citizen. Barnett's case is an unusual one in that he was originally a citizen of the United States, having been born in Des Moines, Iowa. He moved to Canada and was naturalized there in 1906, remaining there until the year 1919, when he returned to the United States.

Organize Speaking Classes—Organization of a public speaking class, to consist of 20 lessons, is now under way with W. G. Harrington, of Portland, in charge. Mr. Harrington is in charge of the public speaking work in the Portland schools and devotes two nights a week to this work in the YMCA. He was in Salem about two years ago and more than twice the number who could be accommodated applied for admission to the class. Though no public announcement of his return to Salem has been made heretofore, more than half the number that can be taken care of in the class have already signed up for the course. Mr. Harrington will give a preference to those who were in his class two years ago and to those who have studied in the public speaking class of the YMCA.

Stamping Patterns—See milady's shop ad on Trade in Salem page. s16

Will Enforce Curfew—When the curfew whistle blows after the hour is changed on October 1, those who have no business out after hours will receive but little sympathy from police officers, for Chief of Police Frank A. Minto announced yesterday that he would demand a rigid enforcement of the law. During the summer months more laxity is observed, but when school starts youngsters would better be off the streets before the whistle blows. The present curfew blows at 9:45 o'clock, but after the first of the month it will be heard at 9 o'clock.

Sunday Programs Enjoyed—Sunday programs at the Holmes and Lakebrook hop yards, given under the auspices of the recreational program in force this year, were greatly enjoyed according to all reports. Sunday school services were held at both yards, with swimming in order at the Lakebrook yard in the afternoon. Rev. U. S. Crowder spoke at the Holmes ranch at night and Dr. S. B. Laughlin gave an illustrated talk on his trip to Egypt, Arabia and the Holy Lands. He used photographs he had taken himself. Last night four reels of movies were shown at the Holmes ranch and boxing at the Lakebrook yard. The programs will continue as long as the picking season remains, but it is expected this will be completed this week.

Get Building Permits—Three building permits were issued from the city recorder's office Monday. These were to E. Randolph, dwelling, 1887 Water, $1200; Mary Van Every, story and a half dwelling, 2190 Virginia, $1500, and V. E. Newcombe, dwelling, 1619 South Church, $800.

Rifle Range Completed—The rifle range on the Salem-Turner road is now complete in detail and ready for use. Fences and warning flags have been put in place, the telephone communication completed and the distance marked out. The targets were erected some time ago.

Growers Refuse Offer—An offer of 10 cents a pound for 1000 boxes of 1923 crop 50c f. o. b. docks, was refused Monday by the Oregon Growers, J. M. Clifford announced Monday. The price was rejected, he said, because it was believed that the prune market was firm and that better prices would be obtained in the near future.

For Specials in Fall Hats—and sweaters on Woman's shop ad on Trade in Salem page. s16

Several Speeders Fined—In the police court Monday several speeders arrested over the week-end were contributors. Fines of $5 each were paid by Carroll Robison of Route 4; Hite Gade, of Route 6 and Harry Fowler, of Route 1. Ed Knox, of Portland, forfeited $5 bail for speeding while L. E. Oberer, 275 State, was cited to appear today on a charge of cutting a corner. The arrests were made by City Traffic Officer Wiles.

One More Needed—Out of a list of 21 drawn for service on the jury during the present term of court, only 11 were left yesterday afternoon, the other 10 having been excused or discharged for various reasons. Eleven of the 20 who fell by the wayside were women. Under the present law a woman may decline to serve on the jury without giving any reason. Another juror will be drawn in time for court this morning.

First Case at Court—When court opens at 10 o'clock this morning the first case coming before it will be G. T. Mison and J. F. Ulrich, real estate dealers, vs. Mrs. Edwin Browning. The suit is for the purpose of collecting commission said to be due the real estate company for selling a piece of property belonging to Mrs. Browning. The commission is said to amount to $247.50.

Joining YMCA Staff—Clarence Oliver, a student at Willamette university, will spend one or two hours a day in connection with his studies and the remainder of his time will be devoted to full time boys' work in connection with the YMCA. Mr. Oliver did some teaching in connection with the YMCA last year and is also the weather prophet and observer for Salem.

Stolen Auto Recovered—Word was received from Woodburn yesterday that a Ford touring car belonging to J. W. Ramage had been recovered. The machine was reported to the police Saturday night as having been stolen. A Ford coupe was brought to the station early Sunday morning by Officers Davis and Cutler. It was claimed by the owner yesterday, who explained that he was a stranger in the city and did not know of the ordinance prohibiting all-night parking in the residence district.

W. H. Trindle Leaves—Williams H. Trindle left this morning to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Ollie Cook, at Dan Mator, Iowa. Mrs. Cook was well known in Salem, having visited here a number of times, and at one time making her residence here for three years.

PERSONALS

Miss Martha Amman is in charge of the elevator in the Oregon building during the absence of "Uncle" Matt Baker, who is on a short vacation.

PRISON NEEDING LARGER BUDGET

Estimates for Approaching Biennium Submitted to Commission

In his estimate of financial requirements for the biennium of 1925-26, as submitted to the state budget commission, Warden A. M. Dalrymple of the state penitentiary places the total figure nearly $50,000 more than for the biennium now closing. The estimate places the total necessary amount at $378,024, while the legislature of 1923 appropriated $350,015.99. Receipts in the prison revolving fund for the two years are estimated at $142,000, $120,000 to come from the sale of flax products, $12,000 from the sale of bricks and $10,000 from sale of wood and animal surplus food products. Some other receipts are anticipated.

Operating expenses for the two years are estimated at $183,000 against $162,102.71 for the present biennium. Salaries and wages are placed at $114,800, or only $3.86 less than for the present biennium. General expenses are given an estimate of $12,482, or practically the same as for the biennium now closing. Maintenance is estimated at $32,632, while for 1923-24 it was $22,912.18. Capital outlay is placed at $34,302 against $17,714.95 for the last two years.
