MR. AND MRS. B. C. MILES returned home this week from a summer spent on the British Isles. Leaving Salem the first of last June, Mr. and Mrs. Miles and daughter, Miss Eva Miles, took passage the 14th of June on the "Olympic." Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dann (Lyra Miles) joined the family in New York city for the journey. Arriving in Southampton on June 20 the trip to London was made immediately. In London Mr. and Mrs. Miles secured an Italian touring car of Fiat make for a two thousand mile motor trip through England and Scotland. Three weeks were given to this delightful journey. The party followed an interesting itinerary as far north as Aberdeen, Scotland. All along they were impressed by the many large cities so relatively close together, most of which are many years old. Returning to London, the party left then for Ireland to spend several weeks, especially at Belfast, Dublin, and Waterford. Mr. and Mrs. Miles had the pleasure in Belfast of taking tea one afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns, the parents of Mrs. C. A. Kells. July proved a rainy month in Ireland, rain falling on twenty-seven days out of the thirty-one. Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Dann, and Miss Miles had the privilege of attending the Tercentenary conference of George Fox, in session for two weeks at Kendal, England. Miss Miles also attended the Young Friends' conference in England as well as a similar conference in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles returned again to England before sailing. The interesting days in London provided opportunity for visiting the most sought-out points of this famous city. St. Paul's cathedral, the Parliament building, and Westminster Abbey were all of vast interest. A visit was made to the tower where the royal jewels are kept, followed with trips to the homes of Burns, Ruskin, Wordsworth, and Shakespeare, as well as to Washington's ancestral home.

Among the castles, Warwick, still wearing its equipage of long ago, proved the most interesting. The old English gardens were a continual source of pleasure.

Mr. Miles and Mrs. Dann spent a great deal of time in the immediate interest of the linen industry. Mr. and Mrs. Dann are remaining abroad for a longer time in order to gain additional insight into linen manufacture before returning to the states.

While Mr. and Mrs. Miles sailed on August 26th for home, taking passage on the world's largest liner, the "Leviathan," their daughter Miss Eva Miles, who is now in Paris, will spend the season abroad. Miss Miles will be in France until Christmas, after which she will go on to Germany, returning home in the spring.

The past matrons' association of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will meet this evening with Mrs. James Godfrey. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Amos Vass, Mrs. F. B. Gillette, Mrs. Alice Coolidge and Mrs. W. V. Johnson.

Much interest was shown in the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Republican Study club held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Bean. Congressman W. C. Hawley, as the fully informed speaker of the afternoon, gave telling facts concerning the history of different party issues. A very clear explanation of the election machinery was made. The registration of all women was emphatically urged. After fair week, up to election time, the Republican Study club plans to meet each Monday afternoon. Forty women were present for the meeting yesterday. A group of new members were enrolled.

At the business meeting of the club a resolution of sympathy was passed in behalf of Mrs. McCourt. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith sang in a beautiful manner, "I Passed By Your Window," responding with a sprightly encore. Both accompaniments were played by Miss Ruth Bedford.

Tea was served late in the afternoon, the dining room being particularly attractive for the occasion, with a French bouquet of autumn flowers centering the table and zinnias in the window. Mrs. John Rand and Mrs. George M. Brown poured. The hostesses of the day included Mrs. H. J. Bean, Miss Applegate, Mrs. C. A. Kells and Mrs. Homer Goulet.

The next meeting of the club will be on the 29th of the month.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Carrie Chase, 639 Center street, for the opening monthly meeting of the new season. Delegates to the convention held at Grants Pass in July will give reports.

Mrs. B. F. Rowland of Canton, Ohio, was the house guest from Monday until Wednesday of Mrs. O. E. Price.

The interesting first program on the AAUW calendar for the year is the 12:30 o'clock luncheon scheduled for tomorrow at the Marion hotel. Announcement of the complete personnel of the committees for the year will be made, as well as a forecast of plans by each chairman. An exhibit of Chinese rugs will also be featured with an accompanying explanation of designs and process of production. Miss Lena Belle Tartar will favor with musical numbers. It is especially important that

Historic Building Razed For Silvertown Structure

SILVERTON, Ore., Sept. 17.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Work on the new planing mill and garage which is being built by the Hubbs Planing Mill company is fast progressing. The old building is down and has been hauled away. Filling in and levelling up the foundation ground is under way. The concrete wall built along Silver creek is ready to carry whatever weight is necessary for the construction of modern work rooms.

The old mill just taken down revealed a class of workmanship seldom seen in this day. Most all of the fittings in the foundation timbers were done by hand and many of the timbers were as sound as the day they were placed. Part of the old mill was built as early as 1858.
