A birthday cake with candles carried out the pink decorative motif. Music and games were the evening diversions, after which luncheon was served in the dining room. Among the gifts of the day was a beautiful imported scarf sent by Franklin B. Launer from Paris, and a lovely birthday letter.

Miss Beulah Launer is spending the week in Albany as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Barkley Newman.

A number of social events are planned for the week-end at Willamette university, marking the recent opening of school. Last night the students were guests of the First Methodist church Epworth league at an informal reception.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the annual YWCA "jolly jaunt" to Chestnut farm will take place, with every girl in the student body included in the pleasant hike, where the traditional refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, and cider will be served.

Mrs. Lewis Griffith was hostess on Friday for a delightful meeting of her bridge club with Mrs. C. K. Spaulding and Mrs. Hugh Kyle invited as special guests. Zinnias and cosmos were vivid in the rooms. The prize of the af-

GOSPEL TEAM WILL GO TO YAMHILL

Willamette University Students Get Early Start on Year's Work

The first Willamette university gospel team of the year will leave Sunday morning to hold the morning and evening services in the Methodist church at Yamhill in the absence of the pastor. The morning service will be in charge of Rev. C. G. Wrenn, a member of the team, who will give the sermon, with a special vocal number by the Misses Lena and Gladys Gilbert.

The evening service will be entered into by the entire team, led by Miss Mildred Drake, whose father is pastor of the church. The subject will be "The Claims of Christ" upon which four members of the team will speak for seven minutes each.

The members of the team are Miss Mildred Drake, Miss Ruth Dell, Miss Lena Gilbert, Miss Gladys Gilbert, William Nickelson, Thomas Roland, C. G. Wrenn.

The gospel team work of the university is a very potent influence upon the campus. It is to be distinguished from the deputation work, the latter being under the supervision of the YMCA and is interdenominational in character, while the gospel team work is under the supervision of the Methodist churches. The executive committee which has the supervision of the gospel team activities, consists of one representative each from the Epworth leagues of First Church, Jason Lee, and Leslie, from Kimball School of Theology, and the YMCA and YWCA of the university. A new executive committee for the year is soon to be elected. Professor W. H. Hertzog of Kimball is the present chairman of the committee.

Last year 25 or more teams were sent out with something like 75 or 80 young people participating, most of whom were new to the work. Over a hundred decisions and reconsecrations were recorded for the year's work.
