School of the Dance Art next Wednesday in Salem will be of talented, splendid teachers. especial interest to local lovers of this form of art.

Miss Ruth Hjertaas and Miss Lenore Preston are establishing such an aesthetic school. Miss Hiertaas is a graduate of Columbia College of Expression, Dancing and Physical Education at Chicago, and is finely recommended. She has had special work with Andreas Pavly and Serge Oukrainsky, ballet masters of the Chicago Grand Opera company, and has made a thorough study of children's dancing with Sonia Serova. For the past four years she has had charge of the dance work in the physical education department at Oregon Agricultural

Miss Preston is a graduate of the college at Corvallis where as Move thought and passion: He a student she served often in the capacity of assistant in various branches of the physical training department. As children's director of Chautauqua work she was especially popular and successful. She has specialized in the ballet dance and is herself a finished dancer. Miss Preston has numerwill at once make her popular among her new Salem friends.
