PACE VICTORY IS PROTESTED

Borden McKinney Takes 2:08 Event—Veteran In Great Drive

Borden McKinney, owned by G. J. Giannini of San Francisco, won the 2:08 pace at Loma Oak track yesterday, taking the last three of a three heats in five event. The victory was over the protest of William Williams of Payette, Idaho, and Driver Huber, agent for E. I. Clark of Billings, Mont., owners respectively of Mary J. and Al Silk because Giannini's horse was allowed to start in the third heat after dropping out at the third turn in the second heat. The decision of the judges was based on the fact that Borden McKinney was carried wide at the turn and the patrol judge was forced to hold him to prevent an accident. The protest of Williams and Huber was formally filed and will be decided by the Northwest Racing association. A year ago Giannini won this race here with Portreese.

Prince Zolock, 14 years old, and driven by Ben Walker, grizzled veteran of the grand circuit who for years was associated with the late "Pop" Geers, won the 2:10 pace in straight heats. William Gray won the 2:12 trot in straight heats. He was driven by Keener, who a year ago today won the same race with D. J. Burke. In memory of "Pop" Geers the grand stand was silent for five minutes while the 2:08 pacers were photographed.

pointed out. "is a device for maintaining in perpetuity the rights of the people, with the ultimate extinction of all privileged classes." "I have mentioned the desirability," he continued, "for the people to keep control of their own government and their own property, because I believe that is one of the American ideals of public welfare in harmony with the efforts of the first Constitutional congress. They objected to small infractions, which would destroy great principles of liberty. Unless we can maintain the integrity of the courts, where the individual can secure his rights, any kind of tyranny may follow. If the people lose control of the arteries of trade and the natural sources of mechanical power, the nationalization of all industry could soon be expected. Our forefathers were alert to resist all encroachments upon their rights. If we wish to maintain our rights, we can do no less."

no more lusty than the greeters that have greeted them on every other stop since their return to their own country. Lieutenant Wade, having installed his new battery reached Crissy field at 4:02 p. m. More than 25,000 persons ringed the landing field and shouted their admiration.

The hop from Santa Monica took five hours and seven minutes, including the mishap to Wade. When they arrived here, the fliers had covered approximately 27,000 miles of their globe girdling flight and had been between 350 and 355 hours in the air, according to a log kept by Lieutenant Leslie T. Arnold, mechanic to Lieutenant Smith.

"We were out to establish a record. We went as fast as we could and made the stops as short as possible," said Lieutenant Smith. Upon their arrival the aviators were entertained at Luncheon by the air officers at Crissy field. They were taken later to a downtown hotel where they rested. They will service their airplanes tomorrow. Lieutenant Wade will need a new engine in his, he told interviewers.

Lieutenant Smith remarked that he did not think a non-stop flight to Honolulu would be feasible, despite the success of the long jumps on the present flight.

anonymous entry from the Leroy R. Fields string claimed the blue while Colony a McClure entry and The Sheik owned by Turner, carried out unperturbedly the red and white. Sunbeam of O. A. C. was rated fourth.

Both entries in the third event, featuring heavy harness horses with appointments, were ridden out from the West stables, Marie Seaton and Lady Sunderland being entered by Mabel and Helen West, and Harmony Mathias and Mate by Jean West. The first team pranced out with the blue ribbon trophy, the second following with the red.

A. C. Ruby, Robert C. McCroskey, D. F. Burge, and C. W. Bowers won ribbons for four-in-hand draft horses, the McCroskey entry rating first, that of Ruby second, Burge third, and Bowers fourth. The same owners also showed last night with the result that Ruby now holds a first and a second, McCroskey a first and a second, and Burge two thirds.

A children's event of Musical chairs with pony entrants gave diversion to the evening's program as did horses on teeter-boards and a nonchalant bull pup dragging a miniature barnyard scene on wheels. In the children's event Horace Stewart, Kenneth Grimes, and Peter Spreed were winners in order.

Long Boy of the Oregon Agricultural College was the animal winning greatest success in the handy hunter jumping class for performance over five jumps and one gate, two hurdles of 3 feet 6 inches of timber with 6 inches of brush on top; four-foot post and rail; in and out of a three-side pig pen and through a gate, the rider dismounting to unlatch the latter. Princess Pat, owned by Pauline West Stanley took the red ribbon, Lil Webb, owned by Dorothy McBride, third, and Colony of the McCleave stables the pink.
