ECHOES FROM THE OREGON STATE FAIR (Continued from page 1)

9:45 o'clock this morning, prior to the meeting of the Oregon Hospitality clubs, which will be held in the stadium at 10 o'clock.

Silver fox displays are attracting an unusual amount of attention at the fair this year, somewhat because of the novel term 'farm" which is applied to their breeding and because of the value of the furs.

Officialdom of the Oregon Electric railroad attended the state fair yesterday. The party included A. J. Davidson, general manager; C. Whitfield, superintendent of maintenance; R. H. Crozier, general passenger agent; G. E. Votaw, superintendent, Mrs. Votaw and the Misses Cleone and Helen Votaw; L. F. Knowlton. city and traveling passenger agbooks on wall decorations. Max O. ent; E. E. Lillie, superintendent of car service and telegraph, and Mrs. Lillie; G. L. Williams, assistant to the general passenger agent, and Mrs. Williams; J. C. Abbett, advertising agent; W. G. Smith, tax agent, and Mrs. Smith; J. E. Mang, treasurer; W. R. Pickard, general freight agent, Mrs. Pickard and son Bobbie; F. S. Biays, assistant to general purchasing agent, and Mrs. Biays; E. Edwards, general purchasing agent, and Katherine Edwards; J. Dickson, superintendent of motive power and Mrs. Dickson; Robert Crosbie, comptroller and Mrs. Crosbie; M. K. Holland, counsel, Mrs. Holland and daughter Char-

> The annual meeting of the Campers' association will be held tonight prior to the parade. Officers will be elected for the coming year at this time.

"Painfully quiet" is the way Delia Cook, police matron from Portland, who is at the fair grounds again this year, characterizes police duties. Locating lost children takes the most of her time, about six youngsters having strayed from their parents in the last two days. One almost frantic mother appealed for help in finding her 5-year-old son. After a long search the missing youngster was found curled up in the bottom of the family auto-

Governor Pierce and members of the state fair board were guests of the boys and girls who make up the industrial club camp Thursday noon. The visitors were called upon for speeches.

Because of their showing in club work in Polk county, four boys and girls are spending three days at the state fair this year as a special reward for being the most progressive club members in their county during the last year. The selection was made by County School Superintendent Wills. The party includes Pauline Domes, Sybil Finney, Rollo Cobban and Joe Dodge.

east corner, in the Salem Indian

An estimate of the value of the automobiles on display at the state fair may be made from the R. N. MacDonald company display. This firm has five Packurds on exhibition and two on the grounds for demonstration purposes. The value of the seven machines is placed at $30,000! It is estimated that the average price of the automobiles on the floor is around $1500.
