ATLANTIC MAN WINS TITLE

Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., Takes First Place in National Tourney

ARDMORE, Penn., Sept. 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., of Atlanta, came to man's estate today, secured the honor he sought in for eight years of his youth. The national amateur golf championship. In the final round of the annual tournament he defeated George Von Elm of Los Angeles by the unprecedented score of 9 to 8, for the concluding match of the week's competition. Triumph came at the Merion Cricket club, where, in 1916, a boy of 14, who wore short pants even when not playing golf, first attracted attention by his ability at what some scoffers have often termed an old man's game. Many have been his disappointments since then.

A favorite several times hitherto to win the amateur crown, he was eliminated by opponents of far less average ability. The open title came to him last year, only after his average score per hole over a period of years had been lower than that of any other competitor.

Now, with family and business matters to attend to beside golf, and about to cast his first vote for President, he joins the select class of link stars who have won both the amateur and open titles. There are only three others and two of them were eliminated in this tournament. The three are Jerome D. Travers of New York, Francis Oulmet of Boston and Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago. His game was a bit inferior to the great heights reached in his semi-final match with Francis Oulmet, but he was better than Von Elm in every branch and was never down after the second of the 28 holes which the 36 match consisted of as a result of the decisive victory.

Don Elm attracted attention all the week by the lowness of his medal scores and the decisive margins of most of his victories before the final round. Four par five holes were played. At three of them Jones had the longer drive, the longer brassie and the closer approach of the pin.

New York 5, Philadelphia 1. NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(National)—The New York Giants today broke a precedent of 49 years and won the national league championship for the fourth time in succession by defeating Philadelphia here today 5 to 1, while Brooklyn was losing to Boston.

No other National or American league club ever has won four successive pennants.

Manager McGraw of New York was thwarted in his ambition for four straight pennant winners when the Boston club beat out his Giants in a September finish ten years ago.

The championship is McGraw's tenth, twice as many as were won by any other National league manager.

Bentley found the Phillies easy picking and held the visitors to four hits. A muff by Jackson gave Philadelphia its only run in the first inning.

The Giants bunched hits off Ring and scored their runs one at a time. Ring was driven out of the box in the sixth inning.

Holke was spiked by Terry and was obliged to retire.

Score: Philadelphia 1 4 1 New York 5 11 1 Ring, Carlson, Henline and Wilson; Bentley and Snyder.

Cincinnati 10, St. Louis 1. CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—(National)—Cincinnati, with a makeshift team in the field slugged St. Louis pitchers and won the final game at Redland field 10 to 1. The Reds will close the season at St. Louis tomorrow with a double header.

Score: St. Louis 1 8 3 Cincinnati 10 16 1 Fowler, Berly and Clemons; Debut and Hargrave.

Boston 8, Brooklyn 2. BROOKLYN, Sept. 27.—(National)—The Braves put the Brooklyn Dodgers permanently out of the race for the National league pennant today, 8 to 2. Incidentally the Boston club broke Bill Doak's string of consecutive victories, which had reached ten up to this point.

Cooney held the Dodgers to four hits, one of which was a home run by Brown, first man up in the sixth.

This was Brooklyn's first hit of the game. Brooklyn team scored its second and final run in the eighth on a single by High Mitchell's walk and Wheat's single.

A vigorous protest arose in this inning when Empire Klem ruled Mitchell's hit to right a foul. Both High and Mitchell had scored on the hit, the latter's run tying the score when Stengel threw wild and the ball rolled to the Boston dugouts. The runners were ordered back, however and Mitchell was passed. The Braves scored all their runs off Doak. Mcinnis' hitting featured.

Score: Boston 3 10 0 Brooklyn 2 4 4 Cooney and O'Neil; Doak, Erhardt and Taylor.

Pittsburgh 3, Chicago 2. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—(National)—Pittsburgh closed its home season today with a 10-inning victory over Chicago, 3 to 2. Adams pitched for the Pirates and helped win with a sacrifice hit in the tenth inning with one out which put Schmidt on second base.

Schmidt scored the winning run on a single by Carey.

Score: Chicago 2 9 0 Pittsburgh 3 9 1 Aldridge and Hartnett; Adams and Schmidt.

played. At 14 Jones had the better drives and at ten of them his second shots were better. Jones took 47 putts, including six one-putt greens and one three putt green due to a styvie. Von Elm required 53 putts, including three one putt greens and five where he took three putts each.

California Gets Off To Very Poor Start

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 27.—The University of California, coast champions at football for four years, won its opening game here this afternoon with Santa Clara university, but only after a real struggle which left the final score 13 to 7.

For about half of the game, Santa Clara played California off its feet. It was only in the final part of the contest that the champions stiffened their defense and began carrying through the Santa Clara line. The mighty Bears were forced to trail the entire first half.

NO SCORE

MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 27.—The Medford high school team playing the first game of the season, this afternoon on a dusty field held a team of former college and local high school stars to a 0-0 score.

Scientists say we must wait 200 years to learn if Mars is inhabited, but we refuse to do it.

Washington 7, Boston 5. BOSTON, Sept. 27.—(American)—Pinch Hitter Wade Lefler's double to right field with the bases full in the sixth inning let Washington score three runs and eventually gave the Senators a 7 to 5 victory over the Red Sox this afternoon.

A crowd of 22,000 saw the game today, and as was the case yesterday cheered steadily for a Washington victory, even though Howard Ehmke, the best of the Boston pitchers, started in the box.

Mogridge started pitching for the Senators. After the Washington team made two runs on doubles by Rice and Goslin and Judge's triple in the first, the Sox scored four runs in their half of the opening inning on Washington's J. Harris, Ezell's single off Peckinpaugh's glove, Lee's single and a successful double steal.

In the fifth Goslin singled, Judge beat out a bunt, Bluege sacrificed Peckinpaugh fanned for the third straight time, but the bases were filled after Ehmke hit Ruel. Lefler came in as a pinch hitter. His double off Ferguson yesterday scored the single Senator run of that game. He sent a liner to right, which Boone did not hold, and all three runners scored.

The last was scored on a two bagger and Lefler was run down trying to make third base. With Russell pitching in the fifth Boone tripled and scored on Ezell's timely single over second. The score was tied at five all.

In the sixth, Washington scored twice. Liebold walked, Stanley Harris bunted toward Ehmke who took the ball, failed to throw to second and then made a bad peg to and beyond first base which Wamby did not cover. The ball went to the fence with Liebold scoring and the batter reaching third from where he later scored on Goslin's clean single to right.

Ehmke's error was fatal to Red Sox hopes. Score: R. H. E. Washington 7 19 2 Boston 5 8 3 Mogridge, Marberry, Russell, and Ruel; Ehmke, Quinn and O'Neil, Pielich.

Philadelphia 4, New York 3. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(American)—A wild pitch by Joe Bush in the seventh inning of today's fray with the Athletics cost the New York Yankees the game 5 to 3. Had it not been for this wild pitch the Yankees scoring of two runs in the ninth would have tied the score.

The bad pitch came with Jimmy Dykes on second and before the husky "Wally" Schang could retrieve the ball Dykes had scored with the fourth and what proved to be the winning tally.

Rommell pitched a strong game. Bush's shaky start in the first inning when he was blasted for five singles and three runs proved his most disastrous season. From then on he allowed but three more hits. Rommell struck out but one batter, but he singled out Ruth for this doubtful honor and the "Babe" was resting his bat on his shoulder when he was called out. When Ruth realized the significance of the umpire's decision, he tossed his bat in the air to demonstrate his disgust and then paused at the plate to make a few remarks to Umpire Holmes. Holmes stood his ground and Yankee players persuaded the home run king to take his place in the outfield and the incident was closed.

The capacity crowd that completely filled the stands and bleachers and cheered lustily as the game finished and let out still a louder whoop as the Senators' 7 to 5 victory was hung up on the score board.

Second baseman Dykes was presented with an autographic after Philadelphia sporting writers had decided he was the most valuable player on the team.

Score: R. H. E. New York 3 7 0 Philadelphia 4 8 3 Bush and Schang; Rommell and Bruggy.

Detroit 10, Chicago 8. CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(American)—Detroit staged a ninth inning rally after Chicago had overcome the visitors lead and made it two straight from the White Sox to S. Woodall and Manship led the attack for the Tigers with four hits each.

Score: R. H. E. Detroit 10 21 2 Chicago 8 11 2 Whitehill, Calloway, Wells and Woodall; Thurston, Blankenship and Schalk.

Cleveland 12, St. Louis 1. CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—(American)—Recruit pitcher Leaven held St. Louis to seven scattered hits and Cleveland won the opening game of the final series 12 to 1 today. The Browns' only run resulted from singles by Sisler and McManus and a wild throw.

Score: R. H. E. Cleveland 12 13 0 Grant, Wingard and Rego; Levensen and L. Sewell.

N. Y. GIANTS CINCH PENNANT

John McGraw's Ball Club Takes Fourth First Place In Four Years

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—While the New York Giants clinched their fourth straight pennant today and their tenth under the magnetic leadership of John McGraw within a score of years, Washington advanced a step nearer the Senators' first flag triumph by defeating Boston while the New York Yankees lost to Philadelphia.

Washington, with a two game lead, now can get no worse than a tie in the junior circuit, for the rival contenders each have two remaining games, scheduled Monday and Tuesday. A victory for the Senators in only one will assure them the pennant, even if the Yankees take both of their remaining contests.

By taking his fourth straight pennant, McGraw gained one of his most cherished goals and set a major league record. Back in the 70's, in the old National association, Boston won four straight pennants while in the American association, a decade later, St. Louis won four straight, but no American or National league club ever has won more than three in a row.

The Giants' finish this season, despite the handicap of injuries that forced Groh and Frisch, bulwarks of the club's inner defense, out of the lineup, ranks among the most sensational in National league history. Threatened by both Pittsburgh and Brooklyn, the makeshift McGraw team rallied in the final week, put the Pirates out of the race by defeating them three times in a row and clinched the pennant today by trimming Philadelphia while Brooklyn lost to Boston.

Except for a brief interval when Brooklyn, the dark horse of the race, gained the top, the Giants have set the pace all season. Their triumph, however, was gained by the closest margin of any manager McGraw has led to the front. They held a margin of two and a half games tonight with two games yet to play with Philadelphia while Brooklyn has only one more with Boston.

George M., owned by J. E. Montgomery of Sacramento, won the free-for-all pace at Lone Oak track yesterday, taking the second, third and fifth heats. Lillas D., owned by Will Williams of Lewiston, Idaho, took first money in the 2:18 trot, and Raisin Express, owned by G. J. Gianinni of San Francisco, took all heats in the consolation trot.

WESTERNERS WIN IN POLO TOURNEY

Midwicks of Los Angeles Are Winners Over Wanderers By Close Score

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The spectacular Midwick club of Los Angeles, already possessors of national junior title, captured American open championship today when they rode to thrilling victory over Tommy Hitchcock's Wanderers, six to five, on international field.

Eric Pedley, star of the Midwicks and a substitute on American's international team, added fresh lustre to his record by scoring the deciding goal in the eighth chukker after Hitchcock, young internationalist, had tied the count.

More than 15,000 spectators saw the Californians hold a slight advantage for the better part of a match that was exciting from start to finish with the outcome in doubt until the final whistle. Only once did either team have an advantage of more than one goal.

Pedley who scored four goals was the mainspring of the Midwick attack, but it was superior all-around team play of Californians that proved the deciding factor. Hitchcock stood out for the losers, tallying three times.

The triumph gave the Californians the two major polo titles of the season, outside of the international challenge cup and practically assured them victory in the Monty Waterbury tournament cup. This is based on handicaps, the westerners will be conceded from three to seven goals by every team.

The first contest of the Waterbury series was played today with Louis Lacey Anglo-Argentine star, leading the Hurricanes to victory over the Middleneck farm combination 12 to 11, in an extra hard game.
