

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Look Dance 1—
Grand opening dance at Turner, Saturday, October 4. Jasper Versatile Band playing.

Party Finding—
Ladies' wrist watch, initials "MRS" in Graybelle rest room Saturday 6:30 p. m., leave at Graybelle. Reward. —s28*

Long Life Ended—
N. CondoGeorge passed away at the age of eighty two, on Thursday 10:09 a. m. at the home of his daughter Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, 940 Union street. He is survived by his daughter Mrs. Kafoury, two sons Theo of Portland, George of Everett, Washington and several grand children. Funeral will be held from the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Monday September 29, 1924 at 10 a. m.

Wanted, Demonstrators—
For house to house canvassing. See Mrs. Simpson, Hotel Argo, between 10 and 11 forenoons. —s28

Directory is Out—
The Marion and Polk counties telephone directories are just off the press of the Statesman office and will be distributed the first of the week. The issue is growing larger all the time and the information in the early part of the book shows precisely how to handle the directory and get the best use out of the book.

Use Our Distributive—
Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers and opticians. —s28

A Guernsey Sale—
W. O. Reith will have a sale of registered and grade Jersey cattle on October 2nd at his farm near Astoria, Oregon. Colonel J. W. Hughes will be auctioneer, Colonel Ben Suddell, ring master, and B. J. Neal, sale manager. The offering will be very important to those interested in good stock. The catalog was printed at the office of the Oregon Statesman.

Prof. T. S. Roberts—
Will enroll piano and organ students now at his studio, 505 N. Summer st. Phone 1883W. High school credits given. —s28*

Charges Answered—
John Beloff, answering charges filed in a complaint for divorce

WOODRY
Buys Furniture
Phone 511

Dr. B. H. White
Osteopathy - Surgery
Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method).
Office Phone 859 or 469-J
506 U. S. Bank Bldg.

We're All Moved and now that we are located in our new quarters at 143 S. LIBERTY ST.
we are in a position to give you still better service on your transfer and hauling work.
We Still Handle Fuel
and have several carloads of coal due in a few days. Better get your order in early.
Phone 930
Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.

Cars for Hire
WITHOUT DRIVERS
Our autos are all kept in prime condition, therefore are absolutely safe to drive.
TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE
We hire them either with or without drivers.
PHONE 2020 Office at Stage Terminal—
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

LADD & BUSH
BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

which has been brought against him by Eva Olson, guardian of Mrs. Beloff, states that the guardian has meddled with his family affairs to such an extent that his home has been broken up. In his answer he further states that Eva Olson has deliberately and maliciously kept him from seeing his wife.

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Fisher's Parole Ordered—
An order for the parole of W. T. Fisher, who recently entered a plea of guilty to the charge of stealing two suits of clothes, was signed by Judge Kelly and filed in circuit court yesterday.

Bertha Junk-Darby—
Teacher of piano, 679 N. Cottage st. Phone 1950W. Register now. —s28*

Three Couples to Wed—
Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Matthew Lorang of Portland and Elizabeth E. Kresky of Salem; James Beverly and Ethel Brown of Detroit, and to Solomon Drake and Ethel Young, both of Salem.

Young Men—
Dress up for school at the Man's Shop. Better styles. Better values. —s28

Mrs. Edna Brown—
Mrs. Edna Brown died at the Deaconess hospital at 8:30 last evening, September 27, 1924, aged 25.

Decensed was a daughter of L. C. Denison, 351 No. Cottage street Salem. She studied music under Joy Turner of Salem and Prof. Graham of Portland and was prominent in musical circles.

She gave birth to a daughter at 2:30 in the afternoon, and the child survives. She leaves a son aged 2 years and her husband, Ernie Brown, who is employed at the Spalding mill, and a brother H. A. Denison of Pocatello, Idaho.

The funeral will be held at the Webb undertaking parlors on Tuesday, September 30.

Miss Margaret Fisher—
Teacher of piano and harmony, state accredited, Studio, 790 N. Church. Phone, 2046M. Specializing with young children. —s30

Case is Dismissed—
Charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor were dismissed in the police court yesterday against R. A. Harner and R. M. Bentler. The pair were arrested about 4 o'clock Saturday morning by Officer Edwards.

"The Oregon Trail"—
A new and worthy epic poem by Chas. J. Lisle in the Oregon Magazine, at all newsstands. —s28

Sermon is Commemorated—
In commemoration of the first sermon preached west of the Rocky mountains by Jason Lee, the subject of the sermon of Rev.

Typewriters
ALL MAKES
$5 Down
$5 Monthly
O. M. Lockwood
247 N. Com. St.
Phone 866

Miss Beatrice Shelton
Teacher of Piano
High school credits granted.
Studio, 345 Marion. Phone 1299; Derby building, 365.

RADIO HEADQUARTERS For RADIO SUPPLIES
Open Evenings
201 NORTH COMMERCIAL

Popular Priced
Tailored Suits $25 to $45
Men's and Young Men's
D. H. MOSHER
TAILOR

Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the First Methodist church, this morning will be "The Spirit of Jason Lee." The first sermon was preached 90 years ago, on Sunday, Sept. 28, 1834. Every Methodist church in western Oregon will make some reference to the early pioneer.

Thomas Violin—
And piano studio, 665 North 16th street, will open Oct. 1. Special kindergarten courses. High school credits given. Phone 1518J —s27

Joins Portland Faculty—
For the next two weeks Prof. William H. Herzog, of the Kimball School of Theology, will act as a member of the Portland Epworth League institute. He will give two nights each week to this work.

High School Seniors—
See the new 20-inch bottom, English style senior corduroy pants at Bishop's. Get yours while they have a full stock.—s30

Taking Care of Flags—
Flags belonging to the Chamber of Commerce which have been used to decorate the business section of Salem during fair week were taken down early this morning. During the high wind and rain earlier in the week several of the flags were blown down and picked up by local merchants. Those having flags are asked to telephone the Chamber of Commerce rooms, at 302, and someone will call for the flags. A total of 177 were used in decorating the city.

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Statue is Covered—
A covering has been placed over the "Spirit of the American Doughboy," the Memorial statue erected in the court house square by the Salem War Mothers in

DIED
SCHMID—Funeral services for the late Joseph G. Schmid who died at a local hospital Sept. 26th, will be held from the Catholic church Monday morning, Sept. 29 at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Buck will officiate, interment will be in the St. Barbara cemetery. Salem mortuary in charge.

NEAL—At a local hospital Sept. 27, Mrs. Margaret K. Neal at the age of 56 years. She is survived by her husband, Elmore M. Neal of Bandon, Or. The Salem Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

CONDOGEORGE—N. CondoGeorge passed away at the age of 82, on Thursday, 10 a. m., at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. Kafoury, 940 Union street. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Kafoury, two sons, Theo of Portland, George of Everett, Wash., and several grand children. Funeral will be held from St. Paul Episcopal church Monday, Sept. 29, 1924, at 10 a. m. The remains will lie in state at the Terwilliger funeral home from noon Sunday until one hour prior to the time of the funeral service.

SPITZBART—Mrs. Ida A. Spitzbart died at her home in West Salem Sept. 27 at the age of 57 years. She is survived by her widower, Chas. Spitzbart, one son, Leo G., two daughters, Miss Esther Spitzbart of Salem, Mrs. Wm. L. Teutsch of Corvallis; two sisters, Mrs. N. Reiser and Mrs. E. Burkhardt of Hawkeye, Iowa. Body at Webb's Funeral parlors. Funeral announcements later.

BROWN—Mrs. Edna Pearl Brown died at a local hospital Sept. 27, at the age of 25 years. She is survived by her widower, George E. Brown, one infant daughter, one son, Louis, age 2 years, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dennison, one brother, Herbert Dennison, all of Salem. Funeral services will be held at the Webb Funeral parlors Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 2 p. m.

DAVIS—In this city, Saturday, Sept. 27, Mrs. Anna Davis, age 31 years, wife of Lee F. Davis, mother of Ward Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stark of Salem, sister of Mrs. Henry Crawford of Bismark, North Dakota, Mrs. Lloyd Hauser and Walter Stark of this city. Announcement of funeral later by the Rigdon mortuary.

FUNERALS
The funeral of Jessie May Boughey, who died Sept. 23, 1924, will be held at the Webb Funeral parlors Monday, Sept. 29, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mathews will have charge of services. Interment will be in the city.

FUNERALS
The funeral of Jessie May Boughey, who died Sept. 23, 1924, will be held at the Webb Funeral parlors Monday, Sept. 29, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mathews will have charge of services. Interment will be in the city.

FUNERALS
The funeral of Jessie May Boughey, who died Sept. 23, 1924, will be held at the Webb Funeral parlors Monday, Sept. 29, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mathews will have charge of services. Interment will be in the city.

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY
Unequaled Services

memory of Marion county young men who gave their lives during the World War. The statue will remain covered until the formal dedication, the date of which has not yet been set, but which will probably be held as a feature of Armistice day.

Dr. B. F. Pound, Dentist—
Has returned after extended study in the east. Special attention to plate work and extraction. 406 U. S. Bank Bldg. —s28

Liquor Brings Arrests—
Two more prohibition law violators appeared in the justice court because of poor judgment upon the part of the carriers. Carroll Wright offered to sell some liquor to State Prohibition Officer R. D. MacMasters. He went to a cache at Twelfth and Leslie and obtained two pints of moonshine. When he made the delivery he was arrested and charged with selling intoxicating liquor. He was lodged in the county jail in lieu of $750 bail and will appear in the court Monday morning. Harry Frazier attempted to visit a cache being watched by Deputy Sheriffs Bert Smith and Roy Bremner in the southeast part of Salem. He entered a plea of guilty to a charge of possession and will come up for sentence Monday morning. Unable to furnish $500 bail he went to join Wright for the week-end.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Many Speeders Fined—
Saturday was a good day in the justice court, several speeders being haled before P. J. Kuntz, justice of the peace. C. W. Rigdon, arrested by H. L. Griffith, state traffic officer, deposited $10 bail; Tom Akers was fined $25; F. W. Settlemeier, of Woodburn, was cited to appear for traveling 40 miles an hour on the highway; James G. Wilson and George E. Cassell, both of Portland, were each fined $10. These last arrests were all made by Earl B. Houston, state traffic officer.

Before You Leave—
Your home or car have it insured properly. Phone 161, Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg.—87

Gets Building Permit—
A building permit for the construction of a garage and warehouse to cost $1200 was issued from the city recorder's office Saturday to W. R. Speck. The building will be erected at Fifteenth and Leslie.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Miss Ethel Brown—
Of Detroit and James Frank Dewley of Sodaville, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon. Rev. W. C. Kantner performed the ceremony.

Elma Weller, Teacher—
Of piano, specializing in Artist tone and touch through the Modern Weight Relaxation. Studio, 695 N. Liberty. Phone 1351. —s28

Kiwanians Meet Tuesday—
N. D. Elliott, secretary of the Salem Kiwanis club, has prepared a special letter calling attention to the Tuesday noon meeting at the Marion hotel. The letter, in part, says: "Next Tuesday there's goin' to be a meetin' at the Marion hotel for a bunch of fellers that calls themselves Kiwanis, and Ott Paulus' brother Bob is goin' to show them his pickers. Leonard Chadwick is goin' to play his fiddle and T. S. Roberts is goin' to pound the piano. Then Dockter Clement is goin' to give a prize to some feller for best there. Dock says he's goin' to give an ana-is-thetic an then take that feller apart to see how he gets that way."

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Pack Logan Cartons—
Packing of loganberries in cartons for eastern shipments is being made by the Oregon Growers association at its plant here. About 2000 boxes, an accumulation of small orders, are being sent out at this time. Though the demand for dried loganberries is hoted for a bunch of fellers that calls themselves Kiwanis, and Ott Paulus' brother Bob is goin' to show them his pickers. Leonard Chadwick is goin' to play his fiddle and T. S. Roberts is goin' to pound the piano. Then Dockter Clement is goin' to give a prize to some feller for best there. Dock says he's goin' to give an ana-is-thetic an then take that feller apart to see how he gets that way."

Alberich Richard Wetjen—
Has a colorful story of the South Seas in this month's Oregon Magazine. —s28

Republican Booth at Fair—
The only political party having a booth at the state fair was the republican. It was in charge of Mrs. Southwick. An effort was made to close it up, but Mrs. Southwick was game and it remained open. "I know I gave out more than a peck of buttons," declared Mrs. Southwick. She was assisted by several republican women.

Use Our Distributive—
Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers and opticians. —s28

A Most Delightful Story—
"Then Came Fair Week," appears in the current number of the Oregon Magazine. —s28

Affiliate Sunday Postponed—
Notice of the postponement of Affiliate Sunday until October 5 was made yesterday by the First Methodist church in order that all churches might cooperate in the plan. On that Sunday students of Willamette university who place their membership in local churches during their temporary residence in Salem are the guests at Sunday dinner of various members of the churches.

All of Last Week—
Young people read about the opening of school at the Capital Business College tomorrow, but the all-important matter is to act on the suggestion made. Only those who enroll and follow this with hard, conscientious study will profit. No matter the line of work followed, a business education is worth more than it cost to any one. We're looking for you tomorrow. —s28

Attention!—
When you have Talbot's cry your sale you pay for no unnecessary advertisement. Very reasonable terms. —s28*

Shipments Under Way—
Nearly 75 carloads of onions and about 50 carloads of celery have been shipped from the Lake Labish district so far this year and the shipments are now in full swing. The shipments will continue until about the middle of November and it is estimated that approximately 250 carloads will be sent out before the season is ended. The onion shipments are chiefly to California points while the celery is going to the east and middle west.

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Pack Logan Cartons—
Packing of loganberries in cartons for eastern shipments is being made by the Oregon Growers association at its plant here. About 2000 boxes, an accumulation of small orders, are being sent out at this time. Though the demand for dried loganberries is hoted for a bunch of fellers that calls themselves Kiwanis, and Ott Paulus' brother Bob is goin' to show them his pickers. Leonard Chadwick is goin' to play his fiddle and T. S. Roberts is goin' to pound the piano. Then Dockter Clement is goin' to give a prize to some feller for best there. Dock says he's goin' to give an ana-is-thetic an then take that feller apart to see how he gets that way."

Alberich Richard Wetjen—
Has a colorful story of the South Seas in this month's Oregon Magazine. —s28

Republican Booth at Fair—
The only political party having a booth at the state fair was the republican. It was in charge of Mrs. Southwick. An effort was made to close it up, but Mrs. Southwick was game and it remained open. "I know I gave out more than a peck of buttons," declared Mrs. Southwick. She was assisted by several republican women.

Use Our Distributive—
Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers and opticians. —s28

A Most Delightful Story—
"Then Came Fair Week," appears in the current number of the Oregon Magazine. —s28

Affiliate Sunday Postponed—
Notice of the postponement of Affiliate Sunday until October 5 was made yesterday by the First Methodist church in order that all churches might cooperate in the plan. On that Sunday students of Willamette university who place their membership in local churches during their temporary residence in Salem are the guests at Sunday dinner of various members of the churches.

All of Last Week—
Young people read about the opening of school at the Capital Business College tomorrow, but the all-important matter is to act on the suggestion made. Only those who enroll and follow this with hard, conscientious study will profit. No matter the line of work followed, a business education is worth more than it cost to any one. We're looking for you tomorrow. —s28

Attention!—
When you have Talbot's cry your sale you pay for no unnecessary advertisement. Very reasonable terms. —s28*

Shipments Under Way—
Nearly 75 carloads of onions and about 50 carloads of celery have been shipped from the Lake Labish district so far this year and the shipments are now in full swing. The shipments will continue until about the middle of November and it is estimated that approximately 250 carloads will be sent out before the season is ended. The onion shipments are chiefly to California points while the celery is going to the east and middle west.

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Pack Logan Cartons—
Packing of loganberries in cartons for eastern shipments is being made by the Oregon Growers association at its plant here. About 2000 boxes, an accumulation of small orders, are being sent out at this time. Though the demand for dried loganberries is hoted for a bunch of fellers that calls themselves Kiwanis, and Ott Paulus' brother Bob is goin' to show them his pickers. Leonard Chadwick is goin' to play his fiddle and T. S. Roberts is goin' to pound the piano. Then Dockter Clement is goin' to give a prize to some feller for best there. Dock says he's goin' to give an ana-is-thetic an then take that feller apart to see how he gets that way."

Alberich Richard Wetjen—
Has a colorful story of the South Seas in this month's Oregon Magazine. —s28

Republican Booth at Fair—
The only political party having a booth at the state fair was the republican. It was in charge of Mrs. Southwick. An effort was made to close it up, but Mrs. Southwick was game and it remained open. "I know I gave out more than a peck of buttons," declared Mrs. Southwick. She was assisted by several republican women.

Use Our Distributive—
Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers and opticians. —s28

A Most Delightful Story—
"Then Came Fair Week," appears in the current number of the Oregon Magazine. —s28

Affiliate Sunday Postponed—
Notice of the postponement of Affiliate Sunday until October 5 was made yesterday by the First Methodist church in order that all churches might cooperate in the plan. On that Sunday students of Willamette university who place their membership in local churches during their temporary residence in Salem are the guests at Sunday dinner of various members of the churches.

All of Last Week—
Young people read about the opening of school at the Capital Business College tomorrow, but the all-important matter is to act on the suggestion made. Only those who enroll and follow this with hard, conscientious study will profit. No matter the line of work followed, a business education is worth more than it cost to any one. We're looking for you tomorrow. —s28

Attention!—
When you have Talbot's cry your sale you pay for no unnecessary advertisement. Very reasonable terms. —s28*

Shipments Under Way—
Nearly 75 carloads of onions and about 50 carloads of celery have been shipped from the Lake Labish district so far this year and the shipments are now in full swing. The shipments will continue until about the middle of November and it is estimated that approximately 250 carloads will be sent out before the season is ended. The onion shipments are chiefly to California points while the celery is going to the east and middle west.

Sweaters and Extra Trousers—
For school. See our large showing of better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Pack Logan Cartons—
Packing of loganberries in cartons for eastern shipments is being made by the Oregon Growers association at its plant here. About 2000 boxes, an accumulation of small orders, are being sent out at this time. Though the demand for dried loganberries is hoted for a bunch of fellers that calls themselves Kiwanis, and Ott Paulus' brother Bob is goin' to show them his pickers. Leonard Chadwick is goin' to play his fiddle and T. S. Roberts is goin' to pound the piano. Then Dockter Clement is goin' to give a prize to some feller for best there. Dock says he's goin' to give an ana-is-thetic an then take that feller apart to see how he gets that way."

Alberich Richard Wetjen—
Has a colorful story of the South Seas in this month's Oregon Magazine. —s28

Republican Booth at Fair—
The only political party having a booth at the state fair was the republican. It was in charge of Mrs. Southwick. An effort was made to close it up, but Mrs. Southwick was game and it remained open. "I know I gave out more than a peck of buttons," declared Mrs. Southwick. She was assisted by several republican women.

Use Our Distributive—
Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers and opticians. —s28

A Most Delightful Story—
"Then Came Fair Week," appears in the current number of the Oregon Magazine. —s28

Affiliate Sunday Postponed—
Notice of the postponement of Affiliate Sunday until October 5 was made yesterday by the First Methodist church in order that all churches might cooperate in the plan. On that Sunday students of Willamette university who place their membership in local churches during their temporary residence in Salem are the guests at Sunday dinner of various members of the churches.

All of Last Week—
Young people read about the opening of school at the Capital Business College tomorrow, but the all-important matter is to act on the suggestion made. Only those who enroll and follow this with hard, conscientious study will profit. No matter the line of work followed, a business education is worth more than it cost to any one. We're looking for you tomorrow. —s28

Attention!—
When you have Talbot's cry your sale you pay for no unnecessary advertisement. Very reasonable terms. —s28*

Shipments Under Way—
Nearly 75 carloads of onions and about 50 carloads of celery have been shipped from the Lake Labish district so far this year and the shipments are now in full swing. The shipments will continue until about the middle of November and it is estimated that approximately 250 carloads will be sent out before the season is ended. The onion shipments are chiefly to California points while the celery is going to the east and middle west.

Dr. Mendelsohn
Eyesight Specialist

210 United States Bank Bldg.
In purchasing glasses measure your economy by the service received. The material in glasses is worth only so much per ounce. Expert skill and knowledge employed are what make value. The best of lenses are practically useless unless your ailment has been diagnosed and glasses prescribed according to your need. I fit glasses correctly. My prices are very reasonable for the services and materials received. One-third of a century of practical experience is at your service. I guarantee satisfaction in every respect. I do not belong to any combine which can dictate prices to me.

Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn not heavy, there is a constant run on small orders which is expected to clean up the old crop. The 1924 crop was comparatively light.

Wanted—$2500 Loan—
On property worth $6000. 7 per cent. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bank Bldg. —s25

Eight Cars of Prunes Left—
About eight carloads of the 1923 crop of hold over prunes are being carried by the Oregon Growers association. These are chiefly 30s and 35s. At it is generally conceded that most of the 1924 crop of 30s has been disposed of it is expected that the fruit now being held will command top prices for the 1923 crop.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Drunk Pays Fine—
M. Morris, arrested at the fair grounds for being drunk Friday night, was fined $10 in the police court Saturday morning. He spent the night in the city jail.

City Speeders Fined—
Fifty dollars in fines for speeding were levied in the police court Friday upon victims of Officer Wiles. Those making contributions were W. Ellis, 458 Mill, $5;

Young Men—
Dress up for school at the Man's Shop. Better styles. Better values. —s28

Liquor Case Dismissed—
Charges of possession of intoxicating liquor were dismissed in the police court yesterday when William Lashappell and R. L.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Drunk Pays Fine—
M. Morris, arrested at the fair grounds for being drunk Friday night, was fined $10 in the police court Saturday morning. He spent the night in the city jail.

City Speeders Fined—
Fifty dollars in fines for speeding were levied in the police court Friday upon victims of Officer Wiles. Those making contributions were W. Ellis, 458 Mill, $5;

Young Men—
Dress up for school at the Man's Shop. Better styles. Better values. —s28

Liquor Case Dismissed—
Charges of possession of intoxicating liquor were dismissed in the police court yesterday when William Lashappell and R. L.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Drunk Pays Fine—
M. Morris, arrested at the fair grounds for being drunk Friday night, was fined $10 in the police court Saturday morning. He spent the night in the city jail.

City Speeders Fined—
Fifty dollars in fines for speeding were levied in the police court Friday upon victims of Officer Wiles. Those making contributions were W. Ellis, 458 Mill, $5;

Young Men—
Dress up for school at the Man's Shop. Better styles. Better values. —s28

Liquor Case Dismissed—
Charges of possession of intoxicating liquor were dismissed in the police court yesterday when William Lashappell and R. L.

The Store for Young Men—
See our large showing of the newest in suits and o'coats. Better styles at better values. The Man's Shop. —s28

Drunk Pays Fine—
M. Morris, arrested at the fair grounds for being drunk Friday night, was fined $10 in the police court Saturday morning. He spent the night in the city jail.

City Speeders Fined—
Fifty dollars in fines for speeding were levied in the police court Friday upon victims of Officer Wiles. Those making contributions were W. Ellis, 458 Mill, $5;

Young Men—
Dress up for school at the Man