YOUNG QUINLAND SEEN ON MONDAY

Boy First Thought Drowned Jailed With Convict At Oakridge

That Eldon Quinland, 14, son of John Quinland, chief engineer of the state prison, is alive has been definitely proven by word received by Warden A. M. Dalrymple from Oakridge, Ore., in Lane county, where Quinland and B. L. (Peewee) Sherman, escaped convict, had been held overnight in jail. Young Quinland was positively identified.

Both Quinland and Sherman disappeared from Salem on the same day, about three weeks ago. Sherman was a trusty and engaged in hauling slop to the hog pen. He tied up his horse and vanished. Young Quinland's bicycle and clothes were found on the bank of the Willamette river near West Salem and for several days it was believed that he had been drowned. Later events gave rise to considerable doubt and the search for his body in the river was discontinued.

Young Quinland and Sherman, traveling together, were taken into custody at Oakridge and placed in a flimsy jail. During a fire Monday night and the subsequent excitement, the pair managed to make their escape. Sherman was picked up in Green River, Wyo., according to word received here yesterday, but no mention was made regarding the missing boy. A guard was sent to bring Sherman back.

JEW TO OBSERVE THEIR NEW YEAR

At 6 Tonight Will Begin The Year 5685 For The Jews Of The World

Formal observance of the Jewish New Year will be made in Salem tomorrow, though the day, or Rosh Hashanah, as it is on the Jewish calendar, officially begins at 6 o'clock tonight. As is customary, most of the Jewish stores in Salem will be closed tomorrow. Then the day of atonement begins on Tuesday at 6 p. m., and continues for ten days.

Fasting will begin at 6 o'clock the afternoon of tomorrow and will not be broken till 6 o'clock

Tuesday evening. During this period no member of the faith will eat, drink or smoke.

A number of Salem stores will be closed tomorrow, and some of them again later in the month. Several proprietors will observe the day in Sale or Portland, but owing to the nature of their business will not have their stores closed.

Simon Director and family, and several other Jewish families of Salem, will go to Portland to observe the anniversary.

Their years were made up or lunar months, and were eleven days shorter than ours. They added a thirteenth month every three years.

Nature is funny. A cold stops up the head, but it never affects the tongue that way.
