

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

New School Is Popular— Requests for parents to permit students to send youngsters to the new J. L. Parrish junior high school...

Look! Dance!— Grand opening dance at Turner Saturday, October 4. Jasper's Versatile band playing.

School Work Begins— With the rush attendant upon the opening of schools nearly at an end, class room work is the order of the day today.

School Blotters Free— John J. Rottle.

Substation Completed— An outdoor sub-station at 21st and Ferry streets has been completed at a cost of $4,000.

Portable Study Lamps— Just the lamp for students. Specially priced at Hale's Electric Shop, 327 Court.

Classes to Organize— The vocational classes in sewing and millinery which were conducted so successfully last year by Mrs. F. E. Barker, will start on...

tomorrow. All those interested are asked to meet in the sewing room in the McCornack building...

Sunday Schools to Meet— In order to give impetus to Sunday school work in and around Salem, plans have been formulated for holding a series of weekly meetings in the Salem city library.

Rotary Meets Today— The program for the Rotary club luncheon today noon will be in charge of the educational committee, with Rev. John J. Evans, vice president of the club, as chairman.

Bertha Junk Darby— Teacher of piano, 679 North Cottage St. Phone 1950-W. Register now.

Births Are Reported— A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Landers, of Route 9, at the Deaconess hospital on September 24, according to a birth report filed with Dr. William B. Mott, city health officer.

Expert Packing— The H. L. Stiff Furniture company have secured the services of an expert furniture packer.

Legion Meets Monday— A rousing meeting of Capital Post No. 9, American legion, is being arranged for McCornack hall Monday night by Carl Gabrielson, commander.

Miss Beatrice Shelton Teacher of Piano High school credits granted. Studio, 345 Marion. Phone 1299; Derby building, 265.

Typewriters ALL MAKES $5 Down $5 Monthly G. W. Lockwood 247 N. Com. St. Phone 866

RADIO HEADQUARTERS For RADIO SUPPLIES Open Evenings 291 NORTH COMMERCIAL

Popular Priced Tailored Suits $25 to $45 Men's and Young Men's D. H. MOSHER TAILOR

Cars for Hire WITHOUT DRIVERS Our autos are all kept in prime condition, therefore are absolutely safe to drive.

Terminal Taxi Service We hire them either with or without drivers. Office at Stage Terminal PHONE 9020 DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY Unequalled Service

land, who were killed late Saturday afternoon when the machine in which they were riding and piloted by Rushlight, crashed.

Funds Turned Over— G. G. Brown, clerk of the state board, has turned over to the state treasurer for the month of September a total of $108,043.36.

Vacant Bungalow— Has garage and basement, paved. For sale on reasonable terms. See at 1167 N. 16th. Price $3600.

Army Seeks Help— The local Salvation army is hunting for an inside job as janitor or other similar work for an elderly but still capable man.

Chaustain's Father Dies— A telegram was received in Salem yesterday from Ermund Chaustain, announcing that his father died in Kansas City yesterday morning of pneumonia.

William Nelson Wanted— William Nelson, who is wanted in Portland on a charge of assault and robbery being armed with a dangerous weapon, is under arrest somewhere in California and will be returned to Portland for trial if a requisition issued by Governor Pierce yesterday is honored by the governor of California.

Adam's Floral Shop— Is now open and ready for business at 453 Court.

New Publication Out— The Oregon Sportsman is the name of a new publication that is issued monthly by the state game commission, printed at Eugene.

Case is Continued— No action was taken against Ralph Harper Tuesday when he appeared in the justice court charged with operating a motor vehicle without a permit from the public service commission.

Would Revoke License— Recommendations that the pilot's license held by Richard Rushlight be revoked and the license under which the airplane is operated, will be made by T. A. Raffety, chief state traffic officer of the state board of aeronautics and the state department.

Next Dance— Salem's New Auditorium. Wednesday and Saturday. Music by Jazz Kings.

Professor Murphy Back— Cosgrove Murphy, of the Merton Institute, New York city, arrived in Salem yesterday with Mrs. Murphy and is stopping at the Marion hotel.

Going to California— Mr. and Mrs. William Sorrell are leaving this morning on a pleasant but unexpected trip to California.

Stucco Bungalows— Small—We have two with hardwood, furnaces, fireplaces, garages, cement walks and paving. $4100 and $4800. Terms. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. 391ft Schools Are Visited— William W. Fox, rural school supervisor for Marion county, has been visiting a number of schools. This week he has inspected the Sidney, Fairview, Illhee and Looney schools.

Goes to Portland— Mrs. Mary Finkerson, county superintendent of schools, went to Portland yesterday on business.

Lawsuit Started— A rather complicated lawsuit was begun yesterday when a complaint was filed in county court by Anna Kramer and Katherine Leitheiser against John Daniels et al.

Leitheiser against John Daniels et al. According to the statements set forth in the paper Katherine Shaker Daniels, now deceased, gave her husband, John Daniels, the sum of $500, with which to begin payment on some Marion county property about 20 years ago.

Leitheiser against John Daniels et al. According to the statements set forth in the paper Katherine Shaker Daniels, now deceased, gave her husband, John Daniels, the sum of $500, with which to begin payment on some Marion county property about 20 years ago.

Notice— The county clerk's office will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week for the registration of voters.

Binegar Funeral Thursday— Funeral services for Benjamin C. Binegar, 72, will be held from the Rigdon mortuary Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Claim Girl's Body— Dr. Ronald E. Hicks and a Miss Alta Poole of Portland were in Salem yesterday making arrangements to forward the body of Miss Claire Crewe to her former home in New York city.

Dance to Jasper's Orchestra— At Auburn. Thursday night.

Liquor Owner is Jolted— One of the stiffest fines levied by Marten Poulsen, police judge, was given Roy Miller Tuesday afternoon on a charge of transportation of liquor.

Liquor Owner Guilty— Following an all-day trial in justice court Tuesday, Jake Van Arnam, charged with the possession of two pints of intoxicating liquor, was found guilty by a jury late in the afternoon.

High School Seniors— See the new 20-inch bottom, English style senior corduroy pants at Bishop's.

Indians Play Columbia— In Portland next Saturday the Salem Indian school football team will meet the Columbia university eleven on Multnomah field.

Duck Season Opens— Duck season opens early this morning and hunters were busy yesterday in getting their clothing and equipment in readiness for the first shot at the fowl.

Marcel and Curt Last Longer— After a Golden Gilt Shampoo.

Births Are Reported— Congratulations upon the arrival of Anna Yvonne, Sept. 28, are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moffitt of 1096 North Seventeenth.

Power Plant is Busy— In order to make up the deficit of the power plant at Oregon City and the Clackamas river hydro electric plant, the Salem plant of the Portland Electric Power company has been working 24 hours a day for the last two weeks.

Three Licenses Issued— Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to E. F. Rowe and Alzina Butler of Salem.

Ball is Forfeited— Rather than appear in the police court yesterday and explain to the judge why it was necessary for him to drive his automobile around an intersection on two wheels, Carroll Ziser forfeited his $10 ball deposited for reckless driving.

More Petty Larceny— When two men who had been attending a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night started for home one of them missed a hat and the other a flashlight, according to a report made to the police.

Visiting Mrs. Shanks— Mrs. Minnie A. Tollinger, of Red Oak, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Myra Shanks, police minister. This is Mrs. Tollinger's first visit to the coast.

First of October— But the real rainy season's beginning may be more than a month ahead of us yet.

The unemployment problem is not as big as was feared, at the Salem YMCA free employment bureau.

Loganberries, the Slogan subject for tomorrow. If you have something on the industry, it is your duty to help, whether you have been asked or not.

State street barber says some birds think they have to roll the 'bus at the rate of seventy miles an hour to keep up with their reputations.

The gorilla is becoming extinct. Maybe it has only gone farther back into the jungles to dodge the gland doctors.

hydro electric plant, the Salem plant of the Portland Electric Power company has been working 24 hours a day for the last two weeks, according to W. M. Hamilton, manager.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to E. F. Rowe and Alzina Butler of Salem, Percy Edward Sparhawk and Edna Selma Griepetog of Salem, and to Sam Jurgensen of Mill City and Johanna M. Sorensen of Salem.

Carroll Ziser forfeited his $10 ball deposited for reckless driving. A Borwutcher was fined $5 for speeding, in the police court yesterday.

When two men who had been attending a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night started for home one of them missed a hat and the other a flashlight, according to a report made to the police.

Mrs. Minnie A. Tollinger, of Red Oak, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Myra Shanks, police minister. This is Mrs. Tollinger's first visit to the coast.

One of the stiffest fines levied by Marten Poulsen, police judge, was given Roy Miller Tuesday afternoon on a charge of transportation of liquor, when he was sentenced to pay $500.

Following an all-day trial in justice court Tuesday, Jake Van Arnam, charged with the possession of two pints of intoxicating liquor, was found guilty by a jury late in the afternoon.

See the new 20-inch bottom, English style senior corduroy pants at Bishop's. Get yours while they have a full stock.

In Portland next Saturday the Salem Indian school football team will meet the Columbia university eleven on Multnomah field.

Duck season opens early this morning and hunters were busy yesterday in getting their clothing and equipment in readiness for the first shot at the fowl.

After a Golden Gilt Shampoo.

Congratulations upon the arrival of Anna Yvonne, Sept. 28, are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moffitt of 1096 North Seventeenth.

In order to make up the deficit of the power plant at Oregon City and the Clackamas river hydro electric plant, the Salem plant of the Portland Electric Power company has been working 24 hours a day for the last two weeks.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to E. F. Rowe and Alzina Butler of Salem, Percy Edward Sparhawk and Edna Selma Griepetog of Salem, and to Sam Jurgensen of Mill City and Johanna M. Sorensen of Salem.

Rather than appear in the police court yesterday and explain to the judge why it was necessary for him to drive his automobile around an intersection on two wheels, Carroll Ziser forfeited his $10 ball deposited for reckless driving.

When two men who had been attending a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night started for home one of them missed a hat and the other a flashlight, according to a report made to the police.

Mrs. Minnie A. Tollinger, of Red Oak, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Myra Shanks, police minister. This is Mrs. Tollinger's first visit to the coast.

But the real rainy season's beginning may be more than a month ahead of us yet.

The unemployment problem is not as big as was feared, at the Salem YMCA free employment bureau.

Loganberries, the Slogan subject for tomorrow. If you have something on the industry, it is your duty to help, whether you have been asked or not.

State street barber says some birds think they have to roll the 'bus at the rate of seventy miles an hour to keep up with their reputations.

Goodrich Hot Water Bottles Values Up to $2.25 98c Schaefer's Drug Store The Penslar Store 135 North Commercial Phone 197

For Railroad information 41 or 80 SOUTHERN PACIFIC CITY OFFICE, 104 N. COMMERCIAL ST. STATION, 101 N. COMMERCIAL ST.

Salem after a month's visit with her parents in Grants Pass. Mr. Collins is assistant manager of the Standard Oil company in Salem.

Archie Thomas, Silverton chief of police, was in the city Tuesday afternoon to attend a prohibition violation trial at the justice court.

Paul Wallace has returned from a trip to San Francisco where he visited his wife for 10 days. Mrs. Wallace, who is in a southern hospital, is reported to be greatly improved.

Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Sims of Scotts Mills were in the city yesterday. Rev. Mr. Sims is pastor of the Friends church.

John Lindsay, an wife, on a motor trip through the west, stopped in Salem this week for a short visit with A. C. (Biddy) Bishop. The two men played on the same baseball teams in Lewiston, Mont.

Doctors say that in an enormous number of cases when men come home physically and mentally "all in," nervous and cranky, the real cause is not hard work, but thin, pale, watery blood, deficient in strength-giving iron.

Down in Maine they have a horse that weighs 2000 pounds in his stocking feet, but a Salem

GOODRICH RUBBERS -- RUBBERS -- LEATHER BOOTS -- RUBBERS WHO SAID IT AIN'T GOIN A RAIN NO MORE --- NO MORE? Well It Sure Is! Don't you hear it! Don't you see it! Don't you feel it! Winter Has Come to Stay With Us Again LISTEN FOLKS You can always do better here to protect your feet with good sturdy footwear that are exactly right in fit, purpose and comfort plus real economical price!

WOODRY Buys Furniture Phone 511

Dr. B. H. White Osteopathy - Surgery Electrostatic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method). Office Phone 859 or 469-J 566 U. S. Bank Bldg.

We're All Moved and now that we are located in our new quarters at 143 S. LIBERTY ST. we are in a position to give you still better service on your transfer and hauling work.

Cars for Hire WITHOUT DRIVERS Our autos are all kept in prime condition, therefore are absolutely safe to drive.

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Miss Beatrice Shelton Teacher of Piano High school credits granted. Studio, 345 Marion. Phone 1299; Derby building, 265.

Typewriters ALL MAKES $5 Down $5 Monthly G. W. Lockwood 247 N. Com. St. Phone 866

RADIO HEADQUARTERS For RADIO SUPPLIES Open Evenings 291 NORTH COMMERCIAL

Popular Priced Tailored Suits $25 to $45 Men's and Young Men's D. H. MOSHER TAILOR

DIED

PEARCE—William H. Pearce died at a local hospital Sept. 30, 1924, at the age of 57 years. Survived by a daughter, Mrs. Edith Tyler, of Goble, Ore.; two brothers, Ed Pearce and Lewis Pearce of Kenniwick, Wash. and a sister, Mrs. Nora E. Bussey of Salem. Deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World and Knights of Pythias lodges. Funeral services will be held today, Wednesday, at 3 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

DAVIS—In this city, Saturday, Sept. 27, Mrs. Anna Davis, age 31 years, wife of Lee F. Davis, mother of Ward Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stark of Salem, sister of Mrs. Henry Crawford of Bismarck, N. D., Mrs. Lloyd Hauser and Walter Stark of this city. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment in the City View cemetery.

CREWE—The remains of the late Claire Crewe, 24, who died here Sept. 28, 1924, will be forwarded from the Rigdon mortuary Wednesday to New York city for funeral services and interment.

BINEGAR—At the home, seven miles east, Silverton road, Benjamin C. Binegar, age 72 years, survived by wife and eight children, Mrs. Nellie Werner, Mrs. Ethel Lovre, Mrs. Hattie Ramsden, Mrs. Fannie Gesner, Arthur, Otis, Raymond and Walter Binegar; also by one brother and one sister in the east. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment in City View cemetery.

GOES TO PORTLAND—Mrs. Mary Finkerson, county superintendent of schools, went to Portland yesterday on business.

Lawsuit Started—A rather complicated lawsuit was begun yesterday when a complaint was filed in county court by Anna Kramer and Katherine Leitheiser against John Daniels et al.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES Commercial Book Store Everything for the Student.

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY Unequalled Service