New Cemetery Planned—With interrupted plans for a new cooperative canning project in Salem, an enterprise in which the late George F. Rodgers, president of the First National bank, was deeply interested, it has become known. Just how far the plans for the movement had progressed is not known, but those in close touch declare that not only was Mr. Rodgers deeply interested but that he was ready to support any feasible project that might be advanced. A meeting was to have been held Monday with several local men, but efforts will be made to rehabilitate the project even though the particulars which were to have been discussed were held chiefly by Mr.

Boy Scouts Reporting—Applications for membership in the Boy Scouts of America are being received by Dr. Henry E. Morris from a large number of Salem boys. Dr. Morris is anxious to hear from all boys who wish to join the organization by October 8, for this is the date of the next meeting of the Four-County Boy Scout council here. At the last meeting, held in July, there was considerable agitation in favor of postponing the council but this is fast being overcome and it is expected that the council will be continued. The matter of the election of a new scout executive to have charge of this work will be taken up Wednesday night and a plan, which is believed will prove satisfactory to all concerned has been worked out and will also be presented at this meeting.

For Sale—Clean, modern house, near school and college. Immediate possession. 1-6 acre ground. Phone 925. o2

New Essay Contest—Students in local high schools will be given an opportunity to participate in the national essay writing contest on proper lighting of the home. Realtors Discuss Zoning—Further discussion of the zoning problem is slated to occupy the attention of the Marion-Polk County Realty association at its regular meeting at the Marion hotel today noon. There will be no outside speaker at the luncheon.

Duck Hunting Good—Reports from those who were out the first day of duck hunting are to the effect that there is a fairly good supply of fowl this year. One party, hunting on a private lake reserve about 12 miles south of Salem, returned with plenty of evidence to back up their word.

H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Have a wonderful line of heaters on display. o2f

Former Resident Is Dead—Margaret L. Coffey, who died at St. Louis, Mo., September 29, was born in Salem and received her education here at the Sacred Heart academy. She was at one time employed at the county clerk's office. Her brother-in-law, the late William H. Egan, was county clerk at the time. She was the aunt of Albert and Homer Egan of Gervais, and a sister of John B. Coffey of Portland, and Mrs. Mary A. Porter, also of Portland. She has a great number of friends here who regret to hear the news of her death.

Births Are Reported—Two birth reports were received at the office of the city health officer Wednesday. These were of Edward Lewis, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Stiff, of 925 North Twentieth, at the Salem hospital on September 29. The father is a clerk in a furniture store. Ina Lorain is the name of a baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. George J. Witte, who live six miles east of Salem, on September 20. Mr. Witte is a carpenter.

Runaway Indians Returned—After spending the night in the city jail, Hawley Catfish and Otto Shoemaker were returned to the Salem Indian school at Chemawa yesterday. The boys, who were runaways from the institution, were picked up Tuesday night by Officer Putnam.

Wildcat Is Mascot—In the future when the Willamette university Bears stage any particular event such as a rally or athletic contest, a young wildcat will be exhibited as mascot. The wildcat was purchased from a tourist a few weeks ago by E. B. Flake, local pet animal dealer. The animal is not vicious, but its natural attitude prevents close acquaintance. Between its public appearances the wildcat will be boarded at Flake's Petland, north of Salem.

Alarm Clock—On sale at 99c this week only. Tyler's drug store, 157 S. Com'l. o4

Here From Oklahoma—L. L. Lee, a merchant of Pond creek, Okla., visited in Salem yesterday with W. A. Delsell, secretary of the state board of control. Mr. Lee was on his way to Pasco, Wash.

Caddies Have Aroma—While caddying at the Illihee Country club golf course a few days ago several of the boys discovered one of the pretty striped "kitties" that have as their natural protection an odor with which they indiscriminately spray the clothes of the boys, who were forced to walk back to Salem. Several motorists stopped to offer a lift to the weary plodding youths, but upon second thought, or smell, changed their minds. Knowing of the circumstances, G. P. Sharkey, professional at the club, took pity upon the lads and stopped to offer them a ride. He refused to allow them inside his machine and the lads were forced to stand on the running board. This permitted the wind to circulate freely through their clothes and their condition was greatly improved by the time the city limits were reached.

Portable Study Lamps—Just the lamp for students. Specially priced at Halek's Electric Shop, 337 Court. o3

Irish Preacher to Preach—It will be of interest to a host of people in Salem to know that the Rev. J. R. Clinton, a Wesleyan Methodist preacher of the Irish Conference, in this country on a lecturing tour will be at the Jason Lee Memorial M. E. church, corner North Winter and Jefferson streets on Thursday evening, 7:30. The original plan was that he should have spoken here on Tuesday evening but plans miscarried. Dr. Clinton is known throughout the British Isles as a speaker and singer of note, and has been in great demand. He will speak on Thursday night on his experiences as a preacher in the Irish public markets. He brings with him all the wit and humor of the Irishman and a delightful as well as profitable evening is assured to all. Mrs. Clinton is accompanying her husband and shares honors with him in the musical items they render. The meeting is open to the public and is free of charge but a silver offering will be taken to defray expenses.

The state of Idaho has asked W. F. Ellis, attorney for the Oregon commission, to conduct the case.

One Fined; One Freed—In the police court Wednesday, Ralph Mace, of 1363 Saginaw, was fined $5 for speeding. Charges of riding a bicycle after dark without a light were dismissed against Antonia Delfinado, of 575 Marion. The arrests were made by Officer Wiles.

Terzella Arrested—Guy Terzella was yesterday lodged in jail by county authorities, the charge against him being attempt to commit felony. He is held for $1000 bail.

Food Products company. The writ was filed in behalf of Henry D. Chambers and Florence M. Chambers, to whom it is alleged the company owes $1050. A summons was filed simultaneously against the company.

Divorce Is Asked—A complaint was filed in circuit court yesterday in which Nathan Foster sued Jennie A. Foster for divorce, on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in Alberta, Canada, in 1915.

Sues for Commission—A complaint was filed in circuit court yesterday in which Julia Parsons, a local real estate dealer, asked for a 5 per cent commission on some property sold in behalf of R. W. Helen. The property is said to have sold for $2150.

Home Universal—Ranges and stoves at Stiff's. o2f

Rotarians Pay Tribute—With bowed heads while "Near or My God, To Thee" was played softly, Rotarians paid final tribute to the late George F. Rodgers, president of the First National bank, at the Wednesday noon luncheon. Mr. Rodgers was a prominent and active member of the organization. W. M. Hamilton gave a complete report on the meeting of Rotary officials at Hoquiam, Wash. All sessions were well attended, he said. Included in the message and suggestions learned at the meeting was that Rotary was an organization of businesses and professions and not of individuals. Other matters of interest to the organization and members were discussed. Two new members were presented with the code of ethics by Rev. J. J. Evans, chairman of the educational committee. These were Dan Fry and H. L. Moore. For the first time in weeks the club was without any outside visitors or guests. A list is being compiled of those who will be able to attend the big inter-city meeting at Vancouver, Wash., Friday.

Another Crowd at Show—For the second night two large crowds attended the showing of the United States signal corps pictures at the Grand theater last night. Standing room was at a premium during the first show. The prologue, "Somewhere in France," featuring some clever dancing and singing by a male quartette, was well received and scored another hit. The show, "Over the Top," was brought to Salem under the auspices of American Chapter No. 8, Disabled American Veterans of the World war.

One Fined; One Freed—In the police court Wednesday, Ralph Mace, of 1363 Saginaw, was fined $5 for speeding. Charges of riding a bicycle after dark without a light were dismissed against Antonia Delfinado, of 575 Marion. The arrests were made by Officer Wiles.
