than any others. There is a program of French modern music given every week for the students, each time introducing a new French composer.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, will have the entire afternoon. She will speak on international relationships, drawing her concise and authoritative conclusions from her recent foreign trip.

The hostesses for the meeting on Saturday at 2 o'clock are Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Mrs. James Heltzel and Miss Eva Ferree.

The Seventh Day Adventist parsonage was the scene of a quiet wedding at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon when Miss Lorella Meusch became the bride of James Cecil Deacon.

Just intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Deacon are former students at the Salem high school.

On Tuesday evening they were honored with a reception and shower at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. G. H. Deacon at 1498 Mission street.

A continuation of the interesting news letter written by Franklin B. Launer, and reprinted yesterday morning in part from the Albany Democrat follows.

"I enjoy my study immensely and have plenty of time to practice, but I need plenty of time if I wish to prepare the long assignments they make for each lesson.

is a mezzo-soprano, with an unusual richness in the lower register, which enables her to give these Creole songs with the pathos and humor they require.

The Daily Province of Vancouver, B. C. describes her songs as "a set of entrancing cameos, sung with moving beauty and rare enunciation."

The Jess concert will be given at the First Christian church Tuesday, October 7.

The American Legion auxiliary will meet for the regular first meeting of the month this evening at 8 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Announcement of the first Arts League program of the season is made for Tuesday, October 14, at Waller hall when Miss Frances Doyeur, a gifted stock company player of Portland, will give a dramatic program of particular interest.

Tentative plans are also under way for the securing of Margaret Widdemer for the November program. Miss Widdemer, leaving Chicago yesterday, is making a lecture tour of the west and is now available for open dates. If Miss Widdemer comes to Salem it will doubtless be between the first and 20th of November, as she starts her northern itinerary from Texas.

For the October program Mrs. J. M. Clifford, art director, is the chairman in charge. Her committee includes Gertrude Robison Ross, Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Molly Brunk and Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

Fifty members of the league were present for the meeting last night with the new officers in charge, of whom Prof. M. E. Peck is president; Mrs. F. S. Barton vice president; Mrs. W. F. Fargo vice president; Mrs. J. W. Harbison secretary; Perry Reigelman treasurer, and Mrs. J. M. Clifford art director.

Mrs. J. J. Tallman has returned home from a four months' trip to the middle west where she was the guest of relatives. She returned via the Canadian Pacific.

TWO DEPARTMENTS DEMAND MORE MEN

Under present plans the 10 patrolman would be added to force January 1 and be used chiefly to patrol the residence section of the city. Even with the combined day and night force of 20 men giving the city one officer for each 1000 inhabitants, the figure is short the normal average for most cities the size of Salem.

The eight men asked by the fire department are needed to man the new ladder truck equipment authorized by the voters at the special election in the spring. Four of these would be on duty for each shift, Fire Chief Harry (Buck) Hutton said.

Just how the necessary money could be provided will probably take the time of the city council in the near future. Each councilman has been notified to make his selection of a freeholder to sit with the council on the special budget committee. The question of the proposed increases in personnel may come before the council at its next regular meeting Monday night.

WOMAN'S ROLE IS DECLARED CHANGED

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.)—Woman's role as a financier was acclaimed and her reputed role as a peacemaker questioned by Mrs. Mabel T. Reincke, Chicago, United States collector of internal revenue, in an address tonight before the National association of bank women, meeting here in connection with the American Bankers' association.

"Isn't it usually mother who starts the battle," asked Mrs. Reincke.

DAY-RELIGIOUS SCHOOL DEBATED

ference yesterday afternoon visited the penitentiary and the state hospital, and during the supper hour last night entertained with stunts and singing under the leadership of Mrs. Carrie B. Adams, of Portland, the well known composer. Some of Mrs. Adams' songs were sung. At a concert program also held last night numbers of special interest were two by Mrs. Adams and a solo by Rev. H. C. Stover, former pastor of Central Congregational church here.

Addresses, both of which were brief, were given last night by Dr. Swartz of the Pacific School of Religion, of Berkeley, Cal., and Jerome C. Holmes of Japan. Today the forenoon session will be held at the Central church. The noon meal, the afternoon session and the concluding session in the evening will all be held at the First Congregational church at Liberty and Center streets. Speakers tonight will be Dr. Francis J. Van Horn of Tacoma and Dr. R. W. Gammon of Chicago.

Damon's Weekly Limerick

Here's one by W. F., whose Phone Number is 1847R: Groceries needed? Phone 1-2-6-3. That's Damon, the Grocer, Commercial and D; Delivered on time? Well! "You bet your boots," When the Delivery boy gets the order he takes it and scoots!

If W. F. will call at our store he will receive absolutely free a three-pound can of Crescent Coffee. Every grocer in America will tell you he has good coffee. Every grocer in Salem will tell you this, but no merchant will look you in the face and say his coffee is better than Crescent. He may muster up courage and say: "His coffee is 'just as good,'" but he stops right there. The next time you order coffee just try a can of Crescent or better still send in a verse and see if you can't win a can free like W. F. did.
