

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Adventist Lecture—A lecture of special interest will be given at the Seventh Day Adventist church Saturday at 11:30 a. m. It is only 50 years since the denomination sent out its first missionary. They believe that when the message of the "Second Coming of Christ," and the call to "Prepare to Meet Thy God" has gone to all the world, the "Gospel Age" will close. The subject for Saturday will be, "Is the Task Almost Accomplished? What God Is Doing to Cut the Work Short in Righteousness." A special invitation to all who have ever taken an interest in the message. All are invited.

Opening Dance at—Schindler hall Sat. night. 04*

A New Sign—The board of education is contemplating erecting an illuminating sign on the east side of the Parrish junior high school. This is so that passengers on the Southern Pacific can not only see the building but can know the name of it. In the day time, of course, the passengers can see everything, but at night it is necessary to have the sign illuminated. The plan is to have the sign go off about 10 o'clock at night. This would be a much-needed improvement and a very good advertisement for Salem.

Notice—The county clerk's office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week for the registration of voters. Registration closes on Saturday, October 4, 1924, at five o'clock p. m. U. G. Boyer, county clerk. 04

Dividends Taxed—Although banks are exempt from the state income tax law, there is nothing in the act, nor is there any rule of law to exempt from the act dividends paid by the bank to its shareholders. This is the substance of an opinion written by Attorney General Van Winkle in reply to an inquiry by the state income tax department.

Cannot Withdraw—Attorney General Van Winkle has written an opinion in reply to an inquiry by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, holding that after a county has adopted the county unit system of school administration it cannot withdraw from it under any provision of law now existing. The legislature might provide an amendment whereby that power would be conferred.

Each of the clubs will offer a stunt of some kind. Several of the Rotarians yesterday notified Al Pierce that they were taking their automobiles and would have passengers. Those leaving this week were Dr. E. E. Fisher, (2); W. M. Hamilton, (2); J. W. Chambers, (4); Leon Gleason, (2), and P. M. Gregory, (2). R. O. Snelling and Al Pierce are also making the trip.

Portable Study Lamps—Just the lamp for students. Specially priced at Halek's Electric Shop, 337 Court. 03

Book Agents Barred—Teachers' time is too valuable to be taken up by calls from book agents who visit the schools during working hours and consequently a notice has been posted in the office of the city school superintendent calling attention to the fact that agents must confine their soliciting to certain hours. Teachers in the grades may be interviewed before 8:30 o'clock in the morning and after 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and those in the high and junior high schools prior to the same time in the morning and after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Due to the fact that one-third of the books will be changed this fall there is a large delegation of book agents visiting the schools.

School Blotters Free—John J. Rottle. 03

Will Contest Sentence—"It's pretty awful" was the comment of Everett Hansard Thursday afternoon when he heard Police Judge Marten Poulson fine him $100 for possession of intoxicating liquor and breaking glass on the street. After telling Jack Kearns that he was being given the benefit of the doubt, but that it was believed he was equally guilty with the others, and that only evidence was lacking, Judge Poulson dismissed a similar case against Kearns, E. Hansard and Kearns were arrested along with Roy Miller and Zeno Hansard late Saturday night. Miller received a $500 fine and Zeno Hansard a fine of $250 levied for possession and transportation of liquor. Hansard paid his fine but his brother, Everett Hansard, and Miller are still in the city jail. Both are seeking the advice of a lawyer and from present intentions will appeal their cases.

Son Is Born—Announcement was made last night of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan of Silverton. The mother and child are staying at the Salem hospital.

Announcing the Meeting—Of the American Veterans, 8 p. m. tonight at the armory. 03

Property Attached—The property of Roy Graves has been attached, according to papers filed in circuit court yesterday. It is alleged that he owes the sum of $3297.50 to J. O. Graves and Hilda Graves.

Hearings Come Today—No court was held yesterday, on account of Judge Kelly going to Albany to preside over naturalization hearings there. He will return to Salem and preside over court here today, when 14 cases are scheduled to come up for naturalization. He is taking Judge Bingham's place during the latter's illness.

Held to Grand Jury—What started out to be a joy ride was terminated at Woodburn and as a result of later developments, two men are being held in the county jail in lieu of $1500 bail each on a charge of assault to commit rape. They will appear before the next grand jury. The men, Ed Jackson and Fred E. Norton, both of Portland, with two young women from the same city, were arrested in a Woodburn hotel by Frank Covey, city marshal. With the party was some liquor, to which the men plead guilty of ownership. They will be sentenced on this charge today. According to the story told in the justice court yesterday the party was bound for Salem, but turned off at Woodburn, where rooms were engaged.

No Trace of Countess—Efforts to learn more regarding an accident in which Countess Constance Graham and her husband, Sir Cyril Edgerton Graham, of London and Paris, who are reported to have been injured in an automobile accident about 15 miles north of Salem, were unavailing yesterday. According to an account in the Portland papers, the party of five escaped injury, with the exception of the countess, who was brought to Salem for medical attention. It was also stated that the party returned to San Francisco instead of proceeding to Portland. The Columbia River highway and thence to Seattle. Their automobile was taken to Portland for repairs, it was said. None of the local hospitals had any record of the distinguished patient and no physician could be found that had given medical attention. Neither could the Southern Pacific furnish information that any one or all of the party had purchased tickets. It is believed that the accident may have occurred near Oregon City and not Salem.

Marcel and Carl Last Longer—After a Golden Gilt Shampee. 030

Walnut Deliveries Due—Walnut deliveries are expected to start about the middle of next week, all deliveries and grading for the Salem walnut local to be handled at the Salem Fruit Union plant with William Ray in charge. The sales end for the 1924 crop will be handled through the Dundee association, which will act as a general sales agency for all walnut locals in the valley with each of the locals grading its own product. According to reports received, the exchange has sold all of the nuts and has orders for more than those in prospect. This year the Salem association will use the special grading machine which was owned by the Oregon Growers association. None of the nuts are to be bleached.

Davis Gives Address in Madison Square Garden—NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—John W. Davis, democratic presidential nominee, speaking in historic Madison Square Garden, where he was nominated last summer, tonight was given a rousing demonstration when he promised to take off "his coat, vest, tie and whatever else was serviceable to help elect 'Al' Smith, governor of New York state." Mr. Davis made the statement after thanking Governor Smith for the promise the latter made at the national convention that he would take off his coat and vest and work for the election of the nominee.

DIED—PAGE—Mrs. Opil Page died at her home three miles east of Salem October 2, 1924, at the age of 22 years. She is survived by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Mayfield; widower E. B. Page; one sister, Miss Minnie M. Mayfield, and three brothers, Johnnie O. Calvin H. and Aubra Mayfield, all of Salem. Funeral announcements later. Webb funeral parlors in charge of arrangements.

FEELING TENSE AT WASHINGTON

Excitement at Capital City Runs Almost to the Bursting Point

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The thermometer of excitement in Washington bubbled only a few degrees below the bursting point tonight. The unexpected charges of attempted bribery by two members of the New York Giants added more kindling to an already excited city, and the national capital was prepared for almost anything after passing through a day in which rumor ran free.

However, despite the hubbub, arrangements were carried forward for the opening here Saturday of the world series between the Senators and the Giants. Excitement in the city could not have been more intense. To the news of the expulsion from the National league of the two men was coupled a statement from President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Pirates that they were only the go-betweens in the scandal, and another statement from President Ban Johnson of the American league that it might be advisable to call off the series.

Storm Stadium—With this taking place thousands of Washingtonians stormed in front of the gates at Griffith stadium clamoring for seats and the internal revenue bureau got busy to suppress an epidemic of ticket scalpers that was alleged to have broken out in the downtown section of the city. In all the city apparently only two men retained their composure—Clark Griffith, president, and "Bucky" Harris, manager of the Senators. At the ball park this afternoon, the pair was as calm as if pennants were won every day. Both expressed regret that any bribery again had developed among players in major league baseball and declared that Judge Landis should be complimented for the fearless manner in which he tackled the matter. Come From Far and Near Throughout the day, baseball fans from all parts of the country began to pour into the city. With Judge Landis and President Heydler already here, other officials of the game were beginning to feel the pressure of the incoming crowd.

The Giants arrived tonight and added all that was needed to make Washington the center of the baseball world. They were hurried to the Wardman Park hotel, which will be the team's headquarters.

The Washington ball club took a snappy workout in the afternoon. Manager Harris, with much difficulty, cleared several dozen cameramen from the field and the Senators practiced for nearly two hours. The Washington pilot announced that he had ordered his team in uniform for a morning workout tomorrow so that the field could be turned over to the Giants in the afternoon.

Harris pronounced his team to be in first class condition for the series. He said the players were confident of victory, but realized that it would be the toughest fight they ever were up against.

Apples are in Demand on the English Market

Maynard & Child have chartered the refrigerated vessel, SS DEERFIELD saving 10c a box on steamship rate.

Maynard & Child, well-known export firm of New York City, have secured all the refrigerated space on the S. S. Deerfield. This modern vessel will load at Portland about November 1st for English and European ports. This space is offered at the rate of eighty cents, which means a saving of around 10 cents a box over quotations from other lines. This saving will be passed on to the apple growers of Oregon and Washington who consign Maynard & Child to sell their product in the markets of England and the Continent.

Maynard & Child have been established in Boston and New York since 1890 and are thoroughly conservative and dependable. They have the very finest connections both at home and abroad.

Maynard & Child sell only on grower's account --- substantial advances made on quality fruit.

Maynard & Child DO NOT SPECULATE! The fruit is sold on grower's account through reliable channels. Substantial advances will be made on good quality fruit.

All fruit must be wrapped and packed under standard grading rules as provided by the states of Oregon and Washington. Advances made only on fruit that has been inspected and approved by the Clark Baker Company, Willamette Valley representatives of Maynard & Child. Conditions on the export market are such that very satisfactory prices will be obtained by growers.

Capacity limited --- Mail coupon NOW.

The S. S. Deerfield has a capacity of 150,000 boxes. With this unusual offer, all available space will soon be disposed of. Remember that the cost of transportation is deducted from the sale of the fruit so this offer actually means that much additional money for the fruit when sold. Mail the coupon at once to Clark Baker Company, or telephone. The number is East 3535.

Clark Baker Company, Representing Maynard & Child, 362 East Alder Street, Portland, Oregon.
