Colorful Costumes Which Folk-Song Artist Will Use

Grace Wood Jess, who will appear Tuesday evening in artistic feast at the First Christian church, depicting five nationalities in entrancing costume and song. Miss Jess' return appearance is being sponsored by the Civic Music Club.

I MEANT TO DO MY WORK TODAY

I meant to do my work today—
But a brown bird sang in the apple tree,
And a butterfly flitted across the field,
And all the leaves were calling me.

And the wind went sighing over the land,
Tossing the grasses to and fro,
And a rainbow held out its shining hand—
So what could I do but laugh and go?

THE MEMBERS of the Women's Republican Study club are expressing notable zeal in the matter of the coming election. Meeting weekly, the club will tomorrow afternoon present Judge McCannan of Portland, who will talk on the candidacy of President Coolidge, dwelling too on the importance of each woman using the franchise in her power.

Mrs. John L. Rand, 895 Chemeketa street, will be the hostess of the afternoon, with all women in the city who are interested in the matter of the coming election, whether members of the club or not, invited to attend.

Tea will be served, with Mrs. Mark Skiff chairman of the committee in charge.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop has as her house-guests, Mrs. Roy Bishop and children, Elizabeth, Thomas, and William, of Portland. They will return home today.

Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden were hosts last evening at their home on North Church street for one of the most enjoyable university affairs of the season when a Dutch treat dinner was served for all faculty members. The living rooms were decorated with autumn-tinted zinnias, while in the dining room a profusion of pastel-shaded asters were used. An informal program added pleasure to the evening, especially the reading of a letter received from Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney who are on a leave of absence from the university for the year.

The faculty group invited for the evening included: Professor and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Professor and Mrs. Herman Clark, Miss Edith Denise, Professor Leroy Detling, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Pro-

THE program for the Jess concert Tuesday night contains what may be regarded as the cream of the singer's wonderful repertoire of folk-song of all nations. Without exception, each song is a thing of real artistic worth. One never catches Miss Jess "showing off" her voice, her looks or even the beautiful gowns—silk, velvet, brocade—which she uses with true art. Everything she does is done for the sake of bringing out the story that the song tells. Her quaint and beautiful gowns are as valuable in creating atmosphere as they are fascinating. As a Los Angeles critic said: "In her exquisite costumes she is a joy to see as well as to hear." The Jess concert takes place at the First Christian church.

The tickets are on sale at Moore's Music house. There is every indication that Miss Jess will be greeted on Tuesday by the big house her reputation and popularity demand.

The War Mothers will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce for a meeting of unusual importance, since plans for the dedication of the new monument will be made at the time.

The Ladies' Glee club of Willamette university is anticipating an unusually successful season with tentative plans for the spring tour already in hand. The personnel of the club has been chosen; officers elected; and assistant director named.

Having chosen the spring vacation in which to make a ten day trip through eastern Oregon and south and central Washington, the opportunity for additional week-end trips has been increased. Special attention is already being given to such well-chosen selections as, "Oh, that We Two Were A-Maying," "Midsummer Clouds," "From the Sea," "The Dance of the Gnomes," and "Out From the Sea."

Miss Ruth Ross has been elected president for the new year. Miss Mildred Grant is vice president. Manager is Miss Ruth Heinke; and the secretary-treasurer, Elizabeth Silver. Miss Elois Heinke is reporter.

Professor E. W. Hobson, as in previous seasons, will direct the club. Assistant director will be Miss Faye Sparks, an advanced voice student of marked capability. Miss Mildred Grant will again be the club's gifted accompanist.

The personnel of the club, including eight new members, follows: First soprano, Miss Faye Sparks, Miss Gladys McIntyre, Miss Helen Lockwood, Miss Faye Spaulding, Miss Gladys Gilbert, Drain they were guests at a family-law of Mrs. Byars, Hon. Benton Miers, on the occasion of his 71st natal day.

In Roseburg they were guests of Mrs. Byars' sister, Mrs. C. L. Hadley, who has frequently visited in Salem where she has a large number of friends. Mrs. Hadley recently suffered two strokes of paralysis, from which her friends will be glad to know she is now gaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover were accompanied home as far as Jefferson by Mrs. Anna Bonham of Kyler, Wash. In Jefferson Mrs. Bonham is visiting as the guest of Mrs. Benjamin Looney. She plans, shortly, to spend some time with Salem friends.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The Oregon Daily Emerald, student publication at the university, announces the publication of a 16-page Emerald which will appear monthly and will be devoted to purely literary subjects. Reviews, the drama, creative editorials, short stories, poetry and other literary works will be published.

Donald Woodward of Portland, editor of the Emerald, Leon Byrne of Eugene, and Margaret Morrison of Hood River, associate editors of the daily, will be in charge of the monthly magazine.

The Rapheterian club, one of the most delightfully informal social organizations in the city, opened the fall season with a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Stewart. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. Daryl Proctor and Mrs. G. L. Forge.

The personnel of this interesting club includes Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Harry Compton, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. James Heltzel, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. F. H. Thompson, Mrs. Lee Unruh, Mrs. F. L. Uter, Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mrs. Phil Newmeyer and Mrs. H. S. Gile.

For the October meeting of the club Mrs. Cecil Hawley will be the hostess.

In portraiture circles it is interesting to know that Earl Kennell, artist photographer, who is in personal charge of the Salem branch of the Kennell-Ellis, portrait studios, which occupy an attractively appointed four-room suite on the fourth floor of the Oregon building, is a former cameraman and director of lighting in a number of Hollywood studios.

An interesting program has been planned for this evening at the Evangelical church, 17th and Chemeketa streets, at 7:30 o'clock to be given under the joint auspices of the Woman's Missionary society and the Evangelical league of the Christian Endeavor. The program follows:
