The Fun Shop

An Appeal to Some Philanthropist
By S. V. Kellerman

Millicent
Is sweet as May-Day violets,
And gay as she is sweet;
It seems a taste of heaven
Every time we meet.
She is no "phantom" of delight,
But genuinely bonafide;
She is so fine
I'd make her mine—
But we've no place to 'bide!

Curling Iron Kills Hair; Silmerine Improves It

Many a woman loses the silky, fluffy and brilliant appearance of her hair through habitual use of the curling iron. Certainly it can do the hair good to dry up its natural oil, since the life out of it, making it harsh, brittle and dull. And there's no excuse for that, now that it is known what can be accomplished by the simple silmerine method. Liquid silmerine really preserves the life, lustre and beauty of the hair. The curliness is perfectly natural looking and most captivating, and it will last the longest time. If you've never tried it, by all means procure a few ounces of liquid silmerine from your druggist and apply a little with brush just before doing up your hair. It is neither sticky nor greasy, but quite pleasant to use.

I have no millions of my own
And Millicent abhors
All pickers and their poverty—
And so my love ignores!
If only some Philanthropist

Would kindly me endow—
I'd make it right with Millicent—
And we could marry now!

She's So Jong and Afraid!
Mrs. T.: "Bridget, if you find a green dragon when you sweep this morning, bring it to me."
Bridget: "Please mum, I don't like such animals an' if you don't mind I'll give notice now."
—H. M. Merrill.

Easy to Find
"That office boy of yours is always whistling. Doesn't it annoy you?"
"It does, a little, but then, when I hear him whistling, I know where he is."
—Arnold Eppes.

To Memory Dear
Buck: "I never saw such enthusiasm as at the football games."
Williams: "That shows we still love anything with a kick to it."
—Mrs. Robert Richards.

How The Girls Talk—Now That Vacations Are Over.
"The boys simply went wild over my hair."
"He had the most WONDERFUL car! All the other girls were jealous because I rode in it every day."
"The married women at our place just couldn't keep their husbands away from me, dear."
"Three different men proposed to me. I'm still trying to make up my mind which one to accept."
—Bill Rendered.

Verse and Worse
can, of wedding-etiquette,
Very, very little say,
It hasn't been my luck, as yet,
To have a wedding day,
But there's one thing, I have perceived,
Occurs at nuptials gay—
'Tis the newspaper, not papa,
Who gives the bride away!
—J. S. S.

Spoiling a Good Thing
"There is a movement on foot," remarked Dad, "to teach Geography in our schools by means of motion pictures."
"Aw Gee!" complained little Bobby. "That's a mean trick. What do they want to go and take all the fun out of the movies for?"
—Mrs. Nathan Eder.

FREEZONE

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.—ADV.
