ANNOUNCEMENT completely surprising even their most intimate friends was that of the marriage yesterday morning at 9:25 o'clock of Miss Clara Breitenstein and Mr. Dwight Quisenberry. Mrs. Quisenberry, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Breitenstein, is a popular member of the younger set. Attending the Oregon Agricultural college, she was a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Quisenberry, the son of Mrs. Grace Quisenberry of Hollywood, California, also attended the Oregon Agricultural college. A partner in the Central Pharmacy, he is prominent in local civic circles, being both a Christian and a Kiwanian. Since the war, where he served in the artillery, he has established his business connections in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Quisenberry left immediately after the ceremony for a three weeks' motor trip. After November 1st, they will be at the organization of a Mission Study Circle.

Mrs. George F. Vick, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary Saturday evening, was the inspiration for a delightful surprise dinner.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. George F. Vick, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Vick, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Vick and children, Lorraine and Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vick, and daughters, Bertha and Harriet, Mrs. Sophia Vick, Miss Hollis Vick, and Roy F. Jacobson.

Mrs. Emily Baquill, former resident at the Old Peoples' Home is visiting Mrs. William R. Randle of Salem Heights.

Miss Marie Andresen became the bride of Franklin J. Miller Jr. Saturday afternoon at 4:30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Andresen, of 810 Jefferson street, Oregon City. Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Miller of Albany, and is well known in Salem, having lived here a number of years. The bride was attended by Miss Wanda Nelson of McMinnville as maid of honor, and two younger sisters of the bride acted as bridesmaids. The groom was attended by Mr. Claude Steusloff of Salem. Both the young people are graduates of the University of Oregon, she a member of the Chi Omega sorority, he of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. They will make their home in Albany. A number of Salem people were guests at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Underhill are the guests of their niece, Mrs. L. P. Brown at her country home near Salem. Mr. Underhill is an attorney of Onawa, Iowa. They plan to be here for a period of 10 days or two weeks.

A number of Salem women are in attendance this week at the state convention of the WCTU which opened in Corvallis yesterday to continue until Thursday. Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Marion county president, is in official attendance from here. Representing the local union are: Mrs. Louisa Kraps, Mrs. C. M. Landaker, and Mrs. Alice Jennison. From the North Salem union two delegates are in attendance at the convention, Mrs. Jennie Presnall and Mrs. Stanton.

Mrs. L. C. Farmer was a guest over the week-end of Mrs. Frances Cochrane in Portland.

Work in the vocational classes of which Mrs. F. E. Barker is in charge will begin today in the rooms above Miller's store. Three classes in beginning sewing will be held as well as classes in millinery both beginning and advanced. Advanced sewing is also included in the schedule.
