Pipes Accepts Post—Judge M. L. Pipes of Portland has accepted an appointment by Governor Pierce to the supreme bench of the state, having so notified the governor yesterday. It is understood he will arrive in Salem today to take the oath of office, and possibly will go into the regular Tuesday morning conference with the court.

Visit Goin's Dahlias—Farm Jefferson. 011

Fire Prevention Week—Much of the activity of Fire Prevention week, which is this week, will center in Portland. Will Moore, state fire marshal, will appear on the program in Hillsboro Tuesday and Wednesday in Hillsboro Thursday and in Portland again Friday and Saturday.

The State Automotive School—Located at 173 S. Liberty, phone 66. H. H. Harris, instructor, begins Oct. 6 and will be in practical operation the 12th of Oct. Now is your chance to learn the auto game for the sum of $50, which takes you through the nine month course if you want. It does not require a college education to be a good mechanic, so if you like this work, start it now. 08

Final Papers Filed—The second set of naturalization papers was made out and filed with the Marion county clerk yesterday by Donald George Neave, 1153 Oak street. He came from Strathcona, Canada, in 1904. His first papers were filed at Corvallis, Oregon.

At The Gray Belle—Gray Belle made hot chicken tamales, Chinese noodles and Chile Con Carne. Served or to take out. 07 northwest lecturer, made such an impression at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday that his promise to appear at the Kiwanis club luncheon two weeks from today was obtained. It is also expected that Mr. Riley will appear at an open meeting at the armory in the near future.

Riley to Speak Again—Frank Branch Riley, well known

H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Have a wonderful line of heaters on display. 021f

Defective Brakes Charged—Upon complaint of Lloyd E. Weeks, the private prosecutor, E. W. Wagner was arrested yesterday for operating his motor vehicle with insufficient brakes. Mr. Wagner did not appear in justice court yesterday as he wanted time to consult an attorney before entering his plea. The case will probably come up today.

Civic Music Club Tickets—Season, $4; Jess concert, $1. On sale at Moore's music house. 07

The Sewing Classes—Have you enrolled in the sewing and millinery classes? We can still accommodate a few in beginning sewing, advanced sewing, beginning millinery and advanced millinery. This is a wonderful opportunity to get a new dress made or the old one remodeled. You may have sewed all your life but have you kept up with the times? There are so many new ideas, some interesting short-cuts that you may not be familiar with. Actual class work begins Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 7 and 8. Phone Mrs. F. E. Barker for information desired. Sewing room over Miller's store. 08

Grace Wood Jess Concert—Oct. 7, First Christian church. Admission, $1. Season tickets, $4. On sale at Moore's music house. 07

Henry Blames Others—Because it is believed by officers that others than A. Henry, farmer, were interested in the still found on his place about 10 miles south of Salem. District Attorney John Carson will file charges of possession of a still against Ray Miller and Zeno Hansard, who at present are in the city jail serving out sentences of $500 and $100 respectively for possession of liquor. Henry, in a sworn statement, tells how Miller and Hansard came to his place and prevailed upon him to let them set up a still and operate it in a dugout beneath the house. The materials, Henry declares, were furnished by the other two men. The mash was made while he was absent from home, he says. While the charges were not in shape to be filed Monday they will be filed in a day or two.

Marcel and Carl Last Longer—After a Golden Glint shampoo. 010

Auto Is Smashed—In an automobile accident on the River road north of the county poor farm Monday morning an automobile driven by B. W. Wagner, of route 8, was almost demolished and a smaller machine driven by L. E. Weeks damaged. The Weeks' machine was side-swiped by the other automobile and lost a wheel when it went into a ditch. The other and larger machine was overturned. O. B. Akley, who was riding with Wagner, was the only one injured. He received a cut on one hand. Weeks later swore out a complaint against Wagner, charging him with operating an automobile with defective brakes.

Home of Universal—Ranges and stoves at Stiff's. 021f

Divorce Obtained—In the Polk county court, Katherine Hart, of Salem, has been given a decree from James S. Hart on the grounds of non-support and threats to kill. She will have the custody of their two children and $25 a month for their support.

At the Gray Belle—Gray Belle makes good Chinese noodles. 07

Pioneer Resident Dies—Mrs. Calistia Egman Kelly, an early Oregon pioneer, died at her home in Portland and was buried the same day, according to word received here. Mrs. Kelly was born in Arkansas in 1845, coming to Oregon with her uncle, Rev. C. Chapman, three years later. They settled on Howell prairie in Marion county. She was married to James W. Kelly on July 25, 1858. He survives his widow, as well as a son, F. L. Kelly, and daughter, Mrs. Susan Beaulieu, both of Portland. At one time Mr. Kelly was warden of the state prison, police officer and served as sheriff of Wasco county.

Keep Warm Now—Pay later at Stiff's. 021f

Foreclosure Sought—Alleging that he holds the note of Robert Krims, et al, for $3000, J. F. Duffy yesterday began proceedings to foreclose property on the Santiam river given as security. It was said that Krims had defaulted in his payment.

County Clerk Reports—In a report issued yesterday by U. G. Boyer, clerk of Marion county, the number of divorce suits filed during the quarter ending September 30, 1924, was 23. Seventy-six was the total number of law actions filed in the circuit court. Costs to the county for the petit grand jury was $71.30, for the grand jury $134.80, for bailiffs $128, and for witnesses, $75.40.

Liquor Owner Sentenced—Thirty days in the county jail and a fine of $250 were imposed upon Jake Van Arnam when he came before P. J. Kuntz, justice of the peace, for sentence Monday. Van Arnam was found guilty after a jury trial last week. Van Arnam was arrested at a dance at Monitor Sept. 22 and charged with possession of intoxicating liquor. His attorney gave notice of an appeal and the bond was continued at the same figure, giving Van Arnam his freedom for the present.

Gets Building Permit—A building permit for the erection of a $3500 residence was issued from the city recorder's office Monday to S. R. Bond. The residence will be built at 250 N. Twenty-third.

Liquor Owners Fined—One hundred and fifty dollars was added to the city treasury Monday as a result of two arrests over the week-end. Ray Holland was fined $50 for possession of liquor. He was arrested at 3 o'clock Sunday morning by Officer Wright. Jerry Wren, arrested on a similar charge earlier in the night, forfeited $100 bail. Wren was arrested by Officer Cutler.

Police Auto Repaired—After being laid up for a week while undergoing extensive repairs necessitated by Officer L. A. Wiles having met with a serious mishap while travelling at a high rate of speed in the line of duty, the police "filver" is back on the job and Officer Wiles again seeking the too-swiftly traveling motorist. In police court yesterday A. Collins of Portland forfeited $5 bail. He was arrested for speeding by Officer Wiles.

Police Fines Are $1935—During September police department activities resulted in the imposing of $1935.50 in fines and jail sentences of 40 days, according to the monthly report of Frank A. Minto, chief of police. Liquor offenders comprised the greater single classification of arrests, 26 arrests being for this offense and 12 for drunkenness. There were 47 arrests made for speeding and 162 automobile accidents reported.

Work on Hall Starts—Concrete for the foundation of the new parish hall being erected by the St. Joseph Catholic church was poured Monday. The hall is being erected at the northwest corner of Winter and Chemekeeta streets. Most of the preliminary work is being done by members of the church under the direction of L. A. Goldade, architect.

Traffic Officer Quits—Storey Cannon, better known as "Red" Cannon, who has been dry traffic officer for several months, has handed in his resignation to the police department. His successor has not yet been named.

Cannery for Sale—Sale of a Salem cannery is offered under a "blind" advertisement in a California fruit magazine. The identity is not disclosed but from specifications and a general description it is believed that it is the former Kings Fruit Products plant, though it is possible it may be the Bruce Cunningham plant in West Salem, which is in the market at present. The advertisement states that the plant is the largest fruit evaporating plant in the northwest and gives the Salem district a boost as a fruit center.

Many at Evans' Class—By actual count 122 men were present for the first of the fall and winter meetings of the John J. Evans' Bible class for men at the Bligh theater Sunday morning. Many of the old timers and those who were regular in attendance last year were missing. Several selections by Miss Grace Fawk were enthusiastically received, while the band from the boys' training school gave a short concert prior to the opening of the class. Reorganization of the class is now complete for the winter. James Campbell, better known to the men as "Uncle Jimmie," John Harriett and Mr. Stith have been named members of a sick and visiting committee. Grant Teeters will be the head usher and official greeter, having been assigned to this work on account of his pleasant personality.

If you wish to know how explorers feel when frozen in the ice, tell a woman she looks fine in spite of her age.

Funeral of Judge Held At Episcopal Church

Funeral services for the late George G. Bingham, circuit judge for Marion and Linn counties, were held from St. Paul's Episcopal church Monday afternoon, in charge of the Knights Templar and the Webb Funeral parlors. Judge Bingham died in Portland Saturday afternoon. He was 62 years old.

Judge Bingham was born in West Salem, Wis., November 25, 1855, locating with his parents in Yamhill county in 1871. He was educated in the Oregon schools, at what is now Linfield college at McMinnville and later at the University of Michigan, where he was graduated in 1880. He was admitted to the Oregon bar the same year.

Five years later Judge Bingham moved to Salem and opened a partnership with Judge Ramsey until 1887. He practiced alone for three years when he was elected district attorney for the third judicial district and formed a partnership with Judge Peter H. D'Arcy, which continued for four years. On February 23, 1910, he was admitted to practise before the United States supreme court. At the time of his death he was serving his second term as judge of the third judicial district. For a number of years he was local attorney for the Southern Pacific railroad company.

Judge Bingham belonged to the Elks and Masons. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Keith Powell, of Woodburn. Almost the complete membership of the Knights Templar attended the funeral at the Episcopal church, and Knights from Portland and other cities also were present.

At any rate the Russians taught the world that it isn't always progress just because it's new.

One of the best displays that the state fair visitors saw was the flower display of the Upjohn gardens, on the Fairgrounds road. It is still a thing of beauty for all to behold. The asylum and penitentiary grounds are also still very beautiful; but the fading time is here, and these wonderful displays will grow less attractive each day.

It is remarked by a Salem garage man that some of the people who were knocking defense away are thoughtful enough to have fenders on their autos.

The LaFollette people are organizing mutual admiration societies in Oregon. But this is one of the things that will not matter in this state—and they enjoy it.

Every man eventually finds his rightful place. LaFollette drops into his on the California ballot under the head of "Socialist."

They recently shipped a horse from France to Holland by airplane. It would be fine if Pegasus could be trained to fly.

A professor says that love is a form of insanity. That makes this country one of the cutest madhouses in the world.

There are 4,000,000 illiterate voters in the country, but it is freely predicted that some of them will find a way to cast a LaFollette ballot.
