

PEDDLERS MUST HAVE LICENSES

Court Declares Law Passed
By 1921 Session Is Constitutional

An act of the legislature of 1921 requiring a license fee of peddlers engaged in selling drugs and medicines in Oregon is held constitutional in an opinion of the supreme court yesterday in the case of the state against R. V. McFall, appellant. McFall was convicted in Washington county for selling drugs and medicines without a license. The supreme court opinion was written by Justice Brown and affirms Judge George R. Bagley.

Judge Martin L. Pipes of Portland, who was appointed by Governor Pierce as a member of the court to succeed the late Justice John McCourt, qualified and was sworn in yesterday. He sat with the court when it handed down opinions in the forenoon and when it heard an argument in the afternoon. Other opinions of the court yesterday were:

Bessie Boyton Popejay, appellant, vs E. L. Boynton et al, administrators of the estate of Lida Boynton, deceased; appeal from Marion county; suit to clear title. Opinion by Chief Justice McBride. Judge George G. Bingham reversed.

F. L. Touvelle vs Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange, appellant, appeal from Jackson county; action based on contract relative to sale and delivery of wheat. Opinion by Justice Bean. Judge F. M. Calkins reversed and case remanded.

Pat Burns, appellant, vs Wilford La Fontaine, appeal from Marion county; suit to foreclose lien on auto truck. Opinion by Justice Burnett. Judge Percy R. Kelly affirmed.

McCargher, Bates and Livesley, appellants, vs R. Wiley, appeal from Multnomah county; action in replevin to recover possession of automobile. Opinion by Justice Rand. Judge Fred W. Wilson reversed and case remanded.

Petitions for rehearing denied in re Hood River petition of Pacific Power & Light company and in State vs Reubenstein.

Motion to reinstate granted in Huard vs McTeigh.

The price of gas is down a little but this won't reduce the number of cars parked along country lanes.

MEMORIAL WILL BE DEDICATED

County's Soldier Dead to Be Honored Probably on Armistice Day

Dedication ceremonies for the War Mothers' memorial statue, "Over the Top to Victory," will be held on Armistice day, provided the money necessary for the payment of the statue is available at that time. Mrs. John A. Carson, president of the Salem War Mothers, said last night. This agreement was reached at a meeting of the War Mothers in the afternoon. Collecting for the amount not yet subscribed is going on but there will be no definite campaign.

The attention of the War Mothers is now turned toward raising money for the hospital fund and several affairs are planned for late this month and next. Included in these are a rummage sale, a pumpkin pie sale on Halloween and a bazaar on November 19.

So far no plans have been worked out for the dedication of the memorial, but committees from the War Mothers and from the American legion are expected to arrange for the proper observance of the day and for the dedication of the memorial to the Marion county men who gave their lives during the World war.

FOREIGN WAR
VETS TO MEET
Ceremonial and Initiation are Included in Program at Armory

Veterans of Foreign Wars will gather in Salem over the weekend for a ceremonial and initiation at the armory Saturday night, to be followed by a meeting of departmental officers Sunday morning. All of the department of other posts at Eugene, Corvallis, Lebanon and Albany are expected.

Word has been received by Bolton Hamble that the degree team from the World War post No. 907, Portland, will be in Salem to have charge of the work Saturday night. Ten automobile loads of other veterans are expected to come down from Portland.

Eligibility in the VFW consists of service on foreign soil or waters during the periods that the United States has been engaged in conflict with other nations.

OREGON PRUNES ARE SELECTED

Ninety Per Cent of Consumers Choose Them if They are Wise

Ninety per cent of the consumers select Oregon prunes if they possess discrimination and the education of the public along this line must be accomplished in order to develop the industry according to H. S. Gile, president of the Willamette Valley Prune association, who spoke at the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday noon. The northwest variety is different from all other kinds and is improperly called the Italian prune, the speaker said. Prunes of this variety have never been produced in Italy.

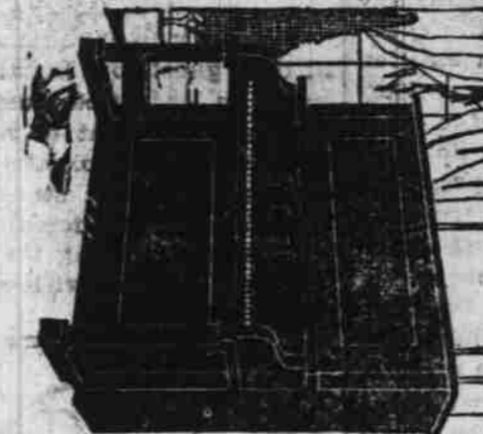

Increased population and new markets will take care of all increased acreage, Mr. Gile held. He emphasized the point that prunes one year old which have been properly prepared are better than the new crop fruit. Prunes are no longer a joke but are the aristocrats of the dried fruits.

After being asked to make the talk on prunes, Mr. Gile looked over his own plant and found shipments on the floor or in process of preparation for Scandinavian ports, Havana, Italy, England, New York, Los Angeles (10 carloads being sold there last year), South American countries and Calcutta, India. Other foreign countries are being invaded in the search for new markets. In touching upon the loganberry industry, Mr. Gile said that if a corresponding low express rate could be obtained as is applicable for prunes, every drop of loganberry juice in the state would be sold after an advertising campaign illustrating the use of the juice in jelly making, a formula having been discovered by the speaker.

Mrs. Earl Percy delighted with three vocal numbers, with Prof. T. S. Roberts as accompanist. P. D. Quisenberry, who was married Monday, was absent but contributed a box of cigars. The attendance prize, donated by Hal Love, was won by J. L. Brady.

100 PIANOS MUST BE SOLD! I MUST RAISE $40,000

This being the amount necessary to erect a four or five story building on Ferry and Liberty streets. I bought this property for the sole purpose of building. This means that for the present we will cut our stock one-half. It also means a genuine saying to all those purchasing a piano or phonograph. Glance over the prices and terms, they are most convincing.
