THE GOLDEN HOUR CLUB
 Opened the fall social season with a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday for which Mrs. D. N. Hendricks was hostess. Covers were placed for eleven. The luncheon table was effectively decked with yellow flowers and yellow candles, with the same color scheme predominating in the favors. A basket of marigolds and chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece. Mrs. R. J. Hendricks was guest of honor for the day. The afternoon was spent with sewing and chatting. Mrs. J. R. Pemberton is the club president.

Covers at the luncheon were placed for Mrs. L. S. Springer, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Ingrey, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Burt of Woodburn, Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Claude Van Slyke, Mrs. Eric Buttery and the hostess, Mrs. D. N. Hendricks.

Ralph Emmons, who left last month for Seattle to enter the University of Washington, has been compelled to return to his home on account of illness.

The many friends of Miss Mabel Marcus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus, will be interested in the fact that she was pledged this week to membership in the Delta Psi Kappa honorary physical education fraternity at Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Marcus, who is a senior at the university, is a Sigma Kappa.

The Sweet Briar club, meeting for the first autumn gathering, as the guests of Mrs. Glen L. Adams, opened the afternoon with the election of officers. Mrs. Karl Kugel was elected president; Mrs. Ed Pratt, vice president, and Mrs. Zona Allen, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Taylor was a special guest of the day. After a conversational hour the hostess served refreshments.

The members of the club are: Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. James Inlsh, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. C. O. Page, Mrs. Al Steiner, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. M. C. Petters, Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Mase Adams and Mrs. Glen Adams.

The Ladies' circle of the GAR will meet for an important meeting at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the armory. The members are especially urged to be present.

The missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. John J. Roberts, 768 State street. Mrs. W. C. Kantner has charge of the program, while devotions will be led by Miss Marian Wyman. Hostesses with Mrs. Roberts will be Mrs. Frank Neer, Mrs. L. C. Farmer, Mrs. E. A. Poulsen and Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy.

The Loyal Daughters' class of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. John C. Humphreys on Tuesday evening to organize a mission study circle. Leading the following officers: president, Melba Robinson; vice president, Miss Dean; secretary, Frances Plov, and treasurer, Inez Wood. The name selected for the circle was Ele Bant'amo, which means in the African language, "For others." A study of world religions will be the program for the year.

Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark will officiate for the Salem Women's club dinner at the YWCA in the evening. Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, president of the Women's club will be unable to attend the Portland luncheon on account of the business meeting of the club here at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The members of the Women's Relief corps will present a beautiful silk flag at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning to the First Methodist Sunday school. Mrs. Louise King will make the presentation. The members of both the GAR, and the WRC are urged to attend the ceremonies.

A delightful social gathering is planned for this evening at the First Baptist church when the student council and the BYPU will entertain jointly for the junior and senior high school and university students. The entertainment for the evening is planned for the pleasure of all. Refreshments will be served.

With the YMCA drive paramount among current civic interests, a large number of prominent local women contributed to the success of the large opening dinner on Wednesday evening.

With Mrs. F. A. Elliott chairman of the entire arrangements, the following committees served: Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. J. H. Farrar, Miss Van Patten, Miss Marian Wyman, Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. F. S. Anunson, Mrs. G. R. Bonnel, Mrs. Frank Powers, Mrs. Bates, Miss Bates, Mrs. T. A. Raffety, Mrs. C. W. Pickens, Mrs. Nathan Pickens, L. C. Barnett, Mrs. G. E. Ross, Miss Mina Gile, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mrs. A. B. Hansen, Mrs. A. H. White, Mrs. J. W. Beckley.

The E. E. club met Wednesday evening for the first meeting of the season at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott. Six tables of five hundred were in play, with autumn leaves and flowers forming an attractive background. The ladies' high score of the evening went to Mrs. Claude Townsend, while for the men Orla Watkins won. The consolation prizes were gained by Mrs. John Spong and Edward Fandrich.

In the serving of refreshments the hostess was assisted by Mrs. S. E. Kightlinger, who will be the next hostess for the club on October 22.

Guests of the club for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound.

The membership list includes Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrich, Mr. and Mrs. E. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kightlinger and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend.

Mrs. W. S. Haley, manager of the Miller Beauty parlors, was in attendance at the first annual Portland beauty and style show which was held at the Portland Odd Fellows hall. A style show, displaying many attractive costumes, was held in connection. Prizes were given for the best examples of hair dressing.

Mrs. Haley is especially interested in bringing a similar beauty and style show to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman (Ruth Barnes) will arrive here Saturday from Seattle to be guests for the wedding of Miss Esther Paroungian and Mr. Ralph Barnes. Mrs. George H. Hall, a great-aunt of Miss Paroungian, will also be present for the ceremony which will be performed at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist church.

Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. John Albert and Mrs. C. P. Bishop are among those from the Salem Women's club who will be in attendance at the Federation luncheon Saturday at the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Bishop, as chairman of the home products committee for the state, is going in the particular interest of that work. A number of others from the club here will be unable to attend the luncheon on account of the regular meeting coming on the same day.

Amendments will be the subject for discussion on Monday at the weekly meeting of the Woman's Republican Study club at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop. The meeting has been called for 2:30 o'clock.

The Business and Professional Women's club is opening the doors at 165 N. Liberty street yesterday morning for the first hours of a three-day rummage sale.

Much interest is being centered around the announcement of the all day rummage sale which the Three-Link club will sponsor at the IOOF hall on November 15. A cafeteria, a country store, fancy-work, dolls, antiques, candy, a minstrel show, a slide show, and fortune telling will all be features of the anticipated event.

On Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Harry E. White, occurred the marriage of Mrs. Mildred Schrunck and Floyd M. White. Rev. E. H. Shanks officiated using the beautiful ring service. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. F. H. White and a young woman of charming personality. She was attractively gowned in a frock of tan canton crepe and carried pink carnations. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. White and is a well known business man of the city. Mr. and Mrs. White left at once by motor for a short honeymoon at the Tillamook beaches.

The women's society of the First Baptist church will hold their regular meeting at the church parlors on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. T. Hoover, Mrs. A. B. McKillop and Mrs. Lottis are hostesses.

The following program has been arranged:
 Devotional, Mrs. H. S. Gile; vocal solo, Mrs. J. Dale Taylor. A series of five minute talks on "My Personal Interest in Missions" will follow. Medical Missions and White Cross, Mrs. T. A. Rafferty; Chapel Car, Colporteur and Gospel Missions, Mrs. S. Willis; Community Center, Mrs. C. B. Huber; Foreigners in Our Own Land, Mrs. H. C. White; Missionary Training Schools, Mrs. Thos. H. Clare; W. W. G. Miss Mina Gile; Stewardship, Mrs. O. B. Neptane; piano solo, Miss Truth Huston. The program will be followed by a social hour and light refreshments.

Six Salem girls are among those receiving bids this week from sorority chapters at the Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Margaret Pierce and Miss Catherine Hartley have been pledged Alpha Chi Omega; Miss Odile Matthews, Alpha Xi Delta; Miss Elizabeth Taft, Gamma Phi Beta; Miss Margaret Breitenstein, Pi Beta Phi; and Miss Margaret Smith, Beta Kappa.

Mrs. M. E. Poe of Vancouver, Wash., sister of C. C. Russell, is at the Russell home during Mr. Russell's sickness.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Salem Indian school at Chemawa as the guests of Miss Gertrude Eakin. Mrs. Harwood Hall and the students at the school will assist in presenting the program. A feature of the afternoon will be the travelogue by Mrs. Hall covering some of her travels in Mexico with an exhibition of curios collected in that country. All women of the church are particularly invited to attend this meeting. After the program the visitors will be conducted through the buildings. Those who will furnish cars and those who would like transportation are asked to telephone Mrs. Buren, 2004-W, in order that transportation arrangements may be made.

One of the charming pre-nuptial affairs of the week for which Miss Esther Paroungian was the inspiration was the dinner party Tuesday evening at the Beta Chi sorority. Covers were placed for twenty-four.

NEW GOVERNMENT-ACCEPTED SANTIAGO, Oct. 9.—Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay have recognized the new Chilean government, it was announced today.
