ADDRESS BUNCH PHONE: 106

THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY invitations were issued for the charming tea yesterday afternoon at which Miss Frances M. Richards was hostess, complimenting the university girls, wives of the faculty members of the university, wives of the Kimball and law faculties, and the wives of the university trustees.

Calling hours at Lausanne hall, the scene of this delightful event, were from 3:30 to 5:30. Receiving with Miss Richards was Mrs. George H. Alden.

Asters predominated throughout in the decorating. In the small parlor an orchid and pink color scheme was carried out with a lovely profusion of blossoms. In the large parlor the floral effect was developed completely with asters in the rose shades. Here, during the early part of the afternoon Mrs. E. T. Brown and Miss Helen Pearce assisted, and during the later hour Miss Mary Kindley and Miss Lella Johnson.

The dining room was exquisite with shell-pink asters and light blue candles. Presiding at the tea table during the first hour were Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. W. E. Kirk. For the second hour Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. B. L. Steeves poured.

The senior girls of the college assisted in the parlors throughout the afternoon, with the junior girls assisting in the dining room.

Miss Vera Wright who has been visiting in Oswego as the houseguest of Mrs. Charles Austin, following an additional few days in Portland, returned to Salem the middle of the week, both she and Mrs. Austin coming especially for the miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening for which Mrs. Ronald Glover was hostess.

Mrs. J. H. Jennison, Mrs. S. E. Oliver, Mrs. Landaker, and Mrs. J. J. Kraps, delegates from the local union, returned yesterday from the state WCTU convention held in Corvallis, reporting unusually interesting sessions. A number of prominent speakers were on the program during the three days including both Governor Pierce, and President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural college. Special features of the convention were the banquet given and the interesting trip to the Children's Farm Home.

The sessions were held in the Corvallis Baptist church.

One of the charming bridge dinners of the week was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield were hosts entertaining at their home last evening at 6:30 o'clock. Ferns and nasturtiums centered the dining table, with zinnias predominating in the living rooms. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton were the invited guests of the evening.

The next meeting of the club will be at Mrs. E. T. N. Hill's home, 1660 Fir street.

With Mrs. R. L. Farmer the hostess, the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church met Wednesday to hear the reports of the delegates to the Columbia River Branch meeting of the society holding a three day session in Bellingham.

The meeting opened with a business session at which Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg was elected president to succeed Mrs. C. E. Powell. Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford was named secretary of literature. Of special interest was the distribution by the program chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Lee, of activity cards listing the obligations necessary to members in the development of a completely successful society.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford after which came the report of Mrs. B. L. Steeves, that of Mrs. A. A. Lee, a second delegate, necessarily being postponed.

At the large assembly, with a hundred delegates present, representing Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon, Mrs. Steeves reported the attendance of four missionaries and of two others soon to go at the meeting. Included in the group were: Miss Emma Rexroth, from India; Miss Ruth Warner from South America; Miss Mary Young from Korea; and Miss Ruth Field from India. Both Miss Rexroth and Miss Field have been taking post-graduate work during their furloughs. Miss Erner and Miss Mae Beisell also were present for the Bellingham conference. Miss Corner will sail next month for India, while Miss Beisell has not yet received her appointment. Miss Corner, Miss Beisell, and Miss Field are all three graduates of Willamette university.

One of the most eloquent speakers of the conference was Mrs. H. Lester Smith of Montana who, herself, has been four-years in India. Her speech was probably as inspiring as any of the three day sessions.

Meeting with exceptional hospitality, the delegates were all guests of Bellingham families. The sessions were held at the Garden street Methodist church of which Rev. C. E. Harris is the pastor.

The typical day opened with devotions followed by reports and then a morning address. The afternoon schedule was similar while the evening lecture was usually enhanced with the use of slides.

A special car for the convention delegates was engaged for the trip from Portland to Bellingham.

Bridge at two tables was the diversion of the evening at the delightful party Thursday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause were the hosts. A profusion of asters in lavender, rose, and white decked the rooms. Those playing were Mr. and Mrs. L. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Logan, Miss Mamie Victor, Mr. Ernest Bonesteele, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause.

The hostess served a buffet supper at a late hour.

This beautiful custom, which is new in Salem is at the present time being observed in two of the denomination's churches in Japan.

However, at the local church it has for a number of years been the custom of Mrs. Greta Dineo of Portland to come to Salem each September and decorate the church on the Sunday nearest the birthday of her sainted mother in tribute.

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves have as their house guests their daughter, Mrs. Paul Morse, and little granddaughter, Josephine. On Thursday Dr. and Mrs. Steeves also had as their guests to dinner Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Steeves and little son, Richard, of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman motored to Portland Wednesday for the day.

The members of the Fairmount Hill club met Wednesday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. George H. Grabenhorst for a delightful afternoon of bridge. Mrs. W. R. Speck was the day's special guest. Brilliant red fall blossoms predominated in the decorating. In the serving of late afternoon refreshments, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence E. Oberer. The bridge prizes went to Mrs. E. J. Huffman and to Mrs. P. M. Gregory, Mrs. Huffman winning high, and Mrs. Gregory the consolation.

STONE SOON TO BE PLACED AT TOMB OF DAVENPORT

SILVERTON, Ore., Oct. 10. — (Special to The Statesman).—The grave of the once famous Homer Davenport will soon be covered. The Homer Davenport memorial fund committee has announced that a contract has been signed for the placing of a large stone over the Davenport grave in the Silverton cemetery. The committee was in favor of placing a memorial in the form of a fountain in front of the Eugene Field school building but, owing to the fact that the original solicitation blanks specified the money to be used for a monument on the grave the hands of the committee were tied and its members were unable to carry out their wishes.
