CULBRANSEN

The Registering Piano

The REGISTERING Piano Makes Musicians

Sounds almost unbelievable—doesn't it—that, with no technical training whatever, any lover of good music can play the Gulbransen Registering Piano with just as much expression and feeling as a professional pianist!

Unbelievable? Perhaps. Yet true, absolutely! You can quickly satisfy yourself about it—

—investigate. Find out—at first hand! Let your eyes and ears convince you! Learn how—through keys pressed down in Gulbransen playing, not knocked down, as in ordinary player-piano-playing—the Registering principle now makes it easy for you to produce musical effects as fine as the most delicate fingering on the keyboard!

Each note registering your exact "touch"—its shading graduated—not played just loudly or softly, but every note controlled separately, individually. Notes and phrases of the melody brought out—accented with every degree of emphasis possible to the best hand-playing. You will be absolutely astounded at the genuinely human feeling you can put into everything you play on the Registering Gulbransen!
