A GREETING

Good morning Life—and all things glad and beautiful. My pockets nothing hold. But he that owns the gold. The Sun, is my friend—His spending has no end.

Hail to the morning sky. Which bright clouds measure high. Hail to you birds whose throats Would number leaves by notes; Hail to your shady bowers. And you green fields of flowers.

Hail to you women fair. That make a show so rare In cloth as white as milk— Be it called or silk; Good morning, Life—and all things glad and beautiful. —William H. Davies.

COVERS for sixty-five women were placed at the luncheon yesterday at 12:30 o'clock at the Marion hotel for the American Association of University Women. Folders announcing the coming of Dhan Gopal Mukerji awaited the guests at each place, the club voting officially to sponsor the lecture.

Dr. William Greene Hale spoke in a scholarly and authoritative manner on International Relations, analyzing the conditions and presenting the situation clearly.

Proceeding the luncheon delegates from branch organizations of the association met in interesting convention. Plans were developed and a number of committees appointed.

The silver tea which the Daughters of the American Revolution are sponsoring on Tuesday afternoon will be one of the most attractive social and benefit affairs of the week. The home of Mrs. B. L. Steeves, 1594 Court street, will be opened for the event. Calling hours will be from 2:30 to 6 o'clock. The proceeds will go directly to the educational support of a Tanasee college girl of the mountains of South Carolina.

Mrs. J. W. Harbison is chairman of the arrangements. Mrs. S. C. Dyer and Mrs. H. B. Thielsen will preside at the tea table. Assisting about the living rooms will be Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. James Heltzel and Mrs. La Moine Clark. The dining room hostesses will be Mrs. John W. Harbison, Mrs. Carey Martin, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. H. T. Love and Mrs. Lewis Griffith.

A delightful program is planned for the afternoon with Mrs. A. J. Rahn to give readings and Mrs. Harry Styles to sing.

Mrs. Clarence Van Slyke and daughter Clare, and Miss Harriet Van Slyke of Chelan, Wash., are guests of Mrs. Agnes Harding at 835 Union street. They plan to be here for a week.

The Oriental room at the Gray Belle was the scene of a Halloween banquet at 7 o'clock last evening when the Gunnell-Robb studio entertained for the pleasure of the members of the Willamette Valley Photographers' association. A gorgeous jack o'lantern centered the banquet hall which completely carried out the decorative Halloween motif. Covers were placed for 30 guests, with the speaker present from Portland.

Rev. C. C. Poling, pastor of the First Evangelical church, home from three weeks in the east, will conduct the regular services at the church this morning and evening. Mr. Poling attended both the meeting of the board of missions in Milwaukee, and the board of publications in Cleveland, Ohio, being a member of both boards. In South Bend Mr. Poling had charge at one of the services in the Broadway church and on a later Sunday had the opportunity of preaching in the Trinity church of Johnstown, where he was licensed and ordained. Mr. Poling also visited his three sisters, Mrs. C. J. Hammers, Mrs. Edith George and Mrs. Harry Dunmire, whose homes are near Johnstown.

The members of the WCTU will meet in the hall at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Alice Jennison will report on the convention held in Corvallis. The later part of the afternoon will be given over to a thorough consid-

DHAN GOPAL MUKERJI

Distinguished Hindu lecturer and author who appears at Waller hall next Saturday evening.

Dhan Gopal Mukerji, distinguished Hindu lecturer and author will appear in a lecture-date at Waller Hall Saturday evening October 25. The lecture will deal with India,—mysterious inscrutable India,—the land of color and lure of jingling temple bells and strange eastern odors, the India of Tagore and Gita Govinda.

Young, attractive, eager, full of enthusiasm, President Wilson of a Rochester, New York club, remarked that "the club has been privileged to listen to many able speakers, and had heard many interesting talks none was more interesting than the one given by Dhan Gopal Mukerji.

And this is what his university thinks of him. Dr. David Starr Jordan, President Emeritus of Stanford university, upon reading an erroneous announcement in the Atlantic Monthly that Mr. Mukerji was a graduate of the University of California promptly wrote the magazine that he was an alumnus of Stanford and that the university did not intend to lose him.

Mr. Mukerji is then a college man, and a travelled man of the world; a scholar steeped in the lore of Eastern literature and a man sympathetic with the American mind and our material progress; a serious, profound thinker with a vivid sense of humor.

Salem is already receiving commendation for being one of three cities in the far west to book him. A large number from Portland will come down to attend the lecture.

eration of election bills. The meeting is open to those interested in these current matters.

In addition to winning the teachers' diploma in the final Fontainebleau examinations Franklin B. Launer was also awarded honorable mention in the performers' class. With no diplomas awarded in this class, and only one other "honorable mention," and that to a student with three years of study in Fontainebleau, such success speaks highly of the results of only three months work on the part of Mr. Launer. During the winter he will study in Paris.

The Three Link club is planning for Friday afternoon a Halloween social. The invitation is extended to include any Rebekah. The hostess committee for the afternoon is named as follows: Jennie Krutzenga, Elizabeth Waters, Ethel Fletcher, Myrat Terrill, and Louise Dowling. Those who are in charge of the entertainment are Madeline Nash, Viola Tyler and Hannah Beard.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop has as her house guest her sister Mrs. C. T. Roberts of Hood River. Today Mr. and Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Roberts are motoring to Corvallis to be the guests of Mrs. Roberts' son who is a student in the college.

The Marion County Christian Endeavor convention will be held in the First Christian church in Silverton on October 24, 25 and 26. The opening address on Friday evening will be followed by a get-acquainted social in the basement of the church. It is hoped that every society in the county will be represented at this social. Saturday will be devoted to class work in Christian Endeavor methods, and will be led by state or county officers. At 6:30 a banquet will be served, and a pep session will follow. Plans are almost completed whereby a missionary from Japan will speak Saturday evening.

Sunday morning delegates will attend the church of their choice, and no convention meetings will be held in the morning. Sunday afternoon's program is complete, including an address and special music, followed by a union C. E. meeting of all the societies in the county.

Miss Viola Ogden of Portland and Mr. Walter Meyers of Eugene will be the state union representatives at the convention. Hugh McCallum of Jefferson will lead the singing.

All delegates are to be entertained in Silverton homes, given room and breakfast free.

Registrations, accompanied by a small fee of 25 cents, should be sent to Miss Hazel McMorris, 160 North Eighteenth street, Salem.

The YMCA swimming classes, which afford recreation for 125 women and girls every Wednesday, will have the service of Mrs. Stuart, one of Salem's best known nurses, beginning Wednesday. Mrs. Stuart will be at the natatorium to give the required lung, heart and skin examinations necessary for each new member of any of the classes. The women's class meets each Wednesday morning, school girls in the afternoon and business girls in the evening.

The Girl Reserve work at the girls' training school is being organized in an interesting manner under the leadership of Miss Hazel Malmstem. The work comes under four separate groups with Miss Elaine Clower, Miss Lucille Wylie, Miss Mildred Grant and Miss Elizabeth Silver each in charge of one.

Yesterday the formal recognition service of the fall semester was held, with those attending including Miss Marian Wyman, Miss Malmstem, Miss Clower, Miss Wylie, Miss Grant and Miss Silver.

Miss Vivian Brotherton of Portland, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Clifford Brown, for the past two weeks, will leave for her home today. Mrs. Brown will motor to Portland with Miss Brotherton.

The American Legion auxiliary will sponsor a delightful entertainment tomorrow evening planned for the pleasure of the legion members. Invitations are cordially extended to all wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of legion men to attend the anticipated affair for which McCornack hall will be the scene, opening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. H. R. White is in charge of the program arrangements for the evening.

Mrs. Maude S. Weir of Portland has been appointed chairman of education for the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs by the president, Mrs. Alice B. Maloney, of Marshfield. Mrs. Weir is active in PEO work as well as in the local Business and Professional Women's club and other activities. Mrs. Ella S. Wilson of Salem is state chairman of legislation for the Business and Professional Women, and Miss Ann Sherlock of Portland heads the membership committee. Miss Mozelle Hair of the University of Oregon, Eugene, heads the health committee.

Mrs. Josephine Forney, chairman of the publicity committee, is outlining plans to be of aid to chairmen in the different clubs. Miss Ruth E. Sheldon, The Dalles, represents "The Independent Woman," magazine of the organization. Miss Mamie Zieglerman of the Portland Woman's Advertising club is chairman of the finance committee. The committee on personnel research is in charge of Mrs. Pearl Baldwin, Portland. Miss Cecelia Beyer of Astoria is chairman of the program committee.
