One Hour Dress Demonstration

THIS famous type of dress is being demonstrated twice daily at 10-11 a.m. and 5-6 p. m. today. It is the creation of Mary Brooks Picken, Director of Instruction of the Woman's Institute, Scranton, Pa., 'the largest school of dressmaking in the world. She designed it to show women how simple it is to make smart, distinctive clothes, when they have proper instruction.

See the Dress Made

The demonstrator is showing local women how to make the One Hour Dress in any of 17 pleasing variations. She actually makes the dress twice daily so you can see with your own eyes just how she does it.

We are very glad to have the privilege of present-ing the opportunity to obtain this valuable information without charge.

Moreover, a booklet explaining, step by step, this famous method of making dresses within an hour will be given free of charge to those purchasing material for a dress in our fabric department.
