CONSTITUTION and Americanization day will centralize the program of the Salem Woman's club for Saturday at 2:30 o'clock at the club house. According to the calendar announcement Judge H. M. Belt of Dallas will be the speaker of the day, taking as his subject, "Americanization."

The reception committee announced includes Mrs. G. E. Schumann, chairman; Mrs. Henry E. Morris, Mrs. G. L. Arbuckle, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. P. A. Eikert, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. Harry Wels, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Guy Smith and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. C. K. Logan and Mrs. F. W. Lang plan to motor this morning to Tualatin, Or. to be guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. H. S. Logan will be the hostess.

The Fairmount Hill club will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, 1660 Fir street.

The members of Mrs. Ralph White's ballet class are planning a delightful party for Friday. Miss Mildred Roberts is in charge, with each member of the class privileged to invite guests to participate in the affair.

The young married people's class of the First Methodist church met at the E. O. Welling home on South Twentieth street Tuesday evening for the regular monthly social meeting, in the form of a costume party. Mrs. H. E. Shade assisted in the entertaining.

With the party a Hallowe'en affair, the house was decorated with colored leaves, Jack o'lanterns, witches and black cats. The different costumes were the source of much mirth. Appropriate refreshments, including pumpkin pie and sweet cider, with coffee and sandwiches was served. The next club social will come on November 25, when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kletzing will entertain at their home on the highway north of Salem.

The Kensington club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Hauser, 652 North Winter street.

Miss Mabel Marcus and Miss Danta Robbins, recent pledges to the Delta Psi Kappa honorary physical education sorority, were honor guests at a banquet given by the Oregon Agricultural college chapter of the organization at the campus tea room.

The Woman's Relief corps aid society will meet today for an all-day meeting at the armory. Pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

The members of the ladies' aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet for the October meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. The hostesses for the afternoon are Mesdames Buren, Robertson, Brant, Power, Sample, Folis, H. C. Wyatt, Finkbinder and Bishop.

Mrs. O. L. Fisher will be hostess for her club this afternoon for 1 o'clock luncheon and bridge.

The girls of the T. A. club were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Lorraine Pierce for an autumn costume party. The guest group included Miss Mildred Pierson, Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Josephine Maudling, Miss Virginia McIntee, Miss Jenny Dezel, Miss Lo Leistey, Miss Pauline Johnson, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Pauline Findley, Miss Wilma Coursey, Miss Minnie Shrode, Miss Marguerite Bailey, Miss Rosalind Rodgers, Miss Geneva Sundin, Miss Cralis Baker, Miss Rosalie Buren, Miss Mildred Gilbert, Miss Jean Shipp, Miss Dorothy Kezar, Miss Helen Breitenstein, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Caroline Lambirth, and Miss Helen Ramsden, an alumna who is attending Oregon Agricultural college at present.

Members of the Three Link club are anticipating the Hallowe'en social which the members of the committee are carefully completing for tomorrow afternoon. All Rebekahs are invited to meet for the program. The social committee includes Madeline Nash, Viola Tyler and Hannah Beard.

The hostesses will be: Jennie Krutzengs, Elizabeth Waters, Ethel Fletcher, Myra Terrill and Louise Dowling.

The members of the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity were dinner hosts Tuesday evening for the Willamette university fraternity presidents. Guest covers were placed for Dwight Findley, president of Sigma Tau; Paul Roeder, president of Epsilon Delta Mu; Leland Chapin, of Kappa Gamma Rho, and Richard Briggs, president of Alpha Psi Delta.

The members of the Jason Lee auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gordon Black with Mrs. W. F. Miller and Mrs. W. A. Bond joint hostesses. The decorations carried out attractively the Hallowe'en motif. A pumpkin-basket, filled with ruddy apples, centered the table. Mrs. Miller, corresponding secretary of the society, reported on the branch meeting in Bellingham which she attended as a delegate.

A delicious Hallowe'en luncheon of which pumpkin pie with whipped cream was the main dish was served late in the afternoon. Esther Black and Lois Miller, in ghost costumes, assisted in passing the refreshments.

The group present for the evening included Mrs. F. S. Barton, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Miss Renska Swart, Dr. James Lisle, Miss Esther Lisle, Cedric Chang and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lisle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sociolofsky and little daughter, Sonia Marie, are enjoying the southern route on their way to New Hampshire where they will make their home.

Interesting plans are being made for Rally week at the First Evangelical church, the programs having been postponed till the return of the pastor from a fortnight spent in the east. With Dr. Poling now home, the first service of the five planned will come tonight in the form of a "Home-

The making of plans for the coming meeting of the Northwest Poetry society, which will meet in Salem Saturday evening, Nov. 1, supplemented the meeting of the Writers' club Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Lisle. The poetry society, which has met for all previous meetings in Portland and vicinity, has accepted the invitation of the Salem Writers' club to meet here. The program will be given at the Chamber of Commerce from 7 o'clock in the evening to 10.

Mrs. F. S. Barton is chairman of the general arrangements with Prof. M. E. Peck heading the committee on entertainment.
Features of the Tuesday Writers' club program were the impressionistic poems by Cedric Chang and the football story read by the host, Mr. Lisle also read a poem descriptive of his own interesting collection of diverse firearms, entitled "Guns on My Wall."

Mrs. F. G. Franklin interested the audience in a delightful symposium dedicated to Hazel Hall, including a large number of written tributes to the late gifted poet. Mrs. Ruth Fargo read the third and concluding part of her juvenile serial, "Split Milk."

A character sketch of merit was read by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith.
The group present for the evening included Mrs. F. S. Barton, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Miss Renska Swart, Dr. James Lisle, Miss Esther Lisle, Cedric Chang and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lisle.

coming meeting" this evening in the church basement.
With Sunday, October 26, as formal rally day for the church, the day will include four programs. Adapting the Sunday school service to the time, the children will present a program of recitation and song. At 1 o'clock a basket dinner will be served in the church basement, with three-minute after dinner speeches to follow at 2 o'clock, given by prominent church workers on subjects of vital interest. An added feature will be the delightful 7 o'clock musical in the church parlors Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. C. Hickman will entertain the faculty women of Kimball college at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at her home, 1765 State street.

Election of officers and an interesting program of music and readings interested the large number of the members of the C-university class of the First Baptist church meeting yesterday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. T. W. Davies. Black cats, forerunners of Hallowe'en—and yellow chrysantheums decorated the rooms in an effective manner.

Mrs. S. Willis, the teacher of the class, opened the afternoon with devotions. Election of officers followed with Mrs. C. R. Gregg named as president; Mrs. H. Clare as vice president, and Mrs. Harry Ralph as secretary-treasurer.

For the delightful program numbers Mrs. W. F. Foster gave a piano solo; Mrs. H. E. Rafferty a group of readings; while Mrs. Harry Harms sang. Mrs. G. Ed. Ross was the social chairman of the afternoon. Hot tamales and coffee formed the refreshments of the afternoon. Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mrs. Milton Melchert, Mrs. C. Nundinger, Mrs. D. D. Sociolofsky, Mrs. M. A. Estes, Mrs. F. H. Clare, and Mrs. Harry Ralph were included in the hostess committee.

Those present for the afternoon were: Mrs. E. S. Willis, Mrs. E. Standifer, Mrs. Earl Gregg, Mrs. Adele Schroeder, Mrs. O. N. Goodkins, Mrs. E. C. Farmer, Mrs. J. J. Newmeyer, Mrs. Ben T. Rafferty, Mrs. Janet Davidson, Mrs. Earl Tweeddale, Mrs. Harry Harms Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mrs. John Sholand, Mrs. W. H. Hendrickson, Mrs. G. Ed. Ross, Mrs. G. R. Winner, Mrs. W. McLaren, Mrs. A. J. Matthis, Mrs. Theodore Roth, Mrs. E. H. Shanks, Mrs. Wallace Burgby, Rev. E. H. Shanks, and the hostess, Mrs. T. W. Davies.

The Woman's Evangelistic Prayer league will meet today at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. F. Long, 160 South 25th street. Mrs. R. L. Patnam will have charge of the lesson.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the entire month was the Hallowe'en party Monday night at which the members of the American legion auxiliary were hostesses, entertaining for the legion in McCornack hall. The hall was a complete autumn scene, golden pumpkins and sheaves of rustling corn stalks filling in the corners with a colorful supplement of autumn leaves. A literal profusion of fall flowers further decked the rooms.

The delicious late supper was served at two long tables decorated with vivid flowers and Hallowe'en favors. Pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and sandwiches and coffee provided the menu. Mrs. H. R. White had charge of the social part of the successful affair.

The program included bag-pipe numbers by John Charge, a solo dance by Miss Maxine Meyers, vocal numbers by Biddy Bishop, and a dance with bag-pipe accompaniment by little Miss Hutcheon. Two hundred guests were present for the affair with the remainder of the evening given over to dancing.

OAG TO BROADCAST TUESDAYS BY RADIO

A College Education By Radio Has Long Since Passed Fad Stage

An agricultural and educational radio service will be broadcast by the O. A. C. Extension service from the Portland Oregonian station every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock till further notice. Two minute lectures on general farm, truck and backlot garden and general educational subjects, by extension, experiment station and college specialists, will constitute each program.

"College by radio has passed the fad stage and is now recognized by the extension service as a modern utility," says announcement. "Inquiries of 1500 listeners by the Oregonian showed that more than 25 per cent of them are interested in agricultural lectures, and 196 radio owners out of 200 in rural districts, queried by the extension service, want the agricultural lectures continued."

The formal schedule for the landscape garden dealing with fall planting and pruning and ordering and handling nursery stock, by Prof. A. L. Peck, is one subject for October 21. Late fall and winter vegetables, including storage, by Prof. A. G. Bonquet, is the other. Subjects for every Tuesday evening will be sent to all weekly newspapers in time for publication of the week before. Among some of those already scheduled are the following:

Animal husbandry questions—sheep and hogs; how to research hives Oregon; Horticulture—time-ly topics, pruning, fertilizers, varietes, thinning, cover crops and soil maintenance; Farm crops—potato grading and storage, permanent pastures, wheat production, and alfalfa; Poultry—town-ly poultry keeping, farm poultry, specialized poultry and profitable egg production; Farm engineering—land clearing with explosives, operating the furnace; Markets and marketing—interpreting market reports for Oregon application; Boys and girls club work; other phases of landscape gardening—Small city—lot is landscaping possible? rural and suburban layouts; trees and shrubs; lawn making and keeping; perennials—stock and seeds.

BERLIN HELPS ITS NEEDY

BERLIN, Sept. 20 (AP)—A daughter of the late Rudolf Virchow, famous German surgeon and honorary citizen of the capital, has been discovered here living in the utmost poverty. The city fathers have granted her a temporary allowance of 225 gold marks a month.

Men are not always superior to animals. When a dog starts itching he can scratch anywhere.

Tokio Honors Philadelphian

TOKIO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Edmond D. Berton, an American, is one of 1,500 residents of Tokio chosen by the metropolitan police to receive special money grants and formal letters of thanks in the name of the Tokio municipal authorities for heroic deeds or meritorious services on September 1, 1923, when Tokio was more than half destroyed by earthquake and fire. Mr. Berton, a native of Philadelphia, is the only foreigner to be so honored.

CREAM CLEARS A STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Clears Throat, Too.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief. Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking and snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.—Adv.
