AUDRED BUNCH PHONE: 106

WITH Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick the honor guest, Mrs. E. C. Hickman entertained a delightfully yesterday afternoon at her home for the members of the Kimball college faculty Women's club. Pink and white blossoms, pink snapdragons combining with delicately tinted cosmos, were used on the luncheon table where covers were placed for: Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. E. S. Hammond, Mrs. W. H. Hertzog, Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Mrs. J. D. McCormick, Mrs. Thomas A. Acheson, Mrs. D. W. Riddle, Mrs. George Emory and the hostess, Mrs. E. C. Hickman.

The informal program included Mrs. Riddle. In the serving the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Inez F. Fleming.

The Interior Decorating section of the Salem Arts league will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the library for the first autumn meeting. Mrs. Monroe Gilbert will be in charge.

The benefit remmaga sale which will be given by the South Central circle will open next Thursday, October 30, and continue for three days. The sale will be held in the new Eckerlin building, corner of Liberty and Ferry streets. All donations will be greatly appreciated, especially canned goods and men's, women's, and children's clothing. All articles left over from the sale will be used in Christmas boxes for the needy. The building will be open Wednesday afternoon to receive donations.

The members of the Community Bridge club and their husbands will be entertained tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. L. A. Grote with Mrs. Al Steiner entertaining with Mrs. Grote.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet for the monthly meeting at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the church parlors. The hostesses if the day will be Mesdames Buren, Robertson, Brant, Power, Sample, Follis, H. C. Wyatt, Finkbner, and Bishop.

The Women's Republican Study club will meet at the Woman's club house at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, with George W. Caldwell the speaker of the day. Mr. Caldwell who comes from Portland will present a number of national issues. As an open meeting, and the last meeting before election, a large crowd is anticipated.

A cooked food sale is being planned for tomorrow by the members of the newly organized ASV club to be held at the Piggy Wiggly store.

The Sweet Briar club met Wednesday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. Ed. Pratt, Cosmos were the flowers used in the rooms. The afternoon was spent in completing the calendar of the club year with Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Kage, Mrs. Steiner, and Mrs. Kugel the committee in charge.

Club members present for the afternoon were: Mrs. Glen Adams, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Nina Adams, Mrs. James Imlah, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mrs. M. C. Petrys, Mrs. William McCall, and Mrs. Al Steiner.

Mrs. Vera Brady Shipman has returned to Salem after a short time spent in San Francisco. She is a house-guest, together with her little daughter, Mary Jule, at the John L. Brady home.

The Women's society of the First Baptist church will hold their regular quarterly business meeting and social today at the church. There will be a meeting of the executive committee at 10 o'clock and White Cross work will also begin at that hour. A pot-luck lunch will be served at the noon hour. At 2:30 o'clock a business session will be held, a social hour following. All ladies in the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

The members of the Yomarc club of the First Methodist Sunday school will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Foley, 603 North Winter street, for sewing.

SILVERTON, Or., Oct. 23.

(Special to The Statesman.)—Mrs. B. Lyons, Mrs. L. McDonald and Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg were hostesses to Trinity Dorcas society at Trinity social rooms Tuesday evening of this week. At the business meeting the society voted to discontinue the sales which it has held during former years. Following the business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mrs. H. D. Chambers will be hostess at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for the members of the Woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's church.

The newly organized ASV club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Hattie B. Cameron for a very enjoyable meeting. The time was spent in sewing and in the completing of plans for a cooked food sale tomorrow at the Piggy Wiggly store. Guests of the auxiliary were Mrs. Paul R.

Shreve of Medford, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Elizabeth Blinn. At the end of the afternoon the hostess served delicious refreshments. She was assisted by Mrs. Frances Butte, Mrs. Della Clearwater, and Mrs. Mary Lickel.

The International Relations committee of the American Association of University Women, consisting of Mrs. Viola Price Franklin, Miss Maud Covington, Miss Marion Wyman, Mrs. Florian von Eschen, Mrs. C. A. Kells, are planning an interesting program for Monday evening at the Public library. Three speakers will give the respective attitude of each party upon international relations. Judge W. E. Crews, Corporation commissioner will present the attitude of the Democratic party, and Dr. A. Slaughter will give the attitude of the Independent party. The speaker for the Republican party will be announced later.

There will be a "Round Table" discussion of the addresses after the addresses. The public is urged to attend.
