

SALEMITE WRITES OF SOUTH AMERICA

Letter Received From Francis Kinch, Who Is Now in Missionary Work

A. C. Bohrnstedt, teacher and leader of the Live-Wire Sunday school class of the Leslie Methodist church, has received a communication from Francis Kinch, a former member of his class who is now a missionary at Casilla Llague, Chile, South America. Kinch is graduate of Willamette university and has been in South America for the past year. He is one of several Live Wires who are in the foreign field.

Mr. Kinch describes a small group of mischievous Chilean boys who are studying out loud and gives a short description of their characteristics and especially of their moral responsibility.

"Here it is Saturday, which means that our week's vacation is nearly over with. We have a week's vacation at this time of the year, in celebration of the Independence of Chile, the 18th of September. Most of the boys who live in the school have gone to their homes and will be coming back tomorrow or Monday. These folks sure like to stay out late and every night if they can find anything to go to. Everybody goes to church (that are church members) Sunday evening, to Epworth league Tuesday evening, prayer meeting Thursday evening, and to any other thing that they

Safe Fat Reduction

Why be fat? The answer of most fat people is that constant dieting is hard, or that exercise is a bore, or that it is harmful to force the weight down. That was the old-fashioned idea. Today it is Marcola Prescription Tablets all those difficulties are overcome. Just take a little tablet after each meal and at bed-time, cause fat to vanish. This modern method of reducing is so simple, so exciting and has the added advantage of cheapness.

Get a box of these tablets and start taking them now. Within a short time you will be getting rid of fat steadily and easily without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. You will be comfortable and happy and the food you like best. Even after taking off many pounds, there will be no flabbiness or wrinkles remaining. You will feel 100 per cent again.

Marcola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a box, or the Marcola Company, General Offices, Building Detroit, Michigan, gladly send them to you on receipt of the price.—Adv.

EVANS BIBLE CLASS HAS FINE PROGRAM

Armistice Day Is Keynote; Women Invited to Theatre This Morning

The Armistice Day program which the John J. Evans Bible class offer at the Bligh theatre today is one of the best that the class has ever offered to its members. The meeting was held each Sunday from 9:30 to 10:45 in the morning. The program for today is as follows:

Bugle call for Assembly at 9:30 a.m., followed by the call to colors by the bugle. The singing of patriotic and class by the audience will be one of the features of the day. The chairman of the platform will be R. O. Snelling, and the song service to be led by O. Hall A. Bigerstaf will also take part in the singing.

George P. Griffith, state commander of the American Legion, will give the main patriotic speech and this will be followed by short address by several World War veterans. Special numbers are to be given by the Junior Rotary quartet.

The main address of the meeting will be by Rev. John J. Evans, leader of the class.

This is one of the two Sundays of the year at which women are permitted to attend the service.

An invitation to all patriotic organizations for their members to attend the meeting is given.

Freight Train Service Better at Silverton

SILVERTON, Ore., Nov. 8. — (Special).—Delbert Reeves Post No. 7 of the American Legion announced that it is all prepared for the largest Armistice day celebration yet held at Silverton. A parade will begin at 9:30 to be followed by a program at the Eugene Field auditorium. In the afternoon the Silverton high school football team will meet that of Milwaukee on the Silver Falls gridiron. In the evening the Legion boys are sponsoring a large program dance at the Silverton armory.

Freshman at Silverton Entertained By Sophos

SILVERTON, Ore., Nov. 8. — (Special).—Nearly 100 per cent of the 67 freshmen responded to the invitation of the sophomores to attend a reception at the Eugene Field auditorium Friday night. The freshman boys were asked to come in overalls while the girls were requested to wear middies that they might be more easily distinguished from the sophomores. The sophomores put their guests through a light form of initiation consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, of cracker eating contests, and various other "stunts." The high-school faculty were present as chaperones for the evening's amusement.

partment. Mr. Mondell was permanent chairman of the republican national convention.

For the post of secretary of agriculture, the president is understood to be looking for a farmer and to that end has required farm leaders to submit recommendations.

Louis J. Tabor, master of the national Grange of Colinton, Ohio, is among those most prominently mentioned in this connection.

Officials for the "horse show" were Edgar Tibbits, judge; Erwin Duffy and Robert Asbury, associate judges; Helen Marcus, director in charge, and Cecil L. Edwards, ring master.

Exhibitors were J. C. Nelson, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Frances Hrubetz, Miss Grace Snook and Hollis Huntington.

Events included the roadster, light harness competition for the gentlemen's cup, draft horses in harness, dancing horses, three-gaited saddle horses and a polo game.

Entrants in the various events and the name of the "horses" were:

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins.

Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Men- tho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.
