

FOOTBALL TEAM AND SPECIAL TRAIN OF ROOTERS OFF TODAY

EUGENE HIGH HELD STRONG

Salem Promised More Opposition Than Was Put Forth By Albany

Accompanied by a special train-load of rooters, the Salem high school football team will leave this morning for Eugene, where they will clash with the purple and white this afternoon. Coach Huntington is taking 22 players along on the trip.

From reports here Eugene is considered a formidable aggregation and superior to Albany, which was defeated 28 to 7. So far the game with Albany has been the only one played by the red and black this season. Practice has been aided by one scrimmage contest against first year players at Willamette.

What Salem will do to Eugene remains to be seen, and the "doing" may be done by the latter team. Members of the Salem eleven are far from confident of a victory, due to their lack of real opposition this year. However, they are filled with the old fighting spirit and will scrap to the final whistle blow.

The train will return to Salem shortly after the finish of the game, leaving Eugene about 5:30 o'clock. Several of the Salem fans are motoring to the university city.

There will be no spectacular game played here today, though the J. L. Parrish Junior high school is slated to mix with the Stayton high school aggregation there.

Huskies Have No Eastern Opponent for December 6

SEATTLE, Nov. 10.—No opponent has been obtained for a football game that the University of Washington's schedule included for December 6, with an eastern team, Darwin Meisnest, Husky graduate manager, said today. Washington stands ready to play any representative collegiate team in Seattle December 6, said Meisnest.

SAINTS GET COAST MAN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 10.—Fred Mollwitz, first baseman with Sacramento, Pacific coast league, has been obtained by the St. Paul American Association club it was announced today. The Saints gave for him "Speed" Martin, pitcher, who had refused to report to the locals last spring.

Airships are Compared With Distances in City

This week's bulletin of the Salem Chamber of Commerce gives interesting information concerning the Shenandoah, the monster airship, which recently passed close to Salem. It is 630 feet long and 79 feet wide and would extend from the Ladd & Bush corner east to Kafoury Bros. store, filling the street and part of the sidewalk.

The ZRS, which is 650 feet long and 90 feet wide would extend from the United States National bank corner, north on Commercial until in front of Rostein & Greenbaugh and would fill the entire street and almost all the sidewalk on each side.

THREE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAMES

Six Colleges Will Enter Football Clashes on Armistice Day Today

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—Armistice day tomorrow will find six squads of the southern California college football conference tangle in a three sector battle after resting for the past ten days.

Pomona college visits Whittier in the important encounter of the day, Occidental college takes on the Southern Institute of Technology, which has yet to win a game, in the Rose bowl, Pasadena, and the University of California southern branch travels to Redlands to face the University of Redland's team.

IDAHO, GONZAGA TIE FOR HONORS

Willamette Ranks Second From Bottom in Northwest Conference List

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 10.—One more leader of the Pacific Northwest intercollegiate football conference was dethroned as the result of a defeat Saturday and the race is tied between Idaho and Gonzaga, although the former has four victories and one tie to its credit and the latter only two victories and a tie.

Idaho blanked Oregon 13 to 0 Saturday, forcing the loser below the University of Washington in conference standings. Washington State and the Oregon Aggies engaged in a tough tussle Friday, the Aggies winning 14 to 13. Their standings, however, were unaltered.

Montana's 61 to 7 victory over Pacific University Saturday and Whitman's 7 to 6 victory over Willamette placed both of them above Willamette with a percentage of .250 in the standings. Washington held California to a 7 to 7 tie.

ILLINOIS-CHICAGO TIE SEEMS LIKELY

Maroons Will Declare Draw for Honors if They Win Remaining Games

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—At the close of the Western conference football season, if neither Illinois nor Chicago has met defeat, an Illinois-Chicago tie for the conference championship will be asserted by the University of Chicago and gold footballs emblematic of championship honors, will be awarded the players. This was learned today from the Chicago athletic department where A. A. Stagg, veteran coach was in high elation over the gripping battle in which his men carried their offense through the Illinois team, scoring the first touch of the game.

In case Chicago wins from Northwestern and Wisconsin in the remaining games and Illinois wins from Minnesota and Ohio, the Midway will claim a championship tie between Chicago and Illinois.

With no defeats this year for the two leaders, the season will end with four victories each for Illinois and Chicago, one tie for Illinois and two for Chicago.

TONY FUENTE STILL CLIMBING UPWARD

Mexican Fighter to Meet Mike McTigue on Washington's Birthday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—Tony Fuente, Mexican heavyweight whose repeated knockouts of his opponents during the past two months have added zest to the "heavy" boxing game in the west, will meet Mike McTigue, light heavyweight champion, February 22 in the American Legion stadium at Culver City, near here, according to an announcement today by Fred Winsor, Fuente's manager, and also manager of the stadium. On November 17 Fuente meets Fred Fulton, Minnesota plasterer in a four round contest at Culver City and the winner of this match will go against Bartley Madden at Culver City, December 1, according to Winsor.

PARRISH LOSES GAME WITH HEAVY CHEMAWA

The game with Chemawa was a failure for Parrish. Although the team did their utmost the game was lost with a score of 25 to 0. The Chemawa team was older and far heavier than the Parrish team.

The touchdowns were made by long runs. The longest was 79 yards. Chemawa did some splendid team work, although three of their best men were knocked out.

Lee Eckner and Paul Phillips did some splendid work for Parrish. A game with Stayton is scheduled for today.

LETTER ON TRANSIENT CLUE TO MISSING GIRLS

M. G. Morrow, a sleeper booked recently at the Salem police station furnished a clue by letters in his possession which the Salem and Portland police authorities used in locating two girls who had run away from their homes in Montesano, Wash. A circular had been received by the local police rescribing the runaways and giving their names.

Sergeant Smart found the letters on Morrow which had been written by one of the girls and was signed with her first name. In it she referred to her chum by the initial of her first name. The letter contained references of the two girls leaving home.

An order was given for Morrow to be detained and he was questioned by police matron Myra

CHINESE WILLAMETTE STUDENT LEARNS OF DEATH OF WIFE

Cedric Chang, a senior at Willamette university, received a letter from his home in China last Saturday which told of the sudden death of his wife. Details were lacking in the brief letter and it is presumed that her death was unexpected. Mrs. Chang is survived by her husband and a son three and one-half years old.

He has been in the United States about three years and will remain here three years more to complete his education, after which he will return to China and engage in educational work.
