THE SILVER TEA tomorrow afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer, 324 North Capitol street, will doubtless attract a throng of interested Salem folk. The tea, which is being given for the scholarship loan fund, is under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women. As quite the largest affair of the week much attention is being given to musical and floral details, as well as all other arrangements.

Mrs. N. P. Cooper, educational director of the northwest district, Mrs. Merwin, president of the Portland branch, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, and Mrs. C. P. Bishop have been asked to pour during the afternoon.

Assisting in the dining room will be: Mrs. Kenneth Legge, Miss Merle McKelvey, Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Hazel Paden, Miss Harriet Peat, Miss Marjorie Linton, Miss Ola Clark, and Miss Lella Johnson.

A musical program will be given during the afternoon, including vocal numbers by Miss Josephine Gross, Miss Lena Belle Taylor, and Mrs. Ruth Emory Riddle; piano selections by Miss Genevieve Findley, Miss Louise Findley, and Miss Eugenia Savage; and violin solos by Miss Margaret Castner.

The members of the scholarship loan committee of the Association with Mrs. E. C. Richards as chairman, are in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. C. A. Downs is planning the program. The personnel of the committee on the tea are: Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Downs, Mrs. Acton, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. Alice Edmunsden, Mrs. Leigh McIntyre, Mrs. Merle McKelvey, Mrs. A. C. F. Ferry, Mrs. F. H. Thompson, and Mrs. Horace Williston.

Calling hours for tomorrow will be from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock with the invitation to attend open to all.

Re-naming what was formerly the Amicus club to the Vincentian club the members met for the first meeting under the new name on Wednesday evening. The organization which exists solely for social purposes is sponsored by Father Thomas Vincent Keenan who is honored in the club name.

and includes over 120 of the young people of St. Joseph's parish.

Bert Ford is the club president; Miss Leah Suing, vice president; Miss Pauline Patterson, recording secretary; and Gerald Suing treasurer.

Wednesday evening the club enjoyed a dance at Derby hall. Such affairs, which are strictly invitational, will be given every second and fourth Wednesday in the month.

On November 25, the club will sponsor a Thanksgiving ball at Derby hall.

A large number of interested Arts League members are planning attendance at the sessions every second and fourth Fridays of the section in Interior Decorating. This progressive class meets with its leader, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, at the public library at 7:30 o'clock on the chosen nights, the first November meeting coming tonight.

Those having signed up for the class are: Mrs. John Lau, Dr. Mary Rowland, Mrs. Heinlein, Mrs. F. W. Lange, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. F. E. Barker, Miss Mabel Temple, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Miss Loretta Ford, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. Elmo White, Miss Leora Carver, Mrs. E. P. Smith, Mrs. Sarah Hammonnet, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Maimi Victor, and Miss Maude Covington.

SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—The home of Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman was the scene of a happy party when 40 Erythian Sisters of Home Temple No. 21 came with well filled baskets to surprise her and extend to her their congratulations and best wishes upon her election as Grand Senior of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon.

They presented her with a beautiful bouquet of large yellow chrysanthemums as a mark of their esteem. The afternoon was spent in social conversation, music, and in doing fancy work.

Saturday has been chosen as the day for the regular annual inspection of the Woman's Relief corps. Mrs. Nellie Aldrich, Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans and Mrs. Mollie Barlow, all of Oregon City, and all department officers will be present for the pot-luck dinner and the afternoon inspection to which the members of the Grand Army are invited.

Mrs. Aldrich is department president, Mrs. Evans secretary, and Mrs. Barlow treasurer.

All members of the corps are particularly urged to attend.

Members of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association are anticipating the delightful musicale which Mrs. Martin Fereshtetian will give this evening as a special program. Her songs will include an unusually interesting range of numbers.

A happy dinner party was that at 6 o'clock last evening at which Beatrice Crawford Newcomb was hostess at the Colonial Dame tea shop, entertaining as her guests the Oregonian newshoys.

Mrs. C. E. Lewis has returned to Arizona for the winter. His family will remain in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McBride of Elma, Wash., left the E. E. May and Willi Mrs. Waters, where they have been visiting, yesterday afternoon for California where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. McBride are making the trip by automobile.

Bridge early in the week was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. Frank E. Shafer winning the afternoon's high score. Guests for the day were: Mrs. S. S. East, Mrs. Walter Buchner and Mrs. Charles Powell of Vancouver, Wash.

Club members present for the afternoon were: Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Anne Klein, Mrs. H. S. Poisal and Mrs. F. E. Shafer.

The Women's society of the First Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Pickens, 140 North 17th street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. A. O. Davidson, Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, Mrs. Latham, and Mrs. Arnold will be hostesses with Mrs. Pickens.

All members having mite boxes to be opened or who wish to make a thank offering may do so at this time. The following program will be of interest to all.

Devotions, Mrs. S. Willis; vocal solo, Mrs. Charles Davis; convention echoes, Miss Mina Gile; WWG, Miss Lucille McClean, Mrs. Burton's address, Mrs. Earl Gregg; Miss Failing in India, Mrs. E. H. Shanks; Embank on China, Mrs. George O'Neil; Children's Farm Home, Mrs. James Smithers; "The Golden Three," Mrs. O. B. Neptune; Pianoforte solo, Dorothy Pickens.

All women of the congregation are cordially welcome to this and all meetings of the Women's society.

Interesting Willamette University campus news is the organization of a local chapter of the national honorary sociological fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, through the efforts of Professor S. B. Laughlin. The following charter members have been chosen, all of whom are members of the senior class: Miss Jenelle Vandevort, Miss Juanita Henry, Dan Taylor, Sofia Zarsadiaz, Percy Hammond, and Cedric Chang.

One of the week's charming hostesses was Mrs. George E. Waters who entertained Wednesday at bridge, inviting guests to make up four tables. A variety of fall flowers were arranged in the rooms.

Each one attending is asked to bring 10 cents for the Christmas offering.

Salem friends of Scire Buell will be interested in the notice of his appearance in the Portland Civic Music radio program yesterday evening broadcast from the Oregonian station. The following is from Wednesday's Oregonian:

Scire Buell is a gifted young musician, who is having the advantage of violin lessons under William Wallace Graham and is responding gratefully to the capable instruction he is receiving. He gives promise of developing into a violinist of worth and already he has established himself as one of the most promising of the younger group by reason of his assured touch and definite sense of musical values. In his numbers he will be accompanied by Bessie Briedwell Stone, a pianist who adds materially to the beauty of any program she appears on, either as a soloist or accompanist.

Mrs. F. W. Spencer was a mid-week visitor in Portland.

Miss Helen Hedlecke became the bride this week of P. A. Fiske at a quiet ceremony performed at the First Christ inn church parsonage by Rev. J. J. Evans. The bride was becomingly frocked in a smart tulleur.

Mrs. Fiske has been employed at Worth's department store as bookkeeper, while Mr. Fiske is connected with the Fairmount Dairy.

Mrs. Nellie Pickens, bride-elect, was honored with a lovely nuptial shower on a recent evening when friends gathered to surprise her at the J. D. Taylor home, with Mrs. Taylor and Miss Lucille Taylor as hostesses.

A large basket held the many, appropriate gifts. The flower-decked rooms formed the background for many games and clever skits which preceded the refreshment hour.

The guests were Miss Amy Siedler, Miss Violet Lottis, Miss Eugenia Savage, Miss Alice Zelke, Miss Ruth Ross, Miss Tunia Konigan, Miss Mildred Drake, Miss Helene Gregg, Miss Lucille Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Robert Seamster, Walter Lottis, Charles Anderson, Bruce Willis, Harold Socolofsky, Chester Perkins, Edward Gayer, Donald Grant, Clarence Litwiler, Kenneth Van Nise and Phil Nickleson.

The Brush College Parent-Teacher meeting will assemble at the schoolhouse at 8 o'clock.

Annual praise meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church has been set for today. The service will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. All women of the church and congregation are invited to come and take part. Mrs. Otto J. Wilson is chairman of the committee on arrangements and no effort is being spared to make the service most helpful and inspirational. Thank offerings will be received and given are asked to designate the object of person to which their gifts apply. The names of Dr. Maude Allen, Miss Jessie McNeal and Miss Gertrude Eakin are suggested, as this church is especially interested in these, but any other object of the boards may be remembered.
