PRATUM

The Willard Women's club gave a very interesting program Friday night at Willard Cook Patton from Salem, the famous magician held the audience spell-bound. Songs by Mrs. Thompson Mrs. J. Curry, Mr. Dorefler, violin solos by Mr. Small and reading by Roger Comstock and a young man from Silverton and a piano solo by Miss Gladys Emery, were all very much appreciated. Mrs. D. Ramseyer had charge of the entertainment.

Pratum school will have a basket social and program on Tuesday evening, November 25 at 8 p. m. There will be at least four new Fords at the Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow and one of them has been purchased by the pastor during the past week.

The Junior Citizenship league held a meeting Wednesday, Nov. 12, to contemplate an offer made by Henry Ford. Mr. Ford gives the league a chance to obtain an excellent projector for the school by securing subscriptions for his weekly paper, the Dearborn Independent.

Mr. Temple, salesman at the Valley Motor company, gave a short address telling of the merits of the paper and giving information concerning the moving picture machine. Mr. Temple pledged the support of the Valley Motor company in making the drive a success. The league has accepted the offer and are at work to gain their object.

A plan has been formed by the teachers to pay Mr. Giese for our canvas covering for the gym floor. Pictures will be taken of the school building and sold in the school and down town. The Junior Citizenship league has promised their assistance in the enterprise. With the cooperation of the faculty and the league the plan is certain to meet with success.

CONFEDERACY TO CONVENE SAVANNAH, Ga., (Nov. 15.—The 31st annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will convene here Wednesday, November 19. Preliminary exercises will be held Tuesday evening, November 18, in the municipal auditorium, while Monday, November 17, will be given over to a meeting of committees and a conference of the division presidents in charge of the president-general will take place. There are 100,000 members of the organization, with 1,125 chapters in 37 states and one in Paris. Last year the United Daughters of the Confederacy contributed to scholarship,

MUSIC IS A NECESSITY

Her own Aldrich piano

BECAUSE it is such a good, honestly made, durable piano, it will be her companion for years and years to come.

Long before its strings lose melody, she will have grown up to a home of her own, and a Steinway!

Meanwhile the Aldrich is only $445. It is a responsive, sympathetic piano, and dependable.
